1) Topics include: General Stanley McChrystal's meeting with President Obama / General McChrystal's request for an additional 40,000 troops to be sent to Afghanistan / reaction to recent comments made by General McChrystal criticizing the possibility of scaling back the forces in Afghanistan / importance of considering all of the elements and goals of the new March 2009 strategy for Afghanistan before deciding on a troop increase / encouraging developments in Pakistan / concern in Pakistan and Afghanistan over America's perceived loss of resolve; upcoming meetings with Iran over reports indicating that Iran has acquired sufficient information to be able to produce an atomic bomb

2) Topics include: praise for General McChrystal / disappointment in the perceived lack of support and questioning of General McChrystal's recommendations / support and opposition regarding committing more combat troops to Afghanistan at this time / shortage of Afghan troops / need for additional trainers and more equipment to be sent to Afghanistan / belief that a return of the Taliban to Afghanistan guarantees the return of al Qaeda / need to place focus on all of the opinions in the chain of command regarding Afghanistan before making a decision / speculation as to chances of a vote on a troop increase passing the Senate

10/11/09

Guests: Senator Mitch McConnell (R-KY), Senate Republican Leader (1); Senator Jack Reed (D-RI), Senior Member, Senate Armed Services Committee (2); David Ignatius, Columnist and Associate Editor, The Washington Post (3); Michael O'Hanlon, Director of Research and Senior Fellow, The Brookings Institution (3)

1) Topics include: reaction to rumors that the Obama Administration may consider negotiating with the Taliban / support for General Stanley McChrystal's request for an additional forty thousand troops to be deployed to Afghanistan / belief that General McChrystal should testify before Congress because it is Congress that would appropriate the funds necessary for a troop increase / reports of fraud in the recent Afghan elections involving incumbent President Hamid Karzai

2) Topics include: importance of focusing on all aspects of U.S. strategy, not just on the troops / concern over the costs associated with deploying additional troops / comparison of costs per American soldier versus an Afghan soldier / praise for General McChrystal's thorough analysis, but criticism regarding the narrow perspective, focusing on military operational aspects / call for a thorough analysis so that past mistakes are not repeated / questioning the assumption that the return of the Taliban guarantees a return of al Qaeda / reaction to Vice President Joseph Biden's argument for a troop draw down and an increased use of drone aircraft to fight and focus on al Qaeda / need to work together with the Pakistani forces, as a decision concerning Afghanistan will affect Pakistan as well

3) Topics include: lack of consensus on what exactly President Obama should do about Afghanistan / assessment of the current situation in Afghanistan / Taliban's recent invasion of an army compound in Rawalpindi, Pakistan / David Ignatius's recent trip to Pakistan / reaction to rumors that the Obama Administration may consider negotiating with the Taliban, in order to focus more on al Qaeda / questioning of Vice President Biden's position of using drone aircraft / Mr. Ignatius's belief that greater concerns exist concerning Pakistan than the security of their nuclear weapons

- 10/18/09 Guests: Rahm Emanuel, White House Chief of Staff (1); Senator John Cornyn (R-TX), Committee on Finance (2); Senator John Kerry (D-MA), Chairman, Foreign Relations Committee (3)
Guest Moderator: John Dickerson, CBS News Political Consultant
- 1) Topics include: reaction to a statement made by Senator John Kerry suggesting that a decision to send more troops to Afghanistan should not be made until there is more stability in the Afghan government / possibility of holding a run-off election / concern that weather conditions could hamper that possibility / need for a credible partner in Afghanistan, meaning that the people and government would be able to fill the space and opportunities created by American troops / relationship between a safe Afghanistan and America's national security; reaction to criticism from Republicans and Democrats regarding President Obama's support for taxing the very expensive insurance plans, know as Cadillac plans / the public option as a way to provide competition and reduce costs; reaction to a recent headline in The New York Times stating that bonuses have returned to Wall Street
- 2) Topics include: fear that President Obama's deliberation over sending more troops to Afghanistan will begin to look like indecisiveness and embolden our enemies / lack of an established government in Afghanistan should not be the lynchpin for deciding whether or not to protect security interests in that region; assertion that the current health care proposals will raise taxes and increase the deficit / claim that Republicans have been largely excluded from the health care process
- 3) Topics include: Senator Kerry's recent meeting with the U.S. commander in Afghanistan, General Stanley McChrystal / belief that President Obama can not make a decision concerning a troop increase without an adequate Afghan government in place / call for reform within the Afghan government / need to modify the current counterinsurgency strategy to better suit the needs of Afghanistan / belief that ultimately there is no military success in Afghanistan -- that the Afghans will define their future
- 10/25/09 Guests: Senator John McCain (R-AZ), Ranking Member, Committee on Armed Services (1); Senator Russ Feingold (D-WI), Committee on Foreign Relations (2)
- 1) Topics include: reaction to the recent violence in Baghdad, Iraq / assurance that today's car bomb attack will not require any delay in the withdrawal of U.S. troops; support for General Stanley McChrystal's request for additional troops to be sent to Afghanistan / belief that President Obama should not wait until after the run-off election to make the decision regarding additional troops / reaction to a recent statement made by former Vice President Dick Cheney criticizing President Obama for his indecisiveness / respect for former Vice President Cheney / desire to support President Obama / opinion regarding Vice President Biden's proposed counter terrorism strategy which relies mainly on drone aircraft; criticism against the lack of transparency regarding the formulation of the health care proposals / Senator McCain's lack of support for health care reform that includes a public option
- 2) Topics include: belief that the American people will not support a troop increase / criticism for former Vice President Cheney over his comments accusing President Obama of dithering / questioning the assumption that the return of the Taliban to Afghanistan guarantees a return of al Qaeda / going after al Qaeda should be the number one priority, not going after the Taliban / promise to try and block President Obama in the Senate should he decide on a troop increase / support for a flexible timetable to drawdown troops; support for the inclusion of the public option in a health care plan / clarification regarding the public option as a moderate idea versus the more liberal single payer system / need to include the public option now, in order to instigate some control over the abuses that have occurred in the insurance industry

60 MINUTES

10/04/09

"The Swindler" - an interview with convicted Ponzi schemer and former attorney Marc Dreier, who discusses how he scammed $400 million dollars from his investors. He used most of the money to expand his law firm and finance a lifestyle designed to create the illusion that he already was a billionaire. Dreier is now serving a twenty-year prison sentence in Illinois. Also interviewed: Gerald Shargel, Dreier's attorney; Joanne Rapuano, attorney at Dreier's law firm; and Tori LaLonde, Dreier's office manager. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Ira Rosen)

