48 HOURS

10/01/05      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Out Of The Shadows" - when Vicki Wegerle, the mother of two young children, was strangled in Wichita, Kansas in 1986, her husband Bill was considered by many to be the prime suspect. For the next 18 years police lacked evidence to charge Bill, or anyone else with Vicki's murder. Still, rumors persisted that Wegerle, who had failed two polygraph tests, had killed his wife. Subsequently, a desire for recognition led Dennis Rader, aka the BTK (bind, torture, kill) killer, to fall into a police trap and supply them with incriminating evidence that identified him as Vicki's murderer. In June, 2005, Rader pled guilty to murdering 10 people, including children, over the last three decades. He was sentenced to 175 years in prison. Includes interviews with Bill Wegerle; his two grown children, Stephanie and Brandon; some of the families of Rader's other victims; and with Rader himself, both in prison and on the telephone. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 10/08/05      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Strange Truth"-- in the early morning hours of March 21, 2003, Romona "Mona" Krotine left an office party just outside Cleveland, Ohio, and was never seen alive again. Nearly 24 hours later, she was found in the trunk of her car, beaten and shot to death. At first, police suspected a botched robbery because Mona was carrying the cash receipts from working at a concession earlier that day. Subsequently, Mona's husband, Jeffrey, began acting suspiciously, and the focus of the police investigation shifted to a domestic murder. Authorities believed that Mona had actually returned home after the party and that Jeffrey, having killed her, attempted to cover up the crime by destroying evidence, including portions of bedroom carpet and a large headboard. The case, largely circumstantial, went to trial twice, both times resulting in a hung jury. The jury at a third trial found Krotine not guilty. Officially, the murder of Mona Krotine remains an open case, but Jeff Krotine can never be retried for his wife's murder. (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Paul LaRosa, Taigi Smith)
- 10/15/05      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Defending Your Life" - for nearly 17 years, sisters Kim and Beth Jones of Snohomish, Washington, have been trying to prove that their father, Jerry Jones, Jr. is innocent of the Dec. 3, 1988 stabbing murder of their mother, Lee. Jones was tried and found guilty of his wife's murder, but in 1999, an appeals court ordered him released due to an ineffective lawyer. In 2001, Jones was re-tried and re-convicted. His conviction was reversed again, because the jury didn't hear crucial evidence. In 2005, Jones, who chose to represent himself, was tried for the third time. Despite Jones' attempts to prove that Danny Busby, a teenage neighbor, was the real killer, a jury found him guilty of murder. He was sentenced to 25 years in prison, but as a result of time served and good behavior, Jerry Jones will be eligible for release in three years. Includes interviews with Jerry Jones and Ron Doersch, the prosecutor in all three trials. (C: Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Lisa Freed, Shoshana Wolfson)
- 10/22/05      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Secrets & Lies On Grapevine Lake" - in April 2002, the body of successful real estate agent David Nixon of Grapevine, Texas, was discovered in a storm drain in a nearby town. He had been shot in the heart and his remains burned beyond recognition. At the time of the murder Nixon and his live-in girlfriend Tracy Frame were in the process of splitting up and were fighting over the house where they both lived. Police investigating the crime focused on Frame, who denied any wrongdoing. Three years after Nixon's death, Tracy Frame was tried, found guilty of murder and sentenced to 10 years in prison. She will be eligible for parole in 20 years. She is appealing the verdict. Includes interviews with: Tracy Frame; Donna Lella, David Nixon's first wife; Nicholas, their son; Jerry Vowell, a used car dealer, who was scheduled to meet David Nixon the night he disappeared; Detective Larry Hallmark; Donald Feare, Tracy's defense attorney; and the prosecutor, Assistant D.A. Sean Colston. (C: Troy Roberts - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Peter Henderson)

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Scared To Death"- Jim and Vickie Barton, a Springboro, Ohio couple owned and lived on a horse farm. Jim was lieutenant with the Springboro police department, with aspirations of becoming police chief, and Vickie was a head nurse at the local hospital. In April 1995, Jim came home from work and found Vickie had been shot to death. For three years there were virtually no leads in the case and no arrests, but in 1998 Gary Henson, a career criminal, told police that his half-brother, Will Phelps shot Vickie by accident while he and an unidentified accomplice were in the process of burglarizing the Barton home. Four months later, Phelps committed suicide. In 2003, a county-wide cold case team was formed to take a second look at Vickie's murder. The squad discovered a portion of audiotape from Jim's 911 call which revealed a discrepancy in his testimony. Subsequently, Gary Henson told police that Jim Barton was responsible for his wife's death because he had sent Phelps to the house to scare Vicki in hopes of driving her to live in town where Jim supposedly needed to live to become police chief. A jury found Jim Barton guilty of involuntary manslaughter and he will serve at least 15 years in prison. He plans to appeal the verdict. There is no legal requirement for the Springboro Police Chief to live within city limits. (C: Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Jay Young, Jamie Stolz)

