WBFS-TV QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST
JULY 1 THROUGH SEPTEMBER 30, 2012

Attached are listings of broadcasts or broadcast segments that, in the Station's judgment, reflect the Station's most significant programming treatment of ascertained issues during the preceding three-month period. The Station also produced and broadcast public service announcements promoting local community events and campaigns.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA- A weekly half-hour public affairs broadcast featuring panel discussions and interviews with community leaders, focusing on important issues of local concern. Broadcast dates and times as indicated in the report.

NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS FALL SPECIAL: "HELPING FEELS GOOD" - A half-hour quarterly special consisting of a series of reports showing how CBS4's Neighbors 4 Neighbors provided support and assistance to South Florida residents in need during the second quarter of 2012. Broadcast dates and times as indicated on the report.

HEALTH/PUBLIC SAFETY: Topics in this category include: bone marrow donations; breastfeeding awareness; programs for people with developmental disabilities; fundraiser for cancer clinic; dangers of parasailing; protecting marine life; coping with personal tragedies; event that honors first responders and military families in memory of 9/11 hero; orangutan fighting cancer; and story of ALS sufferer.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: Focus on South Florida: 7/29, 10 AM. Lynval Henry, bone marrow donor and Marie Moore, representing "Be the Match" program discussed the importance of encouraging more people in the African American community to register as bone marrow donors. 8/12, 10 AM: Nadine Tanis, Breastfeeding Peer Counselor and Regina Roig-Romero, Senior Lactation Consultant discussed breastfeeding awareness month and how the campaign "Make Healthy Happen Miami" is promoting the health benefits of breastfeeding. 8/19, 10 AM, Violet Gonzalez, MACTown, and artists Nicole Henry and George Rodez discussed how the organization that helps people with developmental disabilities is celebrating its 50th Anniversary with an art gallery exhibit and jazz concert. 8/19, 10 AM. Michael Mandich, CEO Dolphins Cycling Challenge discussed this two-day tri-county charity event designed to increase cancer awareness, encourage healthy lifestyles, and raise funds for the University of Miami Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center. 9/2, 10 AM. Senator Gwen Margolis and Daniel Yaffe, Broward County Marine Advisory Committee discussed a deadly parasailing accident in Pompano Beach and their efforts to regulate parasailing operations. 9/2, 10 AM. Fabien Cousteau, great-grandson of Jacques Cousteau, discussed his efforts to protect South Florida's marine life by sustaining a healthy and safe environment with the planting of mangroves and other interventions. 9/9, 10 AM. Sonia Tita Puopolo, Author of the book "Sonia's Ring: 11 Ways to Heal Your Heart" discussed her personal loss during the 9/11 attacks at the World Trade Center and shared the lessons she learned from her loss about coping with tragedy. Jeff Berardelli, CBS4 Meteorologist and master of ceremonies and John Brant, Executive Vice President of Patriot National Insurance Group discussed the Stephen Siller Tunnel to Towers Run in Fort Lauderdale that honors first responders and military families in the memory of Stephen Siller, a firefighter who lost his life on 9/11 attacks at the World Trade Center. 9/23, 10 AM. Dr. Jason Chatfield, Veterinarian, Jungle Island discussed the case of one of their orangutans undergoing cancer treatment at their facilities. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS FALL SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: MDA SHOW OF STRENGTH: 9/30, 11:30 AM. This report focused on the story of a local man who lives with ALS, also known as Lou Gehrig's Disease and how MDA has helped improve his quality of life.

FAMILY/EDUCATION: Topics in this category include: program that provides services for children; educating families about predators; changes to student loan program; children's art program to promote kindness; collection of school supplies for needy children; program to inspire youth; children adoption campaign; career program for elementary school students; help for undocumented students; meditation for students; volunteering program for students; makeover of children's charity; campaign to teach kindness; school supplies campaign; and special reward for a special family.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 7/1, 10 AM. Sandra Bernard-Bastien and Laura Holt, Children's Services Council of Broward discussed how their program provides advocacy, and funding for services for and on behalf of children. 7/8, 10 AM. Trudy Novicki, Executive Director at the Kristi House discussed their new e-mail campaign "Trick People are the New Strangers" intended to educate families about how predators operate and how to identify those who pose a danger to children. 7/8, 10 AM. Dr. Jeffrey Swain, FMU Professor discussed how the changes to the federal student loans programs are affecting undergraduate and graduate students. 7/15, 10 AM. Mary-Alicia Johnson and Charlotte Donn, of the local YMCA discussed a special project in cooperation with Neighbors 4 Neighbors to encourage children to promote random acts of kindness through their art. 7/15, 10 AM. Juan del Hierro and Shante Haymore, of Unity on the Bay discussed their campaign to provide backpacks and school supplies to low-income students. 7/22, 10 AM. Stephan Morris and Jonathan Babicka, Co-Founders, MOMM Organization discussed their program that works to educate and inspire youth and young professionals. 7/29, 10 AM. Barbara Schechter, Executive Director, Heart Gallery of Broward County discussed this program that finds permanent homes for abused or abandoned children as they celebrate their 101st adoption. 8/5, 10 AM. John Casbarro, President, Learning for Success, discussed the KAPOW program that works to create partnerships with businesses and elementary schools with the goal of introducing students to career opportunities. 8/19, 10 AM Reyna Grubair, Founder and President of The Honduras Foundation USA discussed the Dream Act and how this proposed legislation may affect undocumented students trying to stay in the U.S. 9/30, 11:30 AM., 10 AM. Valerie York Zimmerman, Mindful Kids Miami discussed how her program is using meditation to help students deal with the pressure of school. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS FALL SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: HANDS-ON BROWARD SUMMER TEEN Volunteer Camp: 9/30, 11:30 AM. This report focused on a group of local students who spent their summer break volunteering at South Florida charities through a program of Volunteer Broward. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS FALL SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: KIDS IN DISTRESS MAKE OVER: 9/30, 11:30 AM. This report focused on a local non-profit organization-- Kids in Distress-- that benefited from a full-scale makeover from a national network TV show including fresh paint and brand new books and supplies. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS FALL SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: KINDNESS CARDS: 9/30, 11:30 AM. This report covered a Neighbors 4 Neighbors campaign in partnership with the Miami-Dade and Broward YMCA's that encouraged children to design "Kindness Cards" to be used throughout the year to reward random acts of kindness.

