60 MINUTES

- 03/05/00     "The Columbine Effect"- a report on the controversy over the right of disabled children to attend public schools, focusing on Lance Landers, a 16-year-old emotionally disturbed Alabama boy whose violent behavior caused him to be expelled from the entire Alabama school system. His mother is suing to have him re-admitted to public school, claiming that he is a troubled child who needs help and an education. (C: Morley Safer - P: Catherine Olian)
- "Dikembe Mutombo"- a profile of NBA superstar Dikembe Mutombo who is raising money to build a new hospital in his hometown, the Congolese city of Kinshasa, Central Africa. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Harry Radliffe)
- "Who Is Arnon Milchan?"- an interview with Arnon Milchan, an Israeli entrepreneur and recluse who is becoming one of Hollywood's biggest independent film producers. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Leslie Cockburn)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy's Mail" - why he doesn't answer letters
- 03/12/00     "Timothy McVeigh" Pts. I & II- an interview with Timothy McVeigh, who has been sentenced to death for the 1995 bombing of the Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City which killed 168 people and injured more than 600 others. McVeigh talks about his experience in the Persian Gulf War; his disillusionment with the U.S. government; his claim that he didn't receive a fair trial; his relationship with Ted Kaczinski, the Unabomber; and the fact that if his appeal is denied he will face execution. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky)
- "The Bodyguard's Story" Pts. I & II- Trevor Rees-Jones, sole survivor of the car accident that took the lives of Princess Diana and her boyfriend Dodi Al Fayed, tells about the events leading to the crash; the relationship between the princess and Al Fayed; and his decision to write a book called The Bodyguard's Story. Also interviewed with Rees-Jones is Kez Wingfield, the other bodyguard on duty the night of the crash. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Robert Anderson)
- 03/19/00     "Hitler's Pope?"- John Cornwell, author of Hitler's Pope, claims that in an apology issued by Pope John Paul II last week, the Pontiff omitted any mention of Pope Pius XII who, during the Holocaust, did nothing to intervene in the Nazi extermination of Jews and who, for this reason, should not be a candidate for sainthood. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Jeanne Solomon Langley)
- "Women On The Web"- while women's use of the Internet continues to spiral upward, their involvement in designing software and computers for it continues on its downward trend. Includes interviews with: Nancy Evans and Candice Carpenter founders of iVillage.com; Dr. Anita Borg, head of the Institute for Women and Technology at Xerox; and Idit Harel, founder of mamamedia.com. All aim to increase women's involvement. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Evalyn Lee)
- "Ciao Venezia"- a followup to "Ciao Venezia" (OAD: 10/30/88) about the physical deterioration of Venice due to tourism including an interview with Massimo Cacciari, the city's mayor who has launched a campaign to save Venice's art and architecture by discouraging visitors. (C: Morley Safer - P: John Tiffin)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "The Man Who Would Be President" - Andy criticizes the primary election process

03/26/00 "By Faith Alone"- a report on the controversy over an exception written into Medicare legislation that makes members of the Christian Science Church who enter Christian Science sanatoria eligible for benefits. Critics charge that the exception is unconstitutional because the patients, in accordance with their religious beliefs, cannot receive any form of medical care and that it constitutes an official endorsement of healing by faith alone. (C: Morley Safer - P: Alden Bourne)
"Tom Joyner"- an interview with Tom Joyner, a disc jockey radio host whose morning show is heard across the country by more than six and a half people, mostly African American. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Jay Kernis)
"Locked Up For Life?"- the 1996 Immigration Law, designed to crack down on undesirable aliens, imposed mandatory detention and deportation on any immigrant convicted of an aggravated felony. Problems have arisen because under the law, thousands of immigrants, who have completed their sentences, are being held in indefinite detention because their native countries will not take them back. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Census 2000" - Andy fills out the census form
Update: "MTBE" Parts I & II (OAD: 01/16/00)

60 MINUTES II

03/07/00 "Murder In The First Grade"- last week a Michigan first grader shot and killed a classmate. Controversy has arisen over the fate of the six-year-old, who has a history of anti-social behavior and whose father has a criminal record. (C: Scott Pelley - P: David Schneider)
"The Pentagon"- the Pentagon, headquarters of the American military, occupying 34 acres and housing 23,000 workers, has been identified as one of the nation's 'sickest' buildings. Includes an interview with Lee Evey who is in charge of overhauling the structure which is riddled with hazardous materials, including tons of asbestos. (C: David Martin - P: Mary Walsh)
Super Tuesday- coverage of the results of the Super Tuesday presidential primaries including interviews with: Gov. and Mrs. George W. Bush; and with Vice President Al Gore. Also includes brief videotaped concession statement by Sen. Bill Bradley. (C: Dan Rather - P: Tom Anderson, Michael Rosenbaum)