"130 Million Tons of Waste" - a report on the health risks caused by the improper disposal of coal ash, which contains mercury, arsenic, lead and other toxic metals. Problems occurred in Kingston, Tennessee, where coal ash disposed by the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) eventually spilled into the Emory River; and in Chesapeake, Virginia, where coal ash was spread under a golf course. Interviewed: Jim Roewer, lobbyist for the power industry; Leo Francendese, environmentalist for the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA); Gary Topmiller, resident who lives near the Emory River; Anda Ray, who oversees environmental policy at the TVA; Lisa Jackson, head of the EPA; Ted Yoakam, lawyer from Virginia; Robyn Pierce and Stacy Moorman, who live across the street from the contaminated golf course. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shachar Bar-On)

"The Great Migration" - a report on the wildebeest migration across the volcanic plain of the Masai Mara in Kenya and the dangers that confront them. These include predators and the low water level in the Mara River, caused by the destruction of the Mau Forest for human agricultural needs and the burning of the trees for charcoal. Interviewed: Robin Reid, scientist, Colorado State University; John Sena, resident of the Mau Forest; Dickson Kaelo, who works for a non-profit foundation that's paying the Masai to turn over management of their land to a wildlife conservancy. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Henry Schuster, Rebecca Peterson)

Andy Rooney Topic: "What's Happening To The Post Office?" - Andy has gotten wind of potential changes to the postal service and he's not a fan

10/11/09

"Golf Company" - a report on Company G, 2nd Battalion, 8th Marine regiment in Afghanistan, who is battling the enemy in Helmand Province. Sent there as part of President Obama's troop buildup, they are part of a new plan to separate the enemy from the people, and then convince the Afghans to support their government. U.S. forces are now being told to protect civilians, even if the enemy gets away. Interviewed: Second Lieutenant Dan O'Hara, Lieutenant Colonel Christian Cabaniss, Lance Corporal Jonathan Quiceno, Brigadier General John Nicholson, Captain Matt Martin. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Henry Schuster)

"A Blow To The Brain" - a report on new studies that show that some athletes, especially professional football players who suffer many blows to the head, may become brain damaged. Interviewed: Ted Johnson, linebacker for the New England Patriots; Dr. Robert Cantu, a neurosurgeon who co-authored a study done by the University of North Carolina; Dr. Ann McKee, a neuropathologist at Boston University School of Medicine; Dr. Andrew Tucker, a member of the NFL's Brain Injury Committee and team doctor for the Baltimore Ravens; Sylvia Mackey, wife of Hall of Famer John Mackey, who now suffers from severe dementia after many hard hits in his playing days with the Baltimore Colts; Victor Lystedt, whose 13-year-old son, Zackery, suffered a concussion during a football game. (C: Bob Simon - P: Catherine Olian)

"The Birdmen" - a report on an extreme sport that has killed several of its participants, called birdmen, who wear specially-made wingsuits and jump off mountain tops and glide at speeds of 140 miles per hour. 60 MINUTES talks with some of the sport's top athletes and shows them in action in the Romsdal Valley of Norway. Interviewed: JT Holmes, an American professional skier from Lake Tahoe; Julian Bouille, a South African skydiver and aerial photographer; and Tom Erik Heiman, birdman. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Tom Anderson)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy Rooney: Sleeping In America" - Are we literally sleeping our lives away? Andy seems to think so

- 10/18/09 "H1N1" - a report on the H1N1 flu virus - which is increasingly targeting young, healthy people - and how the Center For Disease Control is fighting this pandemic. Interviewed: Dr. Michele Moss from the Arkansas Children's Hospital in Little Rock; Chad Duvall, father of Luke, an H1N1 flu patient at the hospital; Rear Admiral Anne Schuchat, the CDC's chief health officer in the war on H1N1; Dr. Sherif Zaki, pathologist; Dr. Peter Palese from Mount Sinai Medical Center in Manhattan, one of the nation's top virologists; Dr. Tom Frieden, director of the CDC. (C: Scott Pelley - P: David Gelber, Sam Hornblower, Michael Radutzky)
- "The Kanzius Machine" - a followup to "The Kanzius Machine" (OAD: 4/13/08). An interview with John Kanzius, a leukemia patient who invented a radio wave machine that may someday offer effective treatment for cancers without the debilitating side effects of radiation and chemotherapy. Kanzius tried the untested machine on himself and believed that it slowed down the progression of his disease. Even though he ultimately died in February of 2009, scientists believe that his machine has promise. Also interviewed: Marianne Kanzius, his wife; Dr. Steven Curley, a liver cancer surgeon at MD Anderson in Houston, who was treating John and continues cancer research using John's machine; and Dr. Peter Depowski, pathologist. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Tanya Simon) (This is a follow-up to "The Kanzius Machine" OAD: 4/13/08)
- "Drew Barrymore" - an interview with the former child star, who has become an accomplished actress, producer, and director. She discusses her famous acting family and how she overcame her drug addiction through a rehabilitation program. Also interviewed: director Steven Spielberg. (C: Anderson Cooper - P: John Hamlin)
- 10/25/09 "60 Billion Dollar Fraud" - a report on Medicare and Medicaid fraud, focusing on criminals in South Florida, who set up phony clinics and pharmacies and, with the use of illegally obtained but valid patient numbers and Medicare codes, are able to bill Medicare for unrequested and undelivered supplies. Interviewed: FBI Special Agent Brian Waterman; Justice Department prosecutor Kirk Ogrosky, who oversees half a dozen Medicare fraud strike forces; United States Attorney General Eric Holder; "Tony" (not his real name), who ran a string of phony medical supply companies; Clara Mahoney and Ed Davis, two Medicare patients who reported fraudulent charges on their Medicare statements; and Kim Brandt, Medicare's Director of Program Integrity. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Ira Rosen, Joel Bach)
- "Fight For A Cure" - a report on epilepsy, a brain disorder affecting nearly three million Americans and which may not be getting the research and funding it deserves. President Obama's senior advisor David Axelrod and his wife, Susan, talk about their oldest daughter, Lauren, who was diagnosed with epilepsy. Susan and two other mothers started CURE, a nonprofit organization to raise awareness and fund innovative epilepsy research. Also interviewed: Dr. Frances Jensen of Children's Hospital in Boston; Captain Pat Horan, a veteran who developed epilepsy after sustaining head injuries in Baghdad, and his wife, Patty; Monica Lovelace, an epilepsy patient who is part of a clinical trial at California Pacific Medical Center in San Francisco; and Dr. Peter Weber, a neurosurgeon who is treating Monica. (C: Katie Couric - P: Kyra Darnton)
- "Tyler Perry" - a profile of writer, director, producer, and actor Tyler Perry. Long ignored by Hollywood, Perry talks about his films, the inspirations behind the characters he has created, including the popular "Madea", and his devoted audience: largely African-American, church-going, working class, and female. Also interviewed: Oprah Winfrey. (C: Byron Pitts - P: Ruth Streeeter)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy Weighs In On Health Care" - Mr. Rooney weighs in on one of the most controversial issues of the moment

