Section III: Narrative Description of Initiatives undertaken during this year. (Include dates of job-fairs, names of station employees who attended short description of activities that occurred, etc.)

10-3-06 KLEW participated in the largest job fair in the Pacific NW. It is put on by Washington State University and the University of Idaho. It is held every October in Moscow-Pullman. This year the event was held in the University of Idaho Kibbie dome. Hundreds of people stopped at the KLEW-TV booth. Fred Fickenwirth, the Station Manager was in attendance.

10/17/06 At the invitation of Glenn Johnson, Washington State University Communications Professor, Klew-TV Station Manager Fred Fickenwirth spoke for 75 minutes on broadcast jobs, their qualifications, internships and part time jobs. Approximately 25 students were in attendance in this Broadcast management Class.

11/16/06 KLEW-TV Station Manager, Fred Fickenwirth spoke to students at Lewis-Clark State College. Fred spoke for 60 minutes to students in the CAMP program. These are students of Hispanic Migrant farm workers. Fred covered broadcast jobs, their qualifications, internships, job shadowing and part time jobs. Approximately 30 students were in attendance. A week after the speaking engagement Fred led a tour of the station for these same students.

2/13/07 At the invitation of Glenn Johnson, Washington State University Communications Professor, KLEW-TV Station Manager Fred Fickenwirth spoke for 75 minutes on broadcast jobs, their qualifications, internships and part time jobs. Approximately 25 students were in attendance in this Broadcast management Class.

4/24/07 At the invitation of Glenn Johnson, Washington State University Communications Professor, KLEW-TV Station Manager Fred Fickenwirth spoke for 75 minutes on broadcast jobs, their qualifications, internships and part time jobs. Approximately 25 students were in attendance in this Broadcast management Class.

4/25/07 At the invitation of University of Idaho Professor Sandra Haarsager, KLEW-TV Station Manager spoke for 70 minutes to the Broadcast Management Class. Topics included broadcast jobs, their qualifications required, internships, job shadows and part time jobs. Approximately 20 students were in attendance. This visit resulted in two summer internships.

KLEW TV also participates in awarding scholarships annually to minority students through the Fisher Broadcasting Scholarship for Minorities. Students must be enrolled in a broadcast, marketing, or journalism curriculum leading to a baccalaureate degree at an accredited four-year college or university, or a broadcast curriculum at an accredited vocational-technical school. Applications are currently being reviewed and we anticipate granting scholarships no later than July 30.