03/14/00 "Mind Of The Assassin" Pt. I - a report on the U.S. Secret Service, focusing its Intelligence Division and its "Exceptional Case Study Project," a research study aimed at stopping presidential assassins before they strike. The aim of the research has been expanded to include spotting people who are planning attacks on schools, churches and offices. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Bill Owens)
"Mind Of The Assassin" Pt. II- a report on the Secret Service's National Threat Assessment Center and its efforts to understand why a child may react with violence and to help school administrators and teachers recognize significant behaviors earlier. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Bill Owens)
"Liar, Liar" - a followup to "Clifford Irving" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 01/26/72), an interview with Clifford Irving who claimed to have written an authentic autobiography of Howard Hughes. The followup consists of an interview with Irving, subsequently convicted of fraud, about the failure of his deception and the time he spent in prison. (C: Wallace - P: Barbara Dury, William Brown)
"Uncommon Sense"- capital punishment (C: Jimmy Tingle)

- 03/21/00      "What Now?"- an interview with Sen. John McCain, almost two weeks after he dropped out of the race for the Republican Presidential nomination, about: whether he will endorse George W. Bush; his relationship with other GOP Senators; and his unwillingness to accept a Vice Presidential nomination. (C: Dan Rather - P: Michael Rosenbaum, Tom Anderson, Shawn Efran)
"Return To The Wild"- a report on the controversy surrounding the release of wild wolves in Arizona's Apache National Forest. Ranchers claim that the wolves pose a threat to their cattle and their families, while environmentalists say that reintroduction of wolves is the only way to preserve them from extinction. (C: Jim Stewart - P: Andrew Wolff)
"Made In Cuba"- a report on the current popularity of Cuban music and 50s-style dance bands, focusing on Fidel Castro's efforts to keep his country's musicians in Cuba by offering them privileges and benefits. Includes an interview with Juan De Marcos Gonzalez who has succeeded in bringing Cuban musicians out of retirement and into the recording studios. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Miriam Weintraub)
- 03/27/00      "The Killing Zone"- the Israeli-occupied portion of Lebanon, established in 1978 as a buffer zone to protect northern Israel, has become the scene of bloody conflict, with random bombings by the Hezbollah, Islamic guerrillas largely controlled by Syria. The Israeli Government has decided to withdraw its soldiers by July, with little hope for peace in the area and an uncertain future for their Lebanese allies. (C: Bob Simon - Randall Joyce)
"Going To Extremes"- BASE (buildings, aerials, spans and earth) jumping, involves leaping off buildings or mountains with a parachute. The sport has thousands of fans despite the incidence of fatal accidents and the fact that it is illegal in many places. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Christine Weicher)
"Buying Judges?"- faced with the added pollution from an additional chemical plant in their area, the people of Convent, Louisiana sought help from Tulane Law School's environmental law clinic. Problems arose when justices in the State Supreme Court, who rely heavily on campaign contributions from big business, began to threaten Tulane with the loss of tax breaks and alumni contributions unless the clinic was cut back. (C: Dan Rather - P: Steve Glauber)
"Uncommon Sense" - people who deserve awards (C: Jimmy Tingle)

60 MINUTES

- 01/02/00 "Need Cash?"- critics say that Florida and a number of other states have, in effect, legalized loan sharking by passing legislation exempting the automobile title lenders from usury laws. As a result people in desperate need of money and without credit, find themselves paying exorbitant interest rates and often having their cars repossessed. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine)
"The Coach"- an interview with NFL coach Bill Parcells. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Robert Anderson)
"His Honor, The Mayor"- an interview with Jerry Brown, the former presidential candidate and California governor, and now the Mayor of Oakland, California. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein)
Andy Rooney Topic: "2000" - Andy is optimistic about the future
- 01/09/00 "Adopt Me"- report on the controversy over "adoption fairs" where child welfare agencies introduce hard-to-place children to prospective parents. Critics say it's a cruel practice; proponents claim that it's a "special needs" child's best chance. (C: Morley Safer - P: Denise Schrier Cetta)
"Denzel"- a profile of Denzel Washington, one of America's top actors who now commands over $10 million per movie. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Ruth Streeter)
"Boris Yeltsin"- a report on the legacy of Russian leader Boris Yeltsin, featuring interviews with Leon Aron, author of a new biography of Yeltsin and David Remnick, editor of The New Yorker magazine, author of two books on Russia and, for four years, Washington Post Moscow correspondent. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Movie Reviews" - film critics