48 HOURS MYSTERY

10/03/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Show Me The Money" - In November 2000, bank manager and single mother Michelle Renee was in her Vista, California home with her seven-year-old daughter Breea, when three masked gunmen broke into the house. The gunmen held them captive overnight, and in the morning strapped dynamite onto their backs. Breea was shoved into a closet, while Michelle was ordered to rob the bank where she worked. If she didn't comply, the gunmen said they would detonate the dynamite. She obeyed, and the next morning she cleaned out the bank vault and gave the gunmen a duffel bag containing $360,000. Police and FBI investigation soon apprehended four suspects: Christopher Butler, Lisa Ramirez, Christopher Huggins, and Robert Ortiz. But investigators were suspicious that Michelle had been involved in the robbery -- the dynamite had turned out to be fake; she had claimed that she had recognized one of the masked robbers as a customer, even though he had been in her bank only once; and she herself had filed for bankruptcy - for the second time - only a month before the robbery. However, no proof was ever discovered to confirm this suspicion. Eighteen months later, Butler and Ramirez went on trial. Ramirez's confession was ruled inadmissible because it implicated Butler, who had admitted to nothing. Finally, Ramirez was found innocent, and Butler guilty only of kidnapping Renee's daughter and roommate, Kimbra; he was not convicted of kidnapping Michelle Renee. Two months later, Huggins and Ortiz went on trial, and were found guilty of all charges, including the kidnapping of Michelle Renee. Includes interviews with Michelle Renee; Breea Renee; Loretta Myers, former co-worker with Michelle Renee; Rick Brown, neighbor of Renee; investigators Dale Martin, Rudy Zamora, Randi Demers; Tom Manning, prosecutor; Herb Weston, attorney for Ramirez. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Lisa Freed, Sarah Huisenga)

10/10/09 PREEMPTION

10/17/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Untold Story of Caylee Anthony" - Until June 2008, Casey Anthony, a 22-year-old single mother, lived with her two-year-old daughter, Caylee, in the Orlando, Florida home of her parents, Cindy and George Anthony. After a reported heated argument with her mother, she then moved out, taking Caylee with her. A month later, Cindy tracked Casey down and demanded to see Caylee. Casey then said that Caylee had been kidnapped a month ago by her nanny, a woman named Zenaida Fernandez-Gonzalez. After an intensive search, investigators came to doubt the existence of this woman. In October 2008, Casey was charged with Caylee's murder: she had not reported her daughter missing for a month, and then she allegedly lied to police. In December 2008, Caylee's skeletal remains -- stuffed in plastic bags, her mouth sealed with duct tape -- were discovered a short distance from her grandparents' home. Onscreen graphics at conclusion: Casey Anthony's lawyers are requesting a change of venue for her trial. They claim Orlando is too hostile to select a fair jury. Her trial is expected to begin next summer (2010). Includes interviews with: Cindy and George Anthony, parents of Casey Anthony; Brad Conway, attorney for Cindy and George Anthony; Diane Fanning, author, "Mommy's Little Girl"; John Morgan, attorney for Zenaida Gonzalez; Jesse Grund, former boyfriend of Casey Anthony; Pam Bondi, a Tampa, Fla. prosecutor; Jose Baez, Linda Kenney Baden, and Todd Macaluso, attorneys for Casey Anthony; Zenaida Gonzalez, single mother of six; Holly Gagne, friend of Casey Anthony. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

10/24/09

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Curious Case of Colonel Shue" (9:00-10:00pm) - In April 2003, Air Force Colonel Philip Shue died in a violent car crash when his vehicle struck some trees alongside a Texas interstate highway. When his body was first pulled from the car, investigators found that there was a six-inch vertical gash in his chest, both his nipples had been removed, and duct tape was wrapped around both his wrists and his boots. After a year of investigation, all the agencies involved -- the Air Force, and both local and state police -- agreed that Col. Shue, a psychiatrist, had suffered a psychological breakdown and committed suicide. A grand jury, convened at the request of the district attorney, found no evidence of any crime and believed the ruling of suicide should stand. However, Tracy Shue, his widow, is adamant in her insistence that her husband had been abducted and tortured, and had then somehow broken free. Tracy thinks that Philip's first wife, Nancy, who still held insurance policies on his life worth one million dollars, should be investigated. Nancy had refused to cancel these policies, even after Philip claimed that he had received an anonymous letter warning him of a plot against his life by Nancy and her current husband, Donald Timpson. Nancy was also a board-certified sex therapist who had studied the practice of sadomasochism. Two months after Philip's death, Tracy filed a civil lawsuit seeking to prevent Nancy from collecting the million dollar death benefit, and seeking damages from the insurance companies for not previously canceling the policies. As part of the lawsuit, Tracy's lawyers demanded that Nancy answer their questions, but she took the Fifth Amendment more than twenty times, refusing to answer any questions about murder or motives or torture. In 2008, the civil lawsuit went to trial. Nancy had been dropped as a defendant, as had one of the insurance companies. Both Nancy and Tracy received million dollar death settlements of Philip Shue's policies. With regard to damages, the presiding judge ruled in favor of the insurance company. But he also ruled that the evidence considered by the Court substantiated a finding that the death of Philip Shue was indeed a homicide. Nancy Shue declined repeated requests from 48 HOURS to be interviewed. No law enforcement agency has ever named her or her husband as suspects or persons of interest in the case. Includes interviews with: Tracy Shue, widow of Philip Shue; Nina Williard, friend of Tracy and Philip; Doctor Vincent Di Maio, chief medical examiner, Bexar County, Texas; Dr. Cyril Wecht, pathologist; Joe Moura, private investigator and 48 HOURS consultant; Lieutenant Roger Anderson, lead officer for the military's investigation of the case; George Brown, friend of Philip Shue. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Peter Henderson) (OAD: 04/18/09). Onscreen graphic update for this first rebroadcast: In June 2009 the Texas Attorney General ruled Col. Philip Shue's death certificate does not have to be changed. The official cause of death remains suicide.

