Issues addressed and that are important to the Tucson community include: Community, Crime, Economy, Education, Employment, Environment, Government, Growth, Health, Safety, Technology and Water.

ISSUE	PROGRAM	DAY/DATE	TIME	PARTICIPANTS	SUMMARY OF DISCUSSION
Community	KVQA 10 PM Newscast	7/1/05	10:02:19 to 10:04:12		Tonight, the Minuteman Project turns its attention to the small community of Three Points. Dozens of volunteers have been arriving all day. Their goal, to secure the border.
Community	KVQA 10 PM Newscast	7/2/05	10:01:33 to 10:03:14		Here in Tucson, one man has dedicated his life to protecting the community from sex offenders. And he does it by living with them and keeping a close watch at this halfway house.
Community	KVQA 5 PM Newscast	7/7/05	5:06:05 to 5:07:36		John McCain has been one of the strongest supporters of Amercia's handling in the war on terror. And today, the Arizona Senator used the London bombings as evidence that the world must unite against the terrorists.
Community	KVQA 10 PM Newscast	7/9/05	10:02:37 to 10:04:43		They say they were trying to do the right thing. But tonight, two volunteers with the "No More Deaths" campaign are in trouble with the law. They were arrested for allegedly transporting illegal immigrants.
Community	KVQA 5:30 PM Newscast	7/16/05	5:34:42 to 5:36:29		As we wait for the rains to start... Fire Officials remind you to get rid of dry brush around your house. There were some threatening brush fires in town this week that burned awfully close to homes. Eyewitness News 4's Sandy Rathbun shows us how you can protect your property.
Community	KVQA 5:30 PM Newscast	7/30/05	5:33:18 to 5:34:52		We're no strangers to bone marrow drives here in Tucson. And still, there's a shortage. Aiming to boost marrow donations from minorities, the Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society from Pima College spent today with pricks and needles.
Community	KVQA 10 PM Newscast	8/4/05	10:05:42 to 10:07:16		Every year hundreds of illegal immigrants die trying to cross the hot Arizona desert. Tonight, Saint Augustine Cathedral held a memorial mass.

Community	KVOA 6 PM Newscast	8/8/05	6:06:44 to 6:08:41		Tonight there's a major development in the story of a young Tucson man who was starving to death because he couldn't eat and the state wouldn't pay to make him dentures. Today a local dentist's office made teeth for him for free.
Community	KVOA 10 PM Newscast	8/12/05	10:02:22 to 10:04:39		The first of three men killed Wednesday night has been laid to rest. This afternoon family and friends of the good Samaritan who tried to help a sheriff's deputy as he struggled with a suspect was honored and buried.
Community	KVOA 6 PM Newscast	8/15/05	6:02:04 to 6:03:44		Another man was killed in that accident, Dawud Abusida, the man being called a hero, for giving his own life to help Deputy Graham has been overwhelming. A non-profit organization called the 100 Club just gave his family a 10,000 dollar check.
Community	KVOA Daybreak 5a to 7a Newscast	8/17/05	5:38:28 to 5:40:50		A thirty-year old man, whose name was relatively unknown to the public... received a hero's goodbye Tuesday. How? By Making the ultimate sacrifice for his community. The ceremony was impressive, full of indelible sights. Like his wife and two step children trailing the casket out of the church... The procession was extravagant, two columns of law enforcement stretching for miles on the roads and salutes from the sky as well... At the cemetery, Sherry Graham was walked in by a woman who could truly empathize her pain... Patrick Hardesty's wife. Graham was buried at All Faiths Memorial Park. A fitting resting place given that local Muslim Dawud Abusida also died in the same accident while trying to assist Deputy Graham... After Graham's casket was laid to rest there were the traditional formalities of a law enforcement burial... And a beautiful melody that wrenches the heart every time... After a day of stoicism, stiff upper lips softened... Timothy Graham's radio call sign while on the force was 893.
Community	KVOA 5:30 PM Newscast	8/28/05	5:33:30 to 5:35:25		Shortly after Katrina pours down on the gulf coast, relief efforts will be pouring in from all over the country. That includes volunteers from right here in the old Pueblo.

Crime	KVOA Daybreak 5a to 7a Newscast	7/7/05	5:01:32 to 5:03:42		A series of explosions in London this morning sent morning commuters scrambling. First, an underground explosion in London's subway then minutes later a handful of buses exploded. Prime Minister Tony Blair held a press conference about an hour ago. He has said this is obviously a terrorist action, and will leave the G8 Summit in Scotland to tend to his shaken nation. Meanwhile, bomb sniffing dogs and armed Police Officers are patrolling subways in Washington D.C. looking for anything suspicious. Terror alerts have been raised in Paris as well. We'll have the latest on this breaking story as it develops.
Crime	KVOA 5 PM Newscast	7/7/05	5:00:36 to 5:03:20		As you can imagine the city of London is still reeling from the rush hour bomb attacks. And families are trying to cope with the loss of loved ones. At Buckingham Palace, the Union Jack is flying at half mass. In the US, we're on alert. The terror alert has been raised, specifically for transit systems. While the rest of the country is still on high alert.
Crime	KVOA 5 PM Newscast	7/7/05	5:03:20 to 5:06:05		The attack that claimed the largest number of lives was on a train deep below street level in the tunnel between Kings Cross and Russel Square Station. The explosion took place in the rear part of the train. Emergency services had to lead survivors and the injured through the tunnels past the bodies of those killed. And as Lawrence McGinty reports, some passengers will never forget what they saw.

Government	KVOA 6 PM Newscast	8/25/05	6:00:08 to 6:01:53		"The general feeling is actually one of relief... many say, better to lose a few hundred jobs than to shut Ft. Huachuca down. But, what has some concerned, is the question whether this movement of jobs makes any sense." The Department of Defense says they're making all these changes to save 49 billion dollars over the next 20 years. For Ft. Huachuca that means moving almost 400 jobs in the Communications Security Division to a base in Maryland. An expensive move. "They'll be doing the same job there that they do here, just don't see the payback." Not to mention Finnegan says that Communication Division does important work with information system units here at Ft. Huachuca that the base in Maryland does not have. "We just hate to see a loss of jobs over something that on the surface looks like a dumb move." But, luckily Finnegan says it's a move that won't have a major impact on the base, nor the Sierra Vista economy. "Although we feel for the families who will be forced to move, considering 12,000 employees will still be working on the base between government and civilian population. "We don't think we'll
