

FCC REPORTS for AL PUNTO, NOVEMBER, 2012

===11/04/2012===

David Axelrod, senior adviser to President Barack Obama and Ed Gillespie, senior adviser to Republican presidential nominee Mitt Romney

Presidential race

Time: 12:00

There are only four days to the election. The campaigns resumed in the wake of the disaster caused by Hurricane Sandy, and the national polls released on October 31 show that the race remains tight. The latest numbers from the Washington Post/ABC News tracking poll of likely voters show President Obama and Governor Mitt Romney tied at 49 percent. This Sunday, Jorge Ramos talks to the senior advisers for each campaign, David Axelrod and Ed Gillespie about the last stretch of the presidential race and their strategies to win the election.

Election Roundtable Participants:

Maria Elena
Salinas

Univision Network News Co-Anchor

Fabian
Nuñez

Noticias Univision Democratic Analyst

Helen Aguirre
Ferré

Noticias Univision Republican Analyst

Alfonso
Aguilar

Republican Analyst

Phillip
Arroyo

Chairman of the Young Democrats of America Hispanic Caucus

Representative Lois Capps (D), California

Congressional race California district 24

Time: 5:55

Representative Capps is fighting to keep her congressional seat for the newly drawn 24th district in California. She has been challenged by Republican candidate, former Lt. Governor of California Abel Maldonado. This Sunday, Congresswoman Capps visits Al Punto to address the Hispanic electorate and explains why she believes she should be re-elected as well as discusses immigration and job creation.

===11/11/2012===

Carlos Gutierrez, Former Secretary of Commerce and Chair of the Trade Policy Advisory Group for the Mitt Romney Campaign and Henry Cisneros, Former United States Secretary of Housing and Urban Development

The Hispanic vote

Time: 11:00

President Barack Obama was reelected for a second term capturing 71 percent of the Hispanic vote compared to Governor Mitt Romney who received 27 percent, according to a national exit poll. Hispanics make up 16 percent of the U.S population and are the fastest growing minority group in the country. They are re-shaping the politics of the United States. This Sunday, Jorge Ramos analyzes the results of the election with Carlos Gutierrez and Henry Cisneros. What are the challenges President Barack Obama will face in his second term in office? How will he make good of his promise to resolve the immigration issue? Will the Republican Party re-invent itself? Looking forward, how can Republicans gain the support of the Hispanic population?

Congressman-elect Joe Garcia (D), Florida District 26; Congressman-elect Raul Ruiz (D), California District 36; Congressman-elect Pete Gallego (D), Texas District 23; Congressman-elect Filemon Vela (D), Texas District 34; Fabian Nuñez; Noticias Univision Democratic Analyst; Helen Aguirre, Noticias Univision Republican Analyst; Manny Diaz, Former Miami Mayor; Alfonso Aguilar, Republican Analyst

New Latino faces in Congress

Time: 10:00

Hispanics made history in this past election. A record-setting 31 Latinos will join the 113th U.S. Congress in January including Republican Senator-elect Ted Cruz, the first Hispanic to represent Texas in the senate and nine new Hispanic members in the House of Representatives elevating the total number to 28. NALEO calls this congress the "largest" class of Latinos in our nation's history." This Sunday, Al Punto welcomes four of the 28 elected representatives, including Joe Garcia (D), Florida District 26, Raul Ruiz (D), California District 36; Pete Gallego (D), Texas District 23 and Filemon Vela (D), Texas District 34.

Election Roundtable Participants:

Fabian
Nuñez

Noticias Univision Democratic Analyst

Helen Aguirre
Ferré

Noticias Univision Republican Analyst

Manny
Diaz

Former Mayor Miami

Alfonso
Aguilar

Republican Analyst

===11/18/2012===

Rep. Luis Gutierrez (D) Illinois

Immigration Reform

Time: 7:00

This week, President Barack Obama said "we need to seize the moment" in regards to immigration and added that conversations between the White House and members of Congress had already begun. This Sunday, Al Punto further explores the immigration issue and talks to Rep. Luis Gutierrez about the existing plans to make changes in the immigration policy.

Carlos Gutierrez, Former Commerce Secretary

Republicans for an Immigration Reform

Time: 7:00

Last week, former Commerce Secretary Carlos Gutierrez came to Al Punto to discuss why Mitt Romney and the Republican Party lost the presidential election and the impact of the Latino vote in the results. This Sunday, Mr. Gutierrez returns to the program to discuss a new Republican platform and the creation of a special super PAC called Republicans for Immigration Reform. What is their plan of action? How will they get the support of the Republican Party?

Congressman-elect Tony Cardenas (D) California District 29 and Congresswoman-elect Gloria Negrete McLeod (D) California District 35

New Hispanic Representatives

Time: 10:00

Al Punto is committed to introduce the new Hispanic representatives elected to the 113th Congress. This Sunday, Jorge Ramos talks to Congressman-elect Tony Cardenas from California, who made history by becoming the first Latino representing District 29. Ramos also talks to Congresswoman-elect Gloria Negrete McLeod from California District 35 about her priorities in Washington and how she became a successful politician as a mother of 10, grandmother of 27 and great-grandmother of 25.

===11/25/2012===

Rep. Mario Diaz-Balart (R) Florida

"Conversations on Immigration"

Time: 9:00

Univision continues its commitment to bring all points of view regarding immigration to the community. As part of our series "Conversaciones sobre Inmigración" (Conversations on Immigration), airing this Sunday on Al Punto, Florida Republican Congressman Mario Diaz-Balart, who is also Chairman of the Hispanic Conference, tells Jorge Ramos about his efforts to restart the process for a comprehensive immigration bill. How does the congressman plan to get support from his own party? Is he planning to work with Democrats to find a solution to the immigration issue?

Joaquin Castro, Congressman-elect (D) Texas District 20

New Hispanic face in Congress

Time: 5:00

He is considered a rising star within the Democratic Party and he is now also a part of the new Hispanic faces in Congress. Al Punto continues to introduce the new legislators of the 113th Congress, and this Sunday, Jorge Ramos talks to congressman-elect for Texas District 20 Joaquin Castro. What are his priorities in Washington? Will he ever consider running for President of the United States?

Roxana Soto and Ana Flores, Authors "Bilingual is Better"

Parenting a Bilingual Child

Time: 7:00

According to the U.S Department of Education, the number of children between the ages of 5 -17 who speak a language other than English at home increased from 4.7 to 11.2 million between 1980 and 2009. The challenge that many Hispanic parents face is keeping the balance between teaching their children Spanish and the fear they might get confused while learning English. Two mothers who faced this dilemma said that raising a bilingual child in the United States is possible and they share their insights in the book "Bilingual is Better." Co-authors Roxana Soto and Ana Flores talk about the struggles parents face and how they can overcome the obstacles in parenting a bilingual child.

=====END OF NOVEMBER REPORTS=====