10/24/09

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Haunted" (10:00-11:00pm) - In July 2002, Mike Sisco and his fiancée Karen Harkness were shot to death in Karen's Topeka, Kansas home. Police investigation ultimately focussed on Dana Chandler, Mike's ex-wife and the mother of his two children. Mike and Dana had gone through a bitter divorce in 1998, and Mike had custody of the children. Dana left Kansas, but she then established an ongoing pattern of harassing and stalking her ex-husband, and also harassing Karen on the phone. Dana's obsession convinced family members that she was involved in the murders, but no hard evidence has ever linked her to the crimes. The families believe that evidence that might have implicated her was lost or destroyed in the initial police investigation of the crime scene. So, although police strongly suspected Dana's involvement in the murders, she was never arrested or charged. In 2007, an independent analysis of the evidence, done by retired New York Lieutenant Commander Vernon Geberth, concluded that Dana Chandler was "the one and only person who had the motive, means, and opportunity to commit these murders". In January 2009, Topeka got a new district attorney, Chad Taylor, who says that the Harkness-Sisco case is now a priority. Onscreen graphics at conclusion: Hailey Sisco has been granted a permanent restraining order against her mother. District Attorney Chad Taylor is awaiting the results of new DNA testing. The investigation remains active. Includes interviews with: Harold Worswick, father of Karen Harkness; Carol Sisco Engler, mother of Mike Sisco; Richard Volle, detective, Topeka police; Dustin Sisco, son of Mike Sisco and Dana Chandler; Hailey Sisco, daughter of Mike Sisco and Dana Chandler; Erin Sutton, daughter of Karen Harkness; Chad Harkness, son of Karen Harkness; Cathy and Mark Boots, Mike Sisco's sister and his brother-in-law; Joseph Moura and Paul Ciolino, private detectives working for 48 HOURS; Tim Sisco, Mike's brother; Mike Worswick, Karen Harkness' brother; Chad Taylor, Topeka district attorney. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

10/31/09

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Deadly Prophecy" - Faylene Eaves, divorced Arizona mother of two, married Doug Grant, a divorced single dad, in 1993. They were both Mormons. Faylene was especially devout, according to Doug's sister, Tammy Fuentes, who also says that, several years later, Faylene told her of receiving a message from God telling her that Doug had a girlfriend and that she should divorce him. Doug acquiesced. He then planned to marry Hilary Dewitt, but in August 2001, Faylene wanted to re-marry him, citing a revelation from God that she should put her family back together. They did re-marry, and to celebrate their reunion, vacationed in the Timpanogas National Park in Utah. There, according to Doug, Faylene thought she had a vision of Jesus in the clouds and fell off a cliff while trying to get a better look. She survived, but three days later was found drowned in her bathtub, her blood full of the muscle relaxants and sleeping medication (Ambien) that had been prescribed after her fall. As a precaution against Faylene taking both drugs together, the physician's assistant had told Doug not to fill the Ambien prescription without calling him first -- but Doug had done so anyway. In the journal that Faylene had kept, she seemed to suggest that it was God's will that she die "to fulfill a mission on the other side of the veil." And, in letters to Hilary Dewitt, Faylene had written that she wanted Hilary to marry Doug after she died -- which he did, just weeks after Faylene's death. Although Faylene's death was initially ruled an accident, pressure from her family made the police eventually take a closer look at Doug Grant. He had never called 911 upon discovering Faylene in the tub. Because of this, and because of incriminating information provided by Jim McElyea, an old friend of Doug, police arrested Doug in the summer of 2005 for the murder of his wife, Faylene. In mid-November 2008, his trial began; in March 2009, he was convicted of manslaughter. Concluding onscreen graphics: Jenna is suing Doug Grant for the wrongful death of her mother. Faylene and Doug's two sons live with Hilary Dewitt, who is their legal guardian. Includes interviews with: Jenna Stradling, daughter of the late Faylene Grant; Doug Grant, widower of Faylene Grant; Chad White, physician's assistant, friend of Doug Grant; Paul Rubin, reporter; Juan Martinez, prosecutor; Hilary Dewitt, second wife of Doug Grant; Mel McDonald, attorney for Doug Grant; Tammy Fuentes, sister of Doug Grant; Sy Ray, detective; Jim McElyea, friend of Doug Grant. 11/01/09

"H1N1" - a report on the manufacture, distribution and safety of the H1N1 influenza vaccine. For the first time, the public is allowed to see how and where the vaccine is made: in a sprawling facility in Pennsylvania, by Sanofi Pasteur, a French drug company. Also includes an interview with Secretary of Health and Human Services Kathleen Sebelius, who is responsible for the vaccine program; a followup on the case of Luke Duvall, a teenage H1N1 patient profiled on October 18, 2009 ("H1N1"); and interviews with Sam Lee of Sanofi Pasteur; Dr. Bruce Gellin; infectious disease expert Michael Osterholm, University of Minnesota. (C: Scott Pelley - P: David Gelber, Sam Hornblower, Michael Radutzky)

"The Yakuza" - a report on the Japanese version of organized crime, the Yakuza, featuring an interview with Jake Adelstein, an American journalist, who has spent the last fifteen years in Japan investigating and reporting on the mob, and how Tadamasu Goto, a high-ranking member of the Yakuza, in need of a liver transplant, was allowed into the United States and allowed to jump to the top of the transplant list. Interviews included: Mike Cox, chief of immigration and customs, U.S. Embassy, Tokyo; attorney Larry Eisenberg, who is helping clients Cheryl Rady and Yolanda Carballo -- who both lost relatives waiting for transplants. (C: Lara Logan - P: Howard L. Rosenberg)

"The Movie Pirates" - an investigation of criminals who copy films, sometimes before the movies even reach the theater, and distribute them illegally via the Internet and DVD's, costing Hollywood billions in lost revenue. Interviewed: Los Angeles Detective Rick Ishitani; Motion Picture Association of America investigator Gary Kissinger; John Malcolm, former Justice Department official; filmmaker Steven Soderbergh, vice president of the Directors Guild of America; and Richard Cotton, executive vice president, NBC Universal. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Tom Anderson)

