Monday Night Music Specials
Backstage with A Chorus Line and Yanni Voices

12/1/08 9:00pm 120 minutes

Kick off your week with two great new music specials: Backstage with A Chorus Line and Yanni Voices. At 9 p.m., NPR's Scott Simon interviews composer Marvin Hamlish, the man behind the soundtrack to A Chorus Line, one of Broadway's longest-running musicals.

At 10 p.m., internationally renowned composer and performer Yanni (pictured) introduces audiences to four of the world's most exciting young vocalists. Two years in the making, this brand-new program features original compositions and new arrangements of Yanni's classic material.

2. Environment

Frontline "Heat"

10/21/08 9:00pm 60 minutes

For years, big business -- from oil and coal companies to electric utilities to car manufacturers -- has resisted change to environmental policy and stifled the debate over climate change in America and around the globe. Now, facing rising pressure from governments, green groups and investors alike, big business is reshaping its approach to the environment. With the election looming, Frontline producer Martin Smith investigates what some businesses are doing to fend off new regulations and how others are repositioning themselves to prosper in a radically changed world.

NOVA "Ocean Animal Emergency"

11/25/08 8:00 PM 60 Minutes

The worlds oceans are in trouble. warming seas and man-made pollutants are combining to unleash toxic algae blooms that are decimating whales, sea lions and other marine mammals. Nova explores this crisis through the exploits of Dr. Frances Gulland.

3. Healthcare and Science

NOVA "Space Shuttle Disaster"

10/14/08 8:00pm 60 minutes

The 2003 Columbia space shuttle disaster, which killed all seven astronauts aboard, shook the public's faith in America's space program. Through interviews with astronauts and their families, as well as with members of the Columbia Accident Investigation Board, this program gives viewers a new look at the Columbia tragedy -- and at NASA itself.