FAMILY/EDUCATION (continued)

NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS FALL SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: BACK TO SCHOOL: 9/30, 11:30 AM. This report focused on a campaign sponsored by Neighbors 4 Neighbors and the Children's Services Council to ensure vulnerable students in unstable living conditions have the notebooks, uniforms and backpacks they need to have a successful school year. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS FALL SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: CIRCLE OF LIFE FAMILY: 9/30, 11:30 AM. This report shared the story of a local mother who was awarded a Circle of Life special day for an essay she wrote about her family. The report showed that this single mother of three foster children also runs a non-profit dedicated to helping Haitian immigrants through the South Florida Urban Ministries.

ECONOMY/POVERTY: Topics in this category include: City of Ft. Lauderdale new partnership with the American Tennis Association; anti-hunger program; Neighbors 4 Neighbors helping people in need for 20 years; Salvation Army Family stores; yoga therapy for soldiers; and Flag Day fundraiser.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 7/29, 10 AM. Albert Tucker and Petula Burkes, with the City of Fort Lauderdale discussed how the arrival of the American Tennis Association into the city will impact tourism and the local economy. 7/22, 10 AM. Anthea Pennant, of Feeding South Florida discussed how their organization fights hunger by collecting and providing food to needy families 9/2, 10 AM. Nicole Maristany, Neighbors 4 Neighbors producer and Minister Wayne Oxford discussed how the organization has helped link people in need with people who want to help over the past 20 years. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS FALL SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: CELEBRATING 20 YEARS OF SERVICE: 9/30, 11:30 AM. This report centered on Neighbors 4 Neighbors celebration of 20 years of service to South Florida and an award ceremony honoring individuals and organizations that have been a part of the organization's success. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS FALL SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: 20 YEAR RESTROSPECTIVE: 9/30, 11:30 AM. This report provided a look back at the origins of Neighbors 4 Neighbors in the aftermath of Hurricane and the community service work that the organization has continued to perform over the past 20 years. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS FALL SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: SALVATION ARMY FAMILY STORE/REHABILITATION CENTER: 9/30, 11:30 AM. This report focused on how the Salvation Army's Rehabilitation Center in Downtown Miami helps every year more than 200 men commit to sober living and revealed the story of a local man who went through their treatment and rehabilitation program after years of substance abuse and now works with the Salvation Army Family Stores. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS FALL SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: CONNECTED WARRIORS: 9/30, 11:30 AM. This reported showed a local program that helps military veterans cope with the challenges of coming back home through yoga. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS FALL SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: FLAG DAY: 9/30, 11:30 AM. This report featured a special Flag Day event that raised $10,000 for the Neighbors 4 Neighbors Family Fund.

POLITICS/GOVERNMENT: Topics in this category include: lawsuit against placing children in nursing homes; voting registration; compensation for Holocaust victims; and concerns with treatment of the mentally ill.

9/15, 10 AM. Marjorie Evans, CEO Broward Children's Center and Matt Dietz, Attorney, discussed a lawsuit filed by the U.S. Justice Department against the State of Florida for placing children in state custody in nursing homes for the elderly. 9/15, 10 AM. Madeline Pumariega, Miami-Dade Wolfson Campus president and Michelle Madison, grassroots voting registration organizer discussed the TurboVote online campaign to encourage college students to register to vote and local efforts to reach 20-something voters. 9/23, 10 AM. Anderson Cooper, journalist discussed the Presidential race and other national and international news headlines during his visit to South Florida. 9/30, 11:30 AM. U.S. Representative Ileana Ros-Lehtinen; Herbie Karliner, Holocaust survivor; and Attorney Sam Dubin discussed their ongoing efforts to provide remuneration through legislation to Holocaust survivors living in Florida. 9/30, 10 AM. Steve Leifman, Miami-Dade Assistant Chief Administrative Judge and advocate for the mentally ill discussed how people with mental illness are being treated in Miami-Dade jails, and why more isn't being done for them.