48 HOURS

02/05/05 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Murder In The Hamptons" (II) - followup to "Murder In The Hamptons" (I) (OAD: 02/11/04), a report on the October 2001 murder of Wall Street tycoon Ted Ammon who was embroiled in a bitter divorce battle with his wife Generosa who later died of breast cancer. Includes an extensive interview with Danny Pelosi -- the home contractor who had an affair with Generosa, married her shortly after Ammon's death and became a prime suspect in the murder. Also includes interviews with Pelosi's sister, Barbara Lukert; prosecutor Janet Albertson; Kiernan Crowley, a reporter for The New York Post, who has written a book "Almost Paradise" about the murder of Ted Ammon; Al Legaye, Generosa's cousin; Pelosi's attorney Gerry Shargel and his fiancee Jennifer Zolnowski. Danny Pelosi was tried, found guilty of murder and sentenced to 25 years to life in prison. He plans to appeal the decision. (C: Richard Schlesinger - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Loen Kelley) No individual segment titles were used in this followup episode.

02/12/05 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Postmarked For Murder" - Twenty-five-year-old Harold "Buddy" Vest was found hanging in his cabinet shop in June 1946 in the small town of Gainesville, Texas, and although the police ruled his death a suicide at the time, his son Herb always had doubts. Herb Vest, now a multimillionaire, has launched his own investigation -- hiring a team of experts to search for the truth. After Vest placed an ad in the newspaper offering a reward for information, he received a mysterious letter from an "M. Smith" claiming that Buddy Vest did not commit suicide, and suggesting that a former Gainesville police officer and his friends were responsible for Buddy's death. Herb's team of investigators have been examining the letter and searching for the author. Fifty-eight years later, the Cook County Justice of the Peace in Texas has ruled the case a homicide and is seeking "M.Smith" in an effort to finally bring the killers to justice. (C: Harold Dow - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Mary Noonan Robichaux) No individual segment titles were used in this episode.

02/19/05 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Chamber Of Secrets" - in her divorce case, Frieda Hanimov feared that she would lose custody of her children because she suspected that the judge ruling on her case was corrupt. Having gone to authorities with her suspicions, Hanimov agreed to go undercover and, wearing a wire, she went alone into a warehouse to try to prove that New York State Supreme Court Judge Gerald Garson was corrupt. A taped conversation with Nissim Elmann, the judge's confederate, was enough evidence to have the Brooklyn District Attorney grant permission to place a hidden camera in Judge Garson's chambers. Prosecutors caught Judge Garson on videotape taking a gift for legal advice, giving a lawyer advice on how to write a legal memo on a case before him, and accepting a $1,000 referral fee. Judge Garson will go on trial next fall; Nissim Elmann will be tried next week. Haminov's case has led to the creation of a new commission to reform divorce court. Includes footage of Judge Judy Sheindlin addressing the commission. (C: Lesley Stahl - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Patti Aronofsky, Mead Stone) No individual segment titles were used in this episode.

02/26/05 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Rescued From The Shadows" - 48 HOURS infiltrated the billion dollar business of trafficking in human sex slaves to reveal how easy it is in the 21st Century to purchase a woman and bring her to the United States. Correspondent Peter Van Sant's investigation includes a report on Bucharest, Romania, one of several former Soviet bloc nations that have become hotspots for modern-day slave traders. Many of the girls are lured overseas with the promise of a good job, others are simply abducted. Working with Iana Matei, the director of Reaching Out Romania, Van Sant rescued "Nicoleta,"a 17-year-old girl. Also explored are the cases of "Olga," a young woman trapped in a sex slave trafficking ring run by a Russian named Alexander Rashovsky; and a young girl kidnapped by members of the Carreto family of Tlaxcala, Mexico. (C: Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Miguel Sancho) No individual segment titles were used in this episode.