- 11/08/09 "Sabotaging The System" - a report on computer hackers who can disable critical infrastructures in major cities, disrupt essential services, steal millions from banks, infiltrate defense systems, extort public companies and sabotage our weapons systems. Interviews include: retired Admiral Mike McConnell, former Chief of National Intelligence; Jim Lewis, director, Center for Strategic and International Studies, Jim Gosler and John Mulder of Sandia National Laboratories; Sean Henry, assistant director, FBI, Bureau Cyber Division; and Congressman Jim Langevin (D-RI). (C: Steve Kroft - P: Graham Messick)
- "Agassi" - an interview with tennis champion Andre Agassi, who in his first interview about his upcoming autobiography "Open: An Autobiography", talks about his life in tennis, his family, the depression he suffered from that eventually led to his abuse of the drug methamphetamine, and finally, his life today. Also included are brief comments by Agassi's wife, former tennis great Steffi Graf. Part I: (C: Katie Couric - P: Harry A. Radcliffe II); Part II: (C: Katie Couric - P: Harry A. Radcliffe II, Magalie Laguerre Wilkinson) DOUBLE-LENGTH SEGMENT
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy Declares War on War" - Andy observes Veterans Day and declares war on war
- 11/15/09 "The Deadliest Weapon" - a report on the war in Afghanistan's deadliest weapon: the roadside bomb or IED (improvised explosive device). The U.S. military has gone on the offensive against this terrorist tool: search and destroy missions are carried out across Afghanistan by a small army of elite units called Task Force Paladin, which only accepts volunteers because the missions are so dangerous. Included are interviews with Task Force Paladin members Col. Jeffrey Jarkowsky, Capt. Dave Foster, Sgt. Max Cabrera, Spec. Christopher Parsons, Capt. Thomas LaFave; Sgt. Daniel De Roche, and Spec. Joshua Gross. (C: Byron Pitts - P: Tom Anderson)
- "B-Rex" - an interview with Jack Horner, who consulted on all of the "Jurassic Park" movies and is considered to be one of the most prominent and controversial paleontologists in the United States. Concerned more with how dinosaurs lived, than why they went extinct, he studies their biology and what they were like as living creatures. Credited with providing the evidence that dinosaurs have evolved into what we now know as birds, Horner has proposed a plan to mine ancestral dinosaur DNA as a way to reverse-engineer a chicken into what he calls a "dino-chicken". Also interviewed: University of Wisconsin Professor Sean Carroll; North Carolina State University Professor Mary Schweitzer, protégé of Horner, who studies the internal makeup of ancient bone; and Bob Harmon, a member of Horner's team. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein, Meghan Frank)
- "Resurrecting Eden" - a report on the restoration of Iraq's marshlands. After the 1991 Gulf War, Saddam Hussein spent millions of dollars exterminating an ancient civilization called the "Ma'dan" or Marsh Arabs, for supporting the uprising against him. By building six canals to divert the waters of the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers out into the desert and the Persian Gulf, he all but destroyed their way of life in the area where many biblical scholars place the Garden of Eden. Now, American engineer Azzam Alwash, who grew up in the region, and his group "Nature Iraq", have developed a plan to restore the marshes and bring back an ancient way of life. 11/22/09

“The Cost of Dying” - a report on the high cost of end-of-life care, including procedures and surgeries that often times prolong patients' lives, and how Medicare paid $50 billion just for doctors and hospital bills during their last months. As President Obama and Congress address health care reform, these costs, which used to be a bipartisan issue, have become politically explosive, a perfect example of the health care costs that threaten to bankrupt the country. Included interviews with Dr. Ira Byock, Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center, Lebanon, NH; Dr. Elliott Fisher, Dartmouth Institute for Health Policy; Meredith Snedeker, daughter of a patient; and David Walker of the Peter G. Peterson Foundation. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Andy Court)

“Witness” - an interview with Iranian-Canadian film maker and Newsweek reporter Maziar Bahari, who was held in Iran's notorious Evin Prison by the Revolutionary Guard for 118 days. Accused of espionage, Bahari was interrogated and tortured on a daily basis, all for reporting on the demonstrations related to the June 2009 re-election of Mahmoud Ahmadinejad as president of Iran -- a vote millions of Iranians claimed had been rigged. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael H. Gavshon, Drew Magratten, Paul Bellinger)

“Cameron's Avatar” - an interview with filmmaker James Cameron, who directed “Titanic”, the most profitable movie ever made. His next project is “Avatar”, a $400 million 3D science fiction fantasy that mixes real actors with computer generated creatures, the sum of which he believes will change the movie business forever. (C: Morley Safer - P: David Browning)

Andy Rooney Topic: “Andy Rooney's Homemade Thanksgiving Feast” - Andy explains how to whip up a homemade holiday meal

11/29/09

“Congo Gold” - due to the high price of gold, it and other minerals are funding the war in the Democratic Republic of Congo -- one of the deadliest since World War II. The jewelry industry banned the trafficking of so-called blood diamonds, but the same has not happened with gold, and a campaign of rape and murder, funded largely by gold, has killed more than 5 million people, as gold is smuggled out to be sold on the open market. Included are interviews with Anneke Van Woudenberg, Human Rights Watch; John Prendergast, the Enough Project; Fidel Balilemba, relief worker; Matt Runci, head of the trade groups Jewelers of America and the Responsible Jewelry Council. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Solly Granatstein, Nicole Young)

“The Great Explorer” - an interview with famed deep sea explorer Robert Ballard, who counts among his discoveries the wrecks of the Titanic, the Bismark and PT 109, the ship commanded by President John Kennedy in World War II. Today, he sails the seas on the Nautilus, a ship specially designed for deep sea exploration, and with state-of-the-art electronics and navigation systems. Though famed for his discovery of the Titanic, he reveals that he was really on a top-secret mission for the U.S. Navy to map two nuclear submarines, the USS Scorpion and Thresher, lost in the North Atlantic during the Cold War. He also considers his discovery of tube worms, eight thousand feet below the ocean's surface, living in total darkness and thriving off the energy of the Earth and not the sun, to be his greatest discovery. Also included is undersea footage from Ballard's personal library. (C: Lara Logan - P: Max McClellan) DOUBLE-LENGTH SEGMENT

11/07/09 PREEMPTION

11/14/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Case For Murder" - On June 2, 2007, the body of thirty-six-year-old Hugues de la Plaza was found in his locked San Francisco apartment. He had been stabbed in the neck, chest and stomach. His apartment was covered in blood, and the scene seemed to have all the characteristics of a homicide -- but there was no sign of a struggle, no sign of anyone else's DNA at the scene, and no image of an assailant on nearby security cameras. The San Francisco Medical Examiner's office classified the cause of his death as "undetermined," which raised the possibility of suicide. However, there was no bloody weapon found in his apartment. Friends and family claim that he was not suicidal and would never have killed himself. De la Plaza's father, Francois, a French citizen, hired an independent private investigator, John Murphy, and was also able to call in French authorities to conduct their own investigation. Murphy and the French investigators independently concluded that Hugues de la Plaza was a homicide victim. In addition, an outside review of the case, commissioned by the San Francisco Police Department, concluded that de la Plaza's death was a homicide. Despite these several independent findings, San Francisco authorities still classify the cause of de la Plaza's death as "undetermined." Includes interviews with: Melissa Nix, former girlfriend of de la Plaza; Dr. Venus Azar, Assistant Medical Examiner; Neil Zarama, co-worker of de la Plaza; Mark Colacito, boss and friend of de la Plaza; Francois de la Plaza, father of Hugues; Shannon Stabile and Kris Moore, paramedics; Antonio Casillas, Inspector, San Francisco Police; Orion Denley and Gitanjali Bhusan, neighbors of de la Plaza; John Murphy, private investigator; Christophe Schuhmann, friend of de la Plaza. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Josh Gelman, Doug Longhini, Shoshanah Wolfson)