48 HOURS

- 11/05/05      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Jeffrey MacDonald: Time For Truth"- a report on the 1970 murders of U.S. Army Doctor Jeffrey MacDonald's pregnant wife and two young daughters at their Fort Bragg home in Fayetteville, N.C. Having served 25 years in prison for the murders, MacDonald, now 61, still proclaims his innocence and expresses hope that he will eventually be legally vindicated. From the day following the murders 35 years ago, MacDonald has maintained that a group of crazed, drug-fueled hippies broke into his apartment and murdered his wife Collette and daughters -- five-year-old Kimberly and two-year-old Kristen. It took the U.S. Government nine years to make its case against him, but in 1979, a jury convicted MacDonald of three counts of first-degree murder -- a conviction based entirely on circumstantial evidence. Since then, MacDonald and his lawyers have exhausted every avenue of appeal. Married behind bars over two years ago, MacDonald's request for parole was denied. He is hoping that DNA testing being done on hair and blood evidence from the crime scene will confirm that he did not kill his family. (C: Bill Lagattuta - Sr. P: Anthony Batson, Judy Tygard, Peter Schweitzer - P: Josh Gelman)
- 11/12/05      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Sex, Lies And The Doctor's Wife" - Karen Tipton, a mother of two and the wife of prominent psychiatrist Dr. David Tipton, was found stabbed to death in her Decatur, Alabama home in March 1999. Police quickly ruled out her husband as a suspect, and a month later arrested 24-year-old Daniel Wade Moore, who worked for the alarm company that had installed a security system in the Tipton home. Moore, a drug user, had initially confessed to his uncle to being present at the scene of the murder, but later retracted his statement. Despite the lack of physical evidence, Moore was tried, convicted and sentenced to death row. Eight months following the conviction, Moore's defense attorneys discovered that prosecutors had withheld potentially conclusive information in the case including an FBI report suggesting that Karen was having multiple affairs, and may have known her killer. In a stunning reversal in February 2005, the same judge who sentenced Moore to death released him from prison. The state appealed the decision and Daniel Moore is now awaiting a new trial that could set him free. (C: Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Katherine Davis, Marc B. Goldbaum, Susan Mallie)
- 11/19/05      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Nightmare In Napa" - on October 31, 2004 former beauty queen Leslie Mazzara and her roommate, Adriana Insogna, were found stabbed to death in the upstairs bedrooms of their Napa, California home. A third roommate, Lauren Mianza, sleeping downstairs, was not harmed and was the only witness. After almost a year of intensive investigation, one clue -- the discarded butts of Camel Turkish Gold cigarettes found at the murder scene - - led to Eric Copple, the husband of Insogna's best friend, Lily Prudhomme. Copple, his wife Lily and other family members came to the police station where he was interviewed and made admissions that linked him to the crime. One year later, police can claim that the crime has been solved but the motivation behind the attacks is not yet known. Eric Copple is expected to stand trial next year and could face the death penalty. His wife Lily visits him in prison as he waits trial. (C: Bill Lagattuta - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Patti Aronofsky, Abra Potkin Rabhan, Mead Stone)

11/26/05      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Deadly Ride" - Janet Mixer, one of a handful of female students at the University of Michigan Law School in March of 1969, had just agreed to get married and had arranged a ride home to tell her parents. Her body was found in a small, rural cemetery just miles from her dorm. She had been shot twice in the head and strangled. Jane Mixer was the third of seven young women to be found dead in the area within two years. Shortly after finding the seventh victim, police arrested John Collins, an Eastern Michigan University student who was subsequently convicted of only one of the murders. Maggie Nelson, the daughter of Janet's sister Barbara, determined to write a book about her aunt and to unravel the mystery of her murder. Some detectives also believed the case merited another look. DNA tests of blood stains found at the scene of the crime led police to Gary Leiterman, a 62-year-old retired nurse, and to John Ruelas, who was four-years-old at the time of the crime. Despite concerns over the possible contamination of DNA evidence and the absence of fingerprints, Gary Leiterman, was tried, convicted of first degree murder and sentenced to life in prison. Leiterman, who maintains that he is innocent, plans to seek a new trial, challenging the DNA evidence. (C: Maureen Maher - Sr. P: Judy Tygard - P: Gail Abbott Zimmerman, Chris Young)

