Re: Quarterly Report

In the fourth Quarter of 2006 ABC 24 WPTY showed support for charities in Memphis with over $30,000 in air time. July - September we ran a series of promotional spots and community service vignettes focusing on children and youth, health care and service to the armed forces. In addition to the above mentioned community service efforts we participated or sponsored the following community events.

- A Waiting Child – a series of news features focusing on the need for adoption and expelling the myths surrounding the adoption process.

- The Child Care Report – a weekly feature that provides information on the child care rating system, and gives parents the knowledge to make informed decisions surround child care. Efforts include on-going thirty-second on –air vignettes.

- Choirs of Christmas – A one-time special spotlighting high school choirs within the Mid South viewing area.

We take our responsibility to keep our community informed of the issues of local importance and local service organizations and their caring activities very seriously. We pledge to continue to use our vital airtime to promote important, life-saving information on health care, safety, drugs and any critical issues that affect our viewing community.

Sincerely,

Jack