11/21/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Catch Her If You Can" (9:00-10:00pm) - A profile of Esther Elizabeth Reed -- also known as Natalie Fisher, Natalie Bowman, Brook Henson and Jennifer Myers. Since 1999, this high school dropout from a small Montana town assumed at least four different identities; scammed her way into Harvard and Columbia, and stole over $100,000 in student loans. In 2006, a federal grand jury in South Carolina handed down an indictment charging her with felony identity theft (in relation to missing person Brook Henson) and student loan fraud. In February 2008, she was finally arrested in a Chicago suburb. She pled guilty to four felonies, and was sentenced to fifty-one months in federal prison. She is scheduled to be released in October 2011. Despite pleading guilty, she could still be charged in other cases. Includes interviews with: Esther Reed; Steve Rambam, private investigator and 48 HOURS consultant; John Bridge, U.S. Marshal; Walt Wilkins, a U.S. attorney; Edna Strom, Esther Reed's sister; E.J. Reed, her brother; Jim Therriault, her English teacher; Natalie Fisher, sister of Esther's former boyfriend; Brandy Olson, college friend of Esther Reed/ "Natalie Fisher"; John Brushke, debate coach, California State Fullerton; Frank Abagnale, former con man; Bitu Shaghaghi, college roommate of Esther Reed / "Natalie Bowman"; Mitch Avila, professor, California State Fullerton; Lisa Henson, aunt of the real Brook Henson; John Campbell, South Carolina detective; Ann Fitz, attorney for Esther Reed. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 11/21/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Diary of a Showgirl" (10:00-11:00pm) - Marjorie Orbin, a former Las Vegas showgirl and stripper, is currently serving a life sentence in a Phoenix, Arizona prison, having been convicted of murdering Jay Orbin, her husband of ten years and father of her son, Noah. On September 8, 2004, Jay was driving home from a business trip to Florida. He spoke to his mother on his cell phone, but then was never heard from again. Six weeks later, on October 23, 2004, his torso was found in a plastic container, just miles from his home. A police search warrant of the Orbin home discovered Jay's credit cards and business checkbook, which he always took with him on business trips -- evidence that he had arrived home, but never actually left on another trip -- as Marjorie had claimed. Further police investigation -- including the discovery of a hardware store surveillance tape showing Marjorie buying two plastic containers exactly like the one Jay's torso was found in -- pointed to Marjorie as the murderer, and she was arrested and charged on December 6, 2004. On September 14, 2009, a jury found her guilty of murder; she was sentenced to life in prison. Marjorie, however, now claims that Larry Weisberg, with whom she had been having an affair, murdered Jay when Weisberg and Jay had a confrontation in Jay's home, after Jay had returned earlier than expected from his Florida trip and found out about the affair. She says that she had never revealed this for five years, because Weisberg had threatened to kill her son if she went to the police. Marjorie is serving a life sentence in Phoenix, Arizona. Includes interviews with: Marjorie Orbin; David Barnes, detective; Treena Kay, lead prosecutor; Joanne Orbin, Jay's mother; Jake Orbin, Jay's brother; Jan Butcher, detective. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Liza Finley)
- 11/28/09 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "Krystal's Courage" - an updated and edited version of "Krystal's Courage" (OAD 08/16/02). On December 30, 1999, 10-year-old Krystal Surles, a Yates, Kansas girl, and her friend Kaylene Harris were attacked in Kaylene's Del Rio, Texas home, by a knife-wielding intruder who slashed both girls' throats. Kaylene died... Krystal not only survived the attack but was able to help a police sketch artist draw an image that led to the arrest of her attacker, Tommy Lynn Sells. After his arrest Sells confessed to the crime and revealed that he had been traveling across the country killing men, women and children for twenty years and had never in the past left a witness alive. Krystal Surles testified during Sells' trial for the December 1999 murder of Kaylene Harris, which ended in his being sentenced to death. This updated edition includes new commentary by Krystal Surles; Marque Surles, her sister; Pam Surles, her mother; Mark Surles, her father; Johnny Allen, Texas Ranger. Updated text graphic at conclusion: Krystal, now 20, lives with her father in Idaho. Tommy Lynn Sells has been on death row for nine years. (C: Harold Dow - P: Chris Young) (OAD as "Krystal's Courage", a two-part edition of 48 HOURS MYSTERIES, with an original broadcast date of 08/16/02. "Krystal's Courage" was originally broadcast as "Dead Men Tell No Tales" Part I, 02/01/01 and as "Dead Men Tell No Tales" Part II, 02/08/01.)