- 12/04/05      "Chasing the Flu"- a report on H5N1, also called avian flu, a bird virus ravaging the poultry industry in Asia which has, on rare occasions, infected humans, killing half of its victims. Bonner, head of the Border Patrol Agents Union; Rep. Tom Tancredo (R-CO); and Wayne Cornelius, an authority on immigration at the University of California. 48 HOURS

12/03/05      PREEMPTION

12/10/05      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Love, Lies, Murder?" - followup to "Where Is Mrs. March?" (OAD: 11/01/02) a report on the disappearance, on August 15, 1996, of 33-year-old Janet Levine March, a wife and mother of two young children. She had a successful career as an artist, a successful husband, Perry, a lawyer, and a beautiful home in Nashville, TN. However, one night, her husband claimed that she left home, saying she needed time alone, and was never heard from again. After Janet's disappearance, Perry March and Janet's parents searched for her for two weeks before filing a missing persons report. Investigators found Janet's car parked a few miles away from her home with her belongings inside. Perry, the only suspect in the case, moved with his children to Ajijic, Mexico where he remarried. In December 2004 Perry March was indicted for the murder of his wife by a grand jury and, on August 3, 2005, Mexican immigration authorities revoked his visa and deported him to the U.S. where he could be arrested. Janet's parents were awarded custody of the couple's children, Sammy and Tzipora. Perry March, has gathered a team of lawyers to begin fighting the charges of second-degree murder and tampering with evidence. If acquitted, he plans to fight to regain custody of his children. (C: Bill Lagattuta - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Joe Halderman)

- 12/17/05      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Who Killed The Newlyweds?"- followup to "Impossible Mission" (OAD: 05/15/00) - a report on newlyweds Dyke and Karen Rhoads of Paris, Illinois who, in 1986, were murdered and their house set on fire. A year after the incident, juries handed down guilty verdicts to suspects Randy Steidl and Herb Whitlock. Feeling that a miscarriage of justice had occurred, Professor David Protes of the Medill School of Journalism and four of his students began their own investigation of the 13-year-old murder. The Northwestern students graduated five years ago without finding a solution to the case. The Rhoads family has requested that the FBI take over the investigation; a federal judge ruled that Randy Steidl's original attorney made a mistake in not challenging the credibility of two key eyewitnesses. Now a free man, he has asked the Governor of Illinois for a pardon to clear his name, but prosecutors could reinstate murder charges against him; after several unsuccessful attempts Herb Whitlock has filed another appeal. The followup includes an interview with Michale A. Callahan, a former police detective who had reviewed the Paris murder investigation in 2000. (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Doug Longhini, Ira Sutow)
- 12/20/05      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Mystery Of Christmas"- Correspondent Maureen Maher journeys to the Holy Land to investigate the story of the birth of Jesus. 48 HOURS searches for archeological proof of the Biblical accounts, decodes the messages hidden in the scriptures and examines starkly different versions of Christmas. Maher explores the lands of the Bible with Professor Ben Witherington, a conservative scholar and evangelical minister, to return to the "historical bedrock" where history and faith intersect. Witherington takes 48 HOURS to the cave in Bethlehem where he says Jesus was born; the excavations of ancient Nazareth; Carpernaum, where Jesus' ministry was based; and the stone city of Petra, where he claims the wise men passed through. The broadcast looks into the questions of: was Jesus was born in Bethlehem or Nazareth?; were there shepherds at Christ's birth, or magi, or both?; was there a guiding star the night of the birth? is December 25 the true birth date? How accurate are the different infancy narratives in the Gospels of Matthew and Luke?; and how much creative license did the Gospel authors take? Witherington makes the case for the virgin birth. The veracity of the belief is questioned by Professor John Dominic Crossan, a former Roman Catholic monk, and Princeton University Professor Alaine Pagels. (C: Maureen Maher - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Miguel Sancho)
- 12/24/05      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Black Dahlia Confidential"- the brutal murder in 1947 of Elizabeth Short, a young, struggling actress whose body was discovered in a vacant lot in January 1947, has baffled the Los Angeles Police Department for decades. After Short's death, newspapers began calling her "The Black Dahlia" - the name taken from the movie of the time "The Blue Dahlia." The case was made more intriguing by the fact that the killer sent handwritten notes to the tabloids, taunting authorities. Includes interviews with James Ellroy, a crime writer; former Los Angeles Detective Steve Hodel who has written a book, "Black Dahlia Avenger," identifying his father, Dr. George Hodel, as the killer; Tamar Hodel, Steve Hodel's half-sister; Michelle Phillips, former singer with The Mamas And The Papas; Steven Kay, Deputy District Attorney; Dr. Mark Wallack, Chief of Surgery, St. Vincent's Hospital; John Osborn, document examiner; and Suni Chapman, forensic artist. (C: Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: David Browning, Paul LaRosa) No individual segment titles were used in this episode. (OAD: 11/27/04)

