FAMILY SECRETS (Six Part Series)

The series goes behind closed doors to learn secrets most families would never talk about. Cynthia McFadden and Primetime examines the poignant and sometimes shocking secrets of families -- why they keep them, how they keep them, and what happens when the truth finally surfaces.

20/20

Friday, April 6, 2007

GRIEVING WIDOW?

A wife's unusual behavior after her husband's death leads to a murder conviction. Before Todd Sommers' death, most who knew the couple thought Cindy and Todd were very much in love. But according to Cindy's close friends, who spoke exclusively to "20/20," there was also a less wholesome side to Cindy and Todd's relationship.

Friday, April 13, 2007

PREACHER PREDATORS

Child sex abuse by Catholic priests has been headline news in recent years, but is the same abuse happening within Protestant churches? In a six-month investigation, ABC News' "20/20" found preacher predators in every corner of the country, including several affiliated with the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) -- the largest Protestant denomination. Jim Avila reports.

Friday, April 20, 2007

LIGHTS OFF

The Empire State Building in New York City will bestow its highest honor -- the lighting of its tower lights -- in support of Earth Day.

PLANET EARTH 2007

Anchored by Diane Sawyer, ABC News will investigate the state of the planet, reporting on today's most crucial environmental and on successful solutions that are currently being employed across the globe. This unprecedented global news event will feature ABC News anchors and correspondents reporting live from all seven continents throughout the day.

Friday, April 27, 2007

TRANSGENDER KIDS

From the moment we are born, our gender identity is no secret – we are either boys or girls. As we grow up, most of us naturally fit into our gender roles. But for some children, it's not so simple… they insist they were born into the wrong bodies. Barbara Walters reports on some of the youngest transgender kids.

Friday, May 4, 2007

MYTHS, LIES AND DOWNRIGHT STUPIDITY

John Stossel sets the record straight in another of his myth-busting reports. The answers may well be the opposite of what you expect -- or may be exactly what you do expect from Stossel, whose against-the-grain reporting often stands conventional wisdom on its head.

Friday, May 11, 2007 (2 Hrs)

THE POWER OF FAITH

Faith, from images to casual conversation, is something we encounter most everyday. Politicians, celebrities and songwriters all talk about it. But just what is faith and why does it matter so much? ABC News anchors and correspondents including Diane Sawyer, John Stossel and Elizabeth Vargas take an unconventional look at faith.

Friday, May 18, 2007

TABOO

Elizabeth Vargas examines what you can't get away with in America. She looks at gays in Hollywood, politically incorrect language, race relations and the taboo of being fat in America. She even looks at parents who criticize their kids as taboo.

Friday, May 25, 2007

MINDLESS EATING

Mindless eating - are subliminal messages and not your body's hunger cues that are telling you to eat? Do people eat more when served on larger plates or drink more from wider glasses? John Stossel reports.

Friday, June 1, 2007

MIRACLE PILL

Imagine being told you have life threatening cancer. Your doctor wants you to receive traditional therapy, but you've heard stories of a magic pill that could help treat the cancer. Whom do you trust? Are consumers being deceived into buying a sugar pill they claim cures a wide range of diseases. ABC News Senior Law and Justice Correspondent Jim Avila leads a three-month undercover investigation.

GONE TOO FAR

Is it possible that parents can go too far in trying to protect their children from marrying someone they believe to be the wrong person? Deborah Roberts reports on an unusual case in Utah. Julianna Redds parents drove her hundreds of miles away to Colorado to keep her from marrying Myers. Was it a case of kidnapping or, as her parents say, intervention?

June 8, 2007

A NIGHT OF MURDER

Seventeen years after a horrific murder spree that took four innocent lives in a small Indiana town, the fate of Jeff Pelley was in the hands of a jury. Could he have murdered his family to attend his prom? ABC News Senior Law and Justice Correspondent Jim Avila reports on a night of murder and a community determined never to forget the victims.