FACE THE NATION

- 12/06/09 Guests: Secretary of State Hillary Rodham Clinton; Dr. Robert M. Gates, Secretary of Defense
Topics include: President Obama's decision to send an additional thirty thousand troops to Afghanistan / reaffirmation that the transferring of security responsibility to the Afghans and U.S. troop withdrawal will begin in July 2011 / reasoning behind President Obama's decision to set a deadline / reaction to former Vice President Dick Cheney's criticism that discussing a departure date emboldens the enemy / what constitutes the United States declaring success in Afghanistan / confirmation that there will also be a civilian surge / though corruption exists within Afghan President Hamid Karzai's administration, reports of rampant corruption are overblown / aid to the provinces within Afghanistan will be based on a certification of accountability and transparency / focus is not on full-scale nation-building, rather a shift to concentrating on the ministries that contribute to the success of dealing with al Qaeda and stabilizing the security situation / NATO's recent pledge of seven thousand troops; reaction to reports that senior Afghan Taliban leaders have taken up residence near Quetta, Pakistan / Pakistani government's lack of response to the threat / affirmation to the confidence in Pakistan's ability to keep their nuclear weapons secure / positive relationship between the United States and Pakistan
- 12/13/09 Guests: Senator Ben Nelson (D-NE) (1); Senator Jay Rockefeller (D-WV) (1); Senator Joe Lieberman (I-CT) (1); Senator Mitch McConnell (R-KY), Senate Republican Leader (2)
1) Topics include: current state of health care reform within the Senate / recent changes to the legislation which replaced the public option / concern from some Democrats regarding the overall cost of the bill / support for the features of the basic bill, which would provide coverage to thirty million uninsured people / Senator Lieberman's resistance to voting for the health care bill as it stands now / Senator Rockefeller's optimism regarding the bill's ability to garner the necessary sixty votes to pass / Senator Nelson's concern over the current language contained within the bill regarding abortion and the Medicare buy-in, which would allow people with no insurance to buy into Medicare beginning at age fifty-five
2) Topics include: poll numbers indicating the American public's opposition to the health care bill / reasoning behind Republican resistance to the health care bill / belief that a Medicare buy-in would create even more problems for the already unstable program / support for health care reform, just not the current bill before the Senate / reaction to criticism from Rush Limbaugh that he is not providing enough resistance to the Democrats / aversion to the health care proposal that would be set up nonprofits overseen by the government to offer health care and negotiate rates / opinion that the health care bill will not be passed before Christmas; disagreement over a comment made by Lawrence Summers -- Assistant to the President for Economic Policy -- that the recession is over
- 12/20/09 Guests: Senator Olympia Snowe (R-ME) (1); Senator Mary Landrieu (D-LA) (2); Senator Sherrod Brown (D-OH) (2); Senator Lamar Alexander (R-TN) (2)
1) Topics include: factors behind Senator Snowe's decision -- once seen as the most likely Republican to vote for the health care bill -- not to vote for the health care bill / her meeting with President Obama, even after Senator Harry Reid -- the Senate Majority Leader -- announced that he had the sixty votes necessary to pass the bill / criticism regarding the "beat the clock" mentality -- the push to get the vote on this bill prior to Christmas -- within the Senate / support for the language within the bill making sure that federal funds are not used to finance abortion
2) Topics include: Senator Brown's disappointment in the health care bill, but support for the insurance reform contained within / opposing viewpoints regarding whether or not this bill will reduce health care costs / concerns over the current state of Medicare / criticism regarding the push to get the bill passed before Christmas / Senator Landrieu's reaction to charges that the three hundred million dollars in Medicaid help for Louisiana -- nicknamed the "Louisiana Purchase" -- was channeled in order to secure her vote / conflicting reports over claims supposedly made by members of both parties -- Democrats and Republicans -- over not knowing what is contained in the bill / criticism and support for the bill's attempt to streamline Medicare

12/05/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: “Justice in the Heartland” (9:00-10:00pm) - On May 20, 2005, 27-year-old Mike Golub, resident of Johnson City, Kansas, left work to pick up his young son, Mikey, at the home of Shannon Albers Floyd, Mike’s ex-girlfriend and the mother of their son, Mikey. Shannon was now married to Chad Floyd, a member of a rich and powerful Johnson City family. But Mike disappeared after he left work, and was never seen again. His family immediately became suspicious that Shannon and Chad Floyd were responsible: Mike had wanted more time with his son, and he and the Floyds were at odds over this. In addition, the Floyds, who wanted to move out of Kansas, had been told that, if they left the state, Shannon would probably lose custody of Mikey to his father. Five days after his disappearance, Mike’s truck was found in a remote field, but with no evidence of foul play. Police investigation of the Floyd’s home revealed small amounts of blood and Mike Golub’s DNA on the unpainted underside of their newly repainted front deck. Other circumstantial evidence also made police suspicious of the Floyds. In 2006, Shannon and Chad Floyd were arrested and charged with Mike’s murder; Chad’s father posted their $2 million bond bail. In 2007, they were tried -- but the jury declared itself deadlocked after two days of deliberations. Prosecutors re-filed the charges, and in April 2008, there was a second trial -- and, once again, the jury declared itself deadlocked, after two days of deliberations. Prosecutors ultimately decided against a third trial, fearing another hung jury. The Floyds went free, and Mike Golub is officially still missing. Includes interviews with: Deb Golub, Mike’s mother; Crissy Golub, Mike’s sister; Danae Meurer, friend of Mike Golub; Shannon and Steve Morris, friends of Mike Golub; Mary Hart, business owner in Johnson City; Sally Ochoa, child custody worker, Kansas; Joseph Moura, detective, 48 HOURS consultant; Paul Ciolino, detective, 48 HOURS consultant. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 12/05/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "American Girl, Italian Murder: The Verdict" (10:00-11:00pm) - a followup to "American Girl, Italian Nightmare" (OAD: 04/11/09) and "A Long Way From Home" (OAD: 04/12/08). On December 4, 2009, an Italian jury -- after an eleven-month trial -- found American exchange student Amanda Knox and her former Italian boyfriend, Raffaele Sollecito, guilty of the November 2007 murder in Perugia of Amanda's British roommate, Meredith Kercher. This follow-up includes taped excerpts of the actual trial, and commentary by: Edda Mellas and Curt Knox, Amanda's parents; Deanna Knox, Amanda's sister; John Kercher Jr. and Stephanie Kercher, parents of Meredith; Nick Pisa, British journalist; Paul Ciolino, Chicago private investigator and 48 HOURS consultant; Paolo Sofriso, Italian investigator and 48 HOURS consultant; Nathan Abraham, friend of Meredith Kercher; Dr. Larry Kobilinsky, forensic scientist; Doug Preston, author; Senator Maria Cantwell (D-WA). (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Doug Longhini, Sabina Castelfranco, Chris Young, James Stolz, Sara Ely Hulse, Josh Gelman)
- 12/12/09 48 HOURS SPECIAL INVESTIGATION: "The Lost Children" - An investigation into one of the largest foreign adoption scams in U.S. history. In 1994, Scott and Karen Banks started the Utah-based Focus On Children adoption agency, and over time placed children from nine different countries into American homes. Since 1999, American parents had adopted more than a hundred children from the agency's then-recently opened program in Samoa, the small island nation in the South Pacific. These Americans included Patti Sawyer, a divorced, single mother; Mike and Kari Nyberg; and Gary and Elizabeth Muenzler. All had been told that the children were orphans, living at the agency's orphanage in Samoa, after being abandoned by their biological parents. The Nybergs, however, were bothered by their child's strong memories of her Samoan family, and sent a Samoan friend to visit Elleia's parents and ask them a few questions. They found out that the poor, uneducated Samoan parents thought that they were signing their children up for an international educational foster program, in which they would be able to stay in close touch with their children, who would then be returned at the age of 18. The Nybergs contacted U.S. Immigration in early 2005; eventually, the Samoan government halted all adoptions and the U.S. government began investigating. The Nybergs ultimately returned Elleia to her Samoan parents. In February 2007, Scott and Karen Banks, and five FOC employees, including Dan Wakefield, the agency's child recruiter in Samoa, were charged with 135 felony counts, including visa fraud, money laundering, and bringing illegal aliens into the U.S. in connection with thirty-seven adoptions. Meanwhile, Patti Sawyer brought Jayden back to Samoa to visit her birth parents; Jayden then chose to return to the U.S. with Sawyer. Eventually, federal prosecutors allowed the FOC defendants to plead down the 135 federal charges to a handful of misdemeanors. They were banned from the adoption business for life, and they received no jail time. For now, it appears that nearly all of the Samoan parents want their children to remain with their American families. The exception is Vili Alofa, biological father of adoptee Christine Muenzler: he wants his daughter back. Includes interviews with: Mike and Kari Nyberg, adoptive parents of Elleia; Elizabeth and Gary Muenzler, adoptive parents of Christine; Patti Sawyer, adoptive mother of Jayden; Jayden Sawyer, adoptee; Mele and Upega, biological parents of adoptee Jayden Sawyer; Isaia and Tupu, biological parents of adoptee Elleia Nyberg; Vili Alofa, biological father of adoptee Christine Muenzler; Barbara Dreaver, New Zealand reporter; Dan Wakefield, employee of the adoption agency, Focus On Children; Brett Tolman, U.S. Attorney. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Katherine Davis, Doug Longhini)
- 12/19/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: LIVE TO TELL: "The Birthday Party" - On January 21, 1998, the night before his 38th birthday, federal prosecutor Stanley Alpert was walking home late at night in lower Manhattan, when he was kidnapped at gunpoint and held hostage for 25 hours before his captors, having learned that he was a federal prosecutor, decided to release him. Before learning that fact, however, his kidnappers had intended to force him to withdraw $50,000 from his bank account, and had threatened Alpert's own life and that of his father, if Alpert did not cooperate. After his release, police were able, with Alpert's help, to track down his abductors. The kidnappers (identified only as Lucky, Ren, Sen and Louis) received sentences ranging from 15 years to life. Stanley Alpert has written a book about his ordeal. It's called "The Birthday Party". Includes interviews with: Stanley Alpert, federal prosecutor, kidnapping victim; David Prager, friend of Alpert; Dan Dorsky, friend of Alpert; FBI special agents Kathleen Flynn, Richard Meade, David Burroughs, David Biddiscombe; Bill Glynn, NYPD detective. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

