07/29/99     "Second Hand Man"- follows Australian businessman Clint Hallam, selected as the world's first hand transplant recipient, as he traveled to Lyon, France where an appropriate donor was found and a renowned international surgical team convened to perform the 13-hour microsurgery. The following day, newspaper headlines revealed that Hallam had lost his hand while serving time in a New Zealand prison for fraud and faces recent charges in his adopted Perth, Australia home. Hallam soon left France after being denied reentry into Australia and is purportedly living in the United States. The medical team that performed Hallam's transplant now doubts the wisdom of choosing him. The patient, who has made almost no contact with his doctors, is on medication requiring almost constant monitoring. Without proper treatment, his new hand and even his life may be at risk. (C: Susan Spencer, Bernard Goldberg - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Joe Halderman) (OAD: 02/22/99)

60 MINUTES II

07/06/99     "Nerd of the Amazon"- Jeff Bezos, a self-described nerd, founded Amazon.com, the world's largest Internet bookstore. 09/07/99 PREEMPTION

09/09/99 "Breaking Point"- Worldwide Association of Specialty Programs, a Utah-based company, runs behavior modification schools in locations including Samoa, Montana, Jamaica and the Czech Republic. Desperate parents with unmanageable children whose problems include drug and alcohol abuse, failure in school, and running away from home, pay from $30 to $40,000 to have their teenagers subjected to a grueling boot camp regimen in locations far removed from their familiar haunts and habits. The effectiveness of the program has come under question because the teenagers are often subjected to mental and physical abuse, with inadequate medical care and no licensed therapists. Includes an interview with Dr. Gary Glass, a psychiatrist who feels that programs such as these can be helpful to some young people but pose a serious threat to others. (C: Harold Dow, Erin Moriarty, Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Gavin Boyle - P: Loen Kelley, Tanya Simon, Jay Young) (OAD: 10/15/98 as "Tough Love")

- "Uncommon Sense"- how people's names get on mailing lists (C: Jimmy Tingle)
- 09/07/99 "The Lost Children"- from 1947 to 1967 the British government, in collaboration with churches and charities, came up with a secret plan to relieve the problem of overcrowded children's homes. Thousands of the children were shipped to Australia where, they were told, they would be adopted. Rather than being placed with families, the children were taken to institutions run by the Christian Brothers where they were used as laborers, given inadequate food, and subjected to physical and sexual abuse. Now adults, many of the children have discovered that they were not really orphans but had families who were not able to support them. Margaret Humphreys, an English social worker has founded, The Child Migrant Trust to help them find their parents and their past. (C: Bob Simon - P: Draggan Mihailovich) (OAD: 03/24/99)
- 09/14/99 "The Fugitive"- James Charles Kopp, the anti-abortion protestor allegedly responsible for the death of Dr. Bernard Slepian last year, is still at liberty. 60 MINUTES II (continued)

- 09/21/99 "America's Secret War"- an interview with former U.S. Marine Major Gil Macklin who trained Copes Commandos, the highly specialized group who, since 1992, have been at the front line of the ongoing campaign to end the Colombian drug cartel. The U.S. is on the verge of spending another $1 billion to fight an army of old-line Marxist guerrillas who have gone into the drug trade. (C: Dan Rather - P: George Crile, Necraj Khenilani, Paul Bellinger)
 "Wake Up Call"- last month Buford Furrow was arrested for opening fire in a Los Angeles children's day camp and later killing a postman in what he described as a wake-up call to kill Jews and non-whites. It has since been discovered that authorities in Washington, Furrow's home state, knew that he was contemplating mass murder before the L.A. shootings but failed to keep him in custody. (C: Scott Pelley - P: David Schneider)
 "Donna And Ricardo"- followup to "Donna And Ricardo" (OAD: 60 MINUTES) and "Donna And Ricardo's Baby" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 04/29/90), reports about Donna and Ricardo Thornton, a retarded interracial couple who managed to cope with life outside an institution and to raise a child. The followup consists of a visit with the Thorntons and son Ricky, now a 12-year-old. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Deborah De Luca Sheh)
 "Uncommon Sense"- the evolution debate (C: Jimmy Tingle)
- 09/28/99 "Killing Time"- an interview with Shawn Berry, the third defendant in the dragging death of a black man in Jasper, Texas. Bill King and Russell Brewer, the other two defendants, were tried and sentenced to death. Berry, who faces a similar sentence, claims that he was an unwilling participant in the crime and that fear kept him from trying to stop the murder or going to the police after it occurred. (C: Dan Rather - P: Mary Mapes)
 "The Idol Maker"- report on Lou Pearlman, 45-year-old native New Yorker who has been responsible for creating teen sensations including N'Sync and the Backstreet Boys. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Robert Klein)
