WCBS-TV QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST - October 10, 2000

Attached are listings of broadcast segments, which in the Station's judgment reflect Channel 2's most significant programming treatment of ascertained community issues during the proceeding three-month period.

Time period in day, day of week, source and, where appropriate, format descriptions follow the first appearance of the broadcast name. Date references refer to broadcast days rather than to calendar days. All times given are approximate.

PROGRAM INDEX

NEWS 2 THIS MORNING, AT NOON, FOUR, FIVE, SIX and ELEVEN:--Regularly scheduled news broadcast focusing on the latest on current issues. Monday-Friday.

NEWS 2 "Troubleshooter"—Features of various length on individual problems of metropolitan area residents dealing with government and private organizations. Monday-Friday.

NEWS 2 "Hometown Hero"—A salute to individuals and organizations whose actions have resulted in a positive influence in the lives of others. Monday-Friday.

60 MINUTES:--Regularly scheduled one-hour news broadcast featuring detailed interviews and reports of various lengths. Sunday, 7:00-8:00 PM.

SUNDAY EDITION:--Regularly scheduled news interviews. Sunday, 6:30-7:00 AM.

COMMUNITY: Topics in this category include volunteerism and inner city programs.

NEWS 2 AT 4:00 PM: "Hometown Hero" 7/17, Correspondent Stephen Clark discussed how an inner city baseball program in Harlem organized by a group of volunteers has positively influenced youngsters in their views on education; NEWS 2 AT NOON: 7/21, Correspondent Emily Francis discussed how the Literacy Volunteers of America program changed the life of a fifty-seven year old man; 7/31, discussed how a retired emergency medical services technician opened the first minority volunteer ambulance company in Bedford-Stuyvesant, Brooklyn.

CONSUMERISM: Topics in this category include consumer laws and investigations.

NEWS 2 AT 5:00 PM: "Troubleshooter," 7/21, Correspondent Annika Pergament discussed how consumer groups in the tri-state are proposing tougher laws in light of the most recent budget cutbacks suffered by consumer protection agencies; "Troubleshooter," 8/5, discussed tips to consumers on how they can avoid being victims of calling card scams; 60 MINUTES: "Not As Private As You Think' 8/13, Correspondent Lesley Stahl discussed how some advertisers continue the surveillance of Internet users as a means to obtain personal information from consumers; NEWS 2 AT NOON: 8/25, Correspondent Paul Moniz discussed how a federal investigation was launched after the death of sixty-two people allegedly caused by defective Firestone tires; NEWS 2 AT NOON: 10/3 Correspondent Cindy Hsu discussed how the New York Attorney General has taken action against a popular Bronx auto auction company after dozens of customers' complaints.

FAMILY AND TEENS: Topics in this category include tips to parents and the use of the Internet by teens.

NEWS 2 AT 5:00 PM: "Troubleshooter," 7/25, Correspondent Annika Pergament discussed questions parents should consider before sending a child to summer camp and how some can apply for financial assistance; NEWS 2 AT NOON 8/24, Correspondent Sukanya Krishnan discussed why many teens have turned to cosmetic surgery in an attempt to feel better about themselves and how doctors are opposed to these procedures at an early age; NEWS 2 THIS MORNING: 8/31, Correspondent Todd McDermott discussed how a devastating fire left dozens of families homeless in Edgewater, New Jersey; NEWS 2 AT 4:00 PM: 9/8, Correspondent Hazel Sanchez discussed how teens have used the Internet to order cigarettes despite efforts by advocates to eliminate the selling of tobacco product to minors.

CRIME AND GANGS: Topics in this category include victims of crime.

NEWS 2 AT 6:00 PM: 7/21, Correspondent David Diaz discussed how car jacking at gunpoint has become the latest trend for criminals and how a new anti-car jacking bill is being considered by the Federal Government in an effort to minimize these felonies; NEWS 2 AT NOON: 9/1, Correspondent Jennifer McLogan discussed how two Long Island teenagers were arrested for a brutal robbery that was part of a gang initiation.

GAY AND LESBIANS: Topics in this category include protection for gays and court decisions.

NEWS 2 AT 5:00 PM: 7/17, Correspondent Pablo Guzman discussed reactions by the Gay Men's Health Crisis Center to a new federal policy prohibiting blood banks from accepting blood donations from gay men; NEWS 2 AT 6:00 PM: 7/21, Correspondent John Slattery discussed concerns by the Gay and Lesbian Anti-Violence Project regarding the number of gay bashing incidents occurring in the city; NEWS 2 AT 5:00 PM: 8/28, Correspondent Dana Tyler discussed how the removal of two lesbians from a major league baseball park after kissing publicly sparked mix reactions between some fans and members of the gay community; NEWS 2 AT NOON: 9/27, Correspondent Michael O'Looney discussed how a Manhattan school board took action against the Boy Scouts in response to a controversial supreme court decision concerning gay scout leaders.

GOVERNMENT: Topics in this category include education reforms and proposals by political candidates.

SUNDAY EDITION: 7/16, Republican Senatorial candidate for New Jersey Jon Corzine and Political Correspondent Marcia Kramer discussed how his views on issues offer hope to the common working man; 9/8, New York City Board of Education President Bill Thompson and Political Correspondent Marcia Kramer discussed views regarding merit pay for teachers and longer class days for students; 9/15, New York City Police Commissioner Bernard Kerick and Political Correspondent Marcia Kramer discussed how the Commissioner plans to increase morale and change the opinion New Yorkers have about the their police force.

HEALTH: Topics in this category include health tips for women and children.

NEWS 2 AT 4:00 PM: 7/12, Correspondent Annika Pergament discussed how some women are using a cream base compound known as glycolic acid in an attempt to beautify their skin texture and eliminate wrinkles, despite a lack of scientific evidence to substantiate the claim; NEWS 2 AT 5:00 PM: 9/1, Correspondent Sukanya Krishnan discussed how a group of doctors from Montefiore Medical Center in the Bronx have teamed up with parents and other volunteers to teach inner city diabetic children how to manage their disease; NEWS 2 AT NOON: 9/8, Correspondent David Diaz discussed how state health officials in New Jersey have ordered a recall of beef products for fear of contamination with the E. coli bacteria; NEWS 2 AT 5:00 PM: 9/26, Correspondent John Slattery discussed how a group of people have called for better safety regulations following the death of a young boy who was hit and killed riding a popular scooter in Elizabeth, New Jersey.

SENIOR CITIZENS: Topics in this category include nursing homes and medical coverage for the elderly.

NEWS 2 AT 11:00 PM: 7/23, Correspondent Lou Young discussed how a federal study on nursing homes for the elderly revealed how many seniors have suffered of malnutrition due to an under-staffing of health professionals; NEWS 2 THIS MORNING: 7/27, Correspondent Cindy Hsu discussed how many seniors are pleased with the recent quarter of a billion dollar settlement reached between Swiss banks and holocaust survivors; NEWS 2 AT 4:00 PM: 9/25, Correspondent Jennifer McLogan discussed how recent changes in medicare coverage have affected thousands of seniors in Suffolk County; NEWS 2 THIS MORNING: 9/28, Correspondent Michael Pomeranz discussed how a non-profit agency in Brooklyn has organized its own version of the Olympic games for the elderly; NEWS 2 AT 5:00 PM: 10/5, Correspondent Stephen Clark discussed how some feel older Americans should be given a special driver's exam once they have reached the age of seventy.