60 MINUTES

10/01/00 "Bridgestone Firestone"- since 1997, 47 people in Venezuela have died in accidents involving Ford Explorers whose Firestone tires blew out. Critics charge that the incidents were a red flag ignored by Bridgestone/Firestone and Ford and that the deaths could have been prevented by a recall. Includes interview with Hector Rodriguez, a senior Ford executive in Venezuela who places the blame on Firestone. The Venezuelan Government is seeking criminal charges against officials at both companies. (C: Ed Bradley, Lesley Stahl - P: Michael Radutzky)
"Michael Tilson Thomas"- an interview with Michael Tilson Thomas, conductor of the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra and the only American-born conductor of a major U.S. orchestra. (C: Morley Safer - P: Steven Reiner)
"Smallpox"- after killing half a billion people in the 20th century, smallpox was thought to be eradicated. Recently intelligence agencies have discovered that Russia has turned the smallpox virus into a biological weapon and there is grave concern that rogue nations like Iraq and North Korea have the capacity to do the same. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Peter Klein)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Handwriting" - an expert looks at signatures attributed to George W. Bush and Al Gore

10/08/00 "Damage Control"- Ford Motor Company CEO Jacques Nasser and Chairman William Ford discuss their efforts to counteract bad publicity arising from the high number of serious accidents involving Ford Explorer SUVs equipped with Firestone tires. Both Nasser and Ford maintain that they did not deliberately ignore the problem but were misled by Firestone about the safety of their tires. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Richard Bonin)
"Tina Sinatra"- an interview with the late singer Frank Sinatra's youngest daughter Tina who talks about her father's last years, his death and confirms that Frank Sinatra did get the Mafia to help elect John F. Kennedy president. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Graham Messick)
"Boris Yeltsin"- an interview with former Russian president Boris Yeltsin about the issues of his health, the state of the Russian economy and his relationship with his predecessor Mikhail Gorbachev. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Robert Anderson)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Presidential debate" - Andy reacts to the first presidential debate

10/15/00

"America's Worst Nightmare?"- focuses on Pakistan, a bankrupt country whose elected prime minister is in jail and which is now under control of generals linked to Islamic radicals. Experts fear that Pakistan's extensive nuclear arsenal will fall into the hands of terrorists including Osama bin Laden. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Leslie Cockburn)

"Sleepless In The Cockpit"- a report on pilot fatigue as a cause of crashes and near crashes involving commercial airlines. Because of a loophole in FAA regulations, airlines can require pilots to stay on duty indefinitely when there are unforseen delays, such as bad weather or air traffic. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky)

"Bud Shuster"- recently the House Ethics Committee rebuked Rep. Bud Shuster (R., Pa.) the Chairman of the House Transportation Committee because of his close relationship with Ann Eppard, his former Chief of Staff, and currently a lobbyist with a large number clients seeking favors from Shuster. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Robert Anderson)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Hillary Rodham Clinton"- Andy looks at the New York State senatorial race

10/22/00

"Dick Clarke"- an interview with Dick Clarke, U.S. national coordinator for counterterrorism, who is currently directing the investigation of the bombing of the U.S.S. Cole in Yemen. Clarke claims that the U.S. must be prepared for a new kind of threat, not from missiles, but from terrorists entering into the country, living there for a period, and acquiring weapons of mass destruction. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Richard Bonin)

"Made To Order"- a report on people who go to sperm banks requesting sperm from donors with certain physical and mental characteristics in order to produce an ideal child. Critics charge that the high cost of this kind of selection will make it an option only for the wealthy, while proponents say that it's quite normal for parents to want to give their children advantages. (C: Morley Safer - P: Denise Schrier Cetta)

"Wall Street Whiz Kid"- 16-year-old Jonathan Lebed made close to a million dollars trading on the stock market. The SEC claimed that his strategy -- which consisted of buying stock, hyping it on the Internet and then selling it when the price soared -- constituted securities fraud. Jonathan has negotiated an out-of-court settlement with the SEC but may still face criminal charges.(C: Steve Kroft - P: Trevor Nelson)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Talk Show Guest" - Andy's appearances