12/31/05      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Other Woman" - Dr. David Stephens was a prominent surgeon at Forrest General Hospital in Hattiesburg, Miss. Stephens, married for 34 years and the father of two adult children, was having an affair with Stephanie Steven, a nurse with whom he worked. Learning of her husband's infidelity, the doctor's wife Karen ran out of her home, pointed a gun into her mouth, and accidentally tripped, setting the gun off. She died three months later and her death was ruled suicide. Stephens married Stephanie and shortly after became seriously ill, suffering from liver failure, hepatitis C and diabetes. Stephanie said that her husband became depressed as his health declined and on May 1, 2001, she said she woke to find him lying dead next to her. Despite her claim that she had nothing to do with Dr. Stephens' death, authorities were suspicious. An autopsy revealed the presence in Stephens' blood of the drug Attricurium, a muscle relaxer used in surgery. Stephanie was tried and found guilty of murder and will serve at least 30 years in prison. She is trying for an appeal. (C: Harold Dow - P: Josh Yager, Susan Mallie) (Sr. P.: "The Other Woman" Peter Schweitzer) No individual segment titles were used in this rebroadcast (OAD: 01/07/04)

CBS RELIGIOUS SPECIALS

12/11/05      "After The Storm: Religions Respond To Nature's Fury"- an interfaith religion special about religion and emergency assistance to natural tragedies. After a review of the major natural disasters of this past year -- a tsunami in south-east Asia; an earthquake in Pakistan; and several hurricanes in the United States -- the broadcast focuses on the response of faith-communities to the hurricanes in the U.S. It travels to Baton Rouge, Louisiana, where representatives of a wide range of faith-communities are seen working cooperatively to relieve the suffering and dislocation of so many. These include Dr. Elmore Rigamer, the medical director of Catholic Charities for the New Orleans Archdiocese; Rev. Darryl Tate and Rev. Connie Thomas, two ministers left churchless due to the hurricanes, and who now work with the Methodist Disaster Recovery Center in Baton Rouge; Father Ernest Saik, who has opened St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Baton Rouge to house mothers needing to be near their premature babies being cared for at the Women's Hospital next door; Tom Costanza of Catholic Charities Office of Justice and Peace, who teams with social worker Linda Smith and others to manage the details of relief for individual families. Also interviewed are Rev. Lura Cayton of Church World Service, a Protestant/Orthodox cooperative dealing with disasters worldwide; Phyllis Phillips of Catholic Charities, Baton Rouge; and Pat Johns, Director of Emergency Operations for Catholic Relief Services, who recounts his experience with the tsunami aftermath in south-east Asia. In addition, the interfaith special highlights the New Orleans suburb of Kenner, where the Imam of a local mosque, Abdul Rahman Bashir, and other Muslims distribute supplies provided by the Islamic Circle of North America. (Executive Producer: John P. Blessington - Producer/Narrator: Ted Holmes)

12/24/05      "A Christmas Special" - a special Christmas Service of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, from the sanctuary of the Black's Chapel Missionary Baptist Church in Jackson, Mississippi, featuring scripture readings, spiritual music and a sermon by Bishop Thomas L. Hoyt, Jr. In the ecumenical spirit, the Baptist congregation offered its spacious sanctuary to the Lynch Street Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, so as to accomodate a larger number of worshipers from both Louisiana and Mississippi for the service. Both states suffered from the recent series of devastating hurricanes. The service's theme of "No Room In The Inn" centers on the various issues where, worldwide, there seems to be no room for those among us displaced by disasters, by prejudice and by persecutions. Bishops and presiding elders, along with ministers and laity, participated in the service. Wilma Moore and Pastor Charles Holbrooke were coordinators for the service, and the CME Mass Choir was led by Fred Johnson and Geno Jones. (Co-Producers: Judy Meredith, Anthony Dean - Executive Producer: John P. Blessington)