12/26/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Drawn To Murder" (9:00-11:00p) - a report on the February 1987 murder of 37-year-old Peggy Hettrick in Fort Collins, Colorado. Her mutilated, half naked body was discovered in a field near the home of Tim Masters, a 15-year-old who lived near the crime scene. He said he had seen the body on his way to school but, thinking it was a mannequin, he did not report it to the police. He then became a suspect when police searched his home and found his collection of knives and his drawings of graphic images of murder and mutilation. Under interrogation, he adamantly denied any knowledge of the murder -- and since police had no actual evidence linking him to the crime, he was not arrested. Ten years later, prompted by the opinions of Dr. Reid Meloy, an expert on sexual homicide, the police did arrest Masters for the murder. He was put on trial, convicted and went to prison in 1999, sentenced to life without parole. After losing two appeals, he appealed again, claiming ineffective counsel. His defense team then uncovered important items of evidence never given to Masters' original lawyers, although they had been entitled to them. This included, among other things, questions surrounding Dr. Richard Hammond, a prominent eye surgeon who also lived near the crime scene and who had been arrested for voyeurism. And now, for the first time, DNA tests were done on Peggy Hettrick's clothing. These tests found no DNA of Tim Masters, but did find that of Hettrick's ex-boyfriend, Matt Zoellner, and that of two other males. Tim Masters' conviction and sentence were vacated, and he was released from prison after more than nine years. Updated concluding text graphic for this 12/26/09 rebroadcast: Tim Masters is suing Jim Broderick, the city of Fort Collins and four prosecutors involved in his case. Star prosecution witness Reid Meloy says authorities withheld crucial information from him and he now plans to testify for Tim Masters in the lawsuit. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Joshua Yager, Marc B. Goldbaum, Taigi Smith) (OAD: 11/29/08)

CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIALS

- 12/06/09 “The Art Of ‘The Book’” - a report on art and the Bible, analyzing the relationship between Biblical stories, rituals and the art they inspire. For centuries, religions have looked to art as a way to educate and entertain believers -- everything from paintings and sculptures of biblical figures to houses of worship and illustrated texts. The program also provides an opportunity to see rarely-viewed manuscripts and objects. 1) Bill Voelkle, Curator of the Department of Medieval and Renaissance Manuscripts at the Morgan Library and Museum in New York City, discusses the expansive collection of over 1,400 illuminated manuscripts that were collected by the financier Pierpont Morgan. Maria Fredericks, Dru Heinz Book Conservator at the Morgan Library, discusses the main mission of the conservation center, as well as some of the scientific techniques used to enhance what is seen with the naked eye. 2) Dr. David Kraemer, Director of Library, Jewish Theological Seminary (JTS) in New York City, explains how Jewish culture used biblical imagery for centuries and why its art is rarer than its Christian counterparts, as it is seen as a religion which opposes iconic representation. JTS'S Curator of Jewish Art, Sharon Liberman Mintz, presents the Rothschild Mahzor, a 500-year-old prayer book, and the Prato Haggadah. 3) At the Museum of Biblical Art in Manhattan (MoBia), the only museum in the United States dedicated solely to biblical art, Executive Director Ena Heller explains the importance of those images to those who could not read or write. And Tobi Kahn, a contemporary abstract sculptor and painter who thinks about Jewish ritual, discusses his work and current exhibit at MoBia, through January 24, 2010. (Narrator: Ted Holmes. Producer/Writer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Jeanne Gunther. Executive Producer & Director: John P. Blessington. Produced in consultation with: National Council of Churches; United States Conference of Catholic Bishops; The Islamic Society of North America; Union for Reform Judaism; New York Board of Rabbis.)
- 12/24/09 “Christmas at The Cathedral -- Beacon of Hope” - a program of Christmas music from the 13-year concert series at the Roman Catholic St. Joseph Cathedral in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, featuring highlights from the past four concerts (2005 through 2008). Featured are: the South Dakota Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Henry Charles Smith; Scott Piper, tenor; Emily Lodine and Stacey Stofferahn, sopranos; Paul Sanchez, concert pianist; the Stonebach Sisters, triplet trumpeters; the St. Joseph Cathedral Choir and Men's Schola. Also featured is actor Tom Roberts who shares a special Christmas story and video by Kirby Schultz. The program is introduced by Bishop Paul J. Swain of the Diocese of Sioux Falls. Producer of the concert: Mark Conzemius. Executive Producer for CBS: John P. Blessington