10/29/00

"Jack Welch"- an interview with General Electric CEO Jack Welch, who is credited with turning GE into a diverse, modern conglomerate which expanded still further with the purchase of the Honeywell company. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman)

"Negative About Affirmative Action"- three white students charge in a lawsuit that the University of Michigan denied them entry but enrolled black students who they say were less qualified academically. Critics charge that using race as a standard for admissions is illegal, while Michigan University spokesmen claim that it the only way to achieve diversity. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Amy Cunningham Atkinson)

"Megan's Law"- variations of Megan's Law, which states that communities must be notified whenever a convicted sex offender moves into the neighborhood, have been adopted by every state. The law, first passed in New Jersey six years ago, has been repeatedly challenged in court by lawyers who claim that it violates the Constitutional privacy of people who have served their time in prison and are trying to get on with their lives. (C: Mike Wallace -P: Paul Gallagher)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Halloween" - the commercialization of Halloween

48 HOURS

10/05/00 "Gold Rush"- focuses on the Internet, exploring the risks and rewards of the current economy and of start-up companies hoping to strike it rich, including reports on: Avici, a Boston-area startup company and its efforts to go public; Jeff Osborne who became a millionaire by getting in on the ground floor with an Internet start-up company; Boo.com, an online clothier that failed; the inflated price of houses in California's Silicon Valley; successful men and women who have little time for a social life; and interviews with two young tycoons: 17-year-old Jason Meyer and 22-year-old Bill Martin. (C: Erin Moriarty, Harold Dow, Anthony Mason - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Paul Ryan, Chuck Stevenson, Paul LaRosa, Clare Friedland, Gordon Rothman)

10/12/00 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "The Enemy Within"- an investigation of the murder of Vicki Robinson a 49-year-old divorced Florida real estate agent, and the role of her 15-year-old daughter, Valessa in the crime. The report focuses on Robinson's inability to control her daughter following her divorce from the girl's father and Valessa's association with two teenage boys, her boyfriend Adam Davis and Jon Whispell. She now claims that Adams was the real killer while she is only guilty of not rescuing her mother. A Florida jury found the girl guilty of murder in the third degree. Her lawyer is appealing the conviction. (C: Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Abra Potkin, Loen Kelley)

10/19/00 "Brutal Consequences"- in 1996, Lori Berenson, a 26-year-old American journalist, was sentenced to life in prison by a military tribunal on charges that she plotted with Marxist rebels to attack the Peruvian Congress. The conviction has been overturned but the young woman will still have to stand trial in a civil court. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Patti Aronofsky, Chuck Stevenson)
"Forbidden Love"- Jason Johnson, a U.S. Marine stationed in the Persian Gulf fell in love with Meriam Al Khalifa, a member of the royal family of Bahrain. The couple managed to escape to America but Merriam was arrested for entering the country illegally. Following her temporary release from jail, the couple married, but U.S. immigration officials have yet to decide whether she may remain. (C: Harold Dow - P: Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Patti Aronofsky, Susan Wiggins)
"A Family's Shame"- a report on male-dominated societies in the Middle East and Asia, where women and girls who are perceived to have brought shame on their family's reputation can be at grave risk. Includes are reports on incidents involving two women, one Pakistani, the other Jordanian. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Susan Wiggins Moore, Gail Zimmerman - P: Sr. Broadcast P: Al Briganti)

10/26/00 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "A Grandmother's Mission"- on June 4, 1983, Dr. Mary Howell's daughter Peggy and her husband Doug Ryen were brutally murdered along with their 10-year-old daughter Jessica and a friend, Christopher Hughes. Their eight-year old son Josh was seriously wounded but survived the attack. Kevin Cooper was arrested, subsequently tried and convicted of the murders. 86-year-old Dr. Howell, a practicing chiropractor, was not convinced that Cooper was guilty and fearing that the real killers are still at large, has begun a campaign to get the state of California to provide DNA tests which would prove Cooper's guilt or innocence. Legislation, to take effect in January 2001 makes this a possibility. (C: Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Joe Halderman)

60 MINUTES II