- 01/16/00     "MTBE" Part I & II - ten years ago Congress enacted legislation mandating that oil companies put the chemical MTBE (Methyl Tertiary Butyl Ether) in gasoline to make it burn cleaner. Problems have arisen because the chemical has seeped into ground water and caused widespread contamination of drinking supplies. Despite potential litigation against oil companies that could run into billions of dollars, the federal government still knows little about the extent of the problem or its health consequences. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Graham Messick)
"Ben Zander"- an interview with Ben Zander, conductor of the Boston Philharmonic Orchestra who is also a motivational speaker. (C: Morley Safer - P: Deirdre Naphin)
Andy Rooney Topic: "The Moral Of The Story" - what really happens
- 01/23/00     "Southern Exposure"- a class action lawsuit accuses the management of the Savannah River Site, a giant federal nuclear complex in South Carolina, of discriminating against blacks not only in hiring and promotions but for allegedly putting them in jobs that exposed them to more radiation than white workers. Report includes interviews with Ivan Smith, attorney for the workers and Joseph Buggy, president of Savannah River (C: Mike Wallace - P: Walt Bogdanich)
"Come Dancing"- competitive ballroom dancing has been an institution on British television for decades. Now there a movement afoot to make it an Olympic event. (C: Morley Safer - P: John Tiffin)
"Kevin Mitnick, Cyber-Thief"- once the FBI's most wanted computer criminal, Kevin Mitnick stole corporate secrets by hacking his way into the computer systems of the world's biggest corporations. Mitnick claims that he isn't a thief but an electronic joyrider who was guilty of invasion of privacy but who made no personal gain from his transgression. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutsky)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Symbols" - Andy doesn't think the Confederate flag should be flown over the capitol of South Carolina
- 01/30/00     "Carol Burnett"- an interview with actress/comedian Carol Burnett (C: Mike Wallace - P: Maurice Murad) (OAD: 11/21/99)
"Big Man, Big Voice"- an interview with Thomas Quasthoff, a German-born victim of thalidomide who has been able to successfully pursue a singing career despite his deformities (C: Ed Bradley - P: Jeanne Solomon Langley) (OAD: 11/02/97)
"The Diva Next Door"- an interview with opera star Renee Fleming. (C: Morley Safer - P: Steven Reiner) (OAD: 04/18/99)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Car Ads"- unrealistic scenes in commercials (OAD: 10/26/97)

60 MINUTES II

- 01/04/00     "State Of Neglect"- Fran Peterson, a Georgia woman, was charged with reckless conduct in the death of her five-year-old foster child, Terrell. Georgia's Department of Family Services not only ignored evidence that the child was being abused, but tried to cover up departmental mismanagement of the case. Don Keenan, an Atlanta lawyer, is suing the state in Terrell's name. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Janet Klein)
"Rudy"- an interview with Mayor Rudolph Giuliani of New York City who is expected to run for the U.S. Senate. (C: Dan Rather - P: Linda Martin)
"Richard The Lionhearted"- a followup to "Richard The Lionhearted" (OAD 60 MINUTES 11/29/92), a profile of Richard Branson, British entrepreneur, adventurer and high school dropout. The followup consists of an interview with Branson, now 48. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Gail Eisen)

- 01/11/00     "Trump"- an interview with millionaire businessman Donald Trump who now aspires to be President of the U.S. (C: Dan Rather - P: Steve Glauber)
"Doris & Dorothy"- Doris Wyne, who suffers from Alzheimer's and her twin sister, Dorothy who does not have the disease, are part of a Duke University study on memory and aging in twins. Researchers at Duke study identical twins because they have identical genes and finding individual differences in their lives might help discover what can trigger the onset of Alzheimer's disease or help to stave it off. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Lisa Cohen)
"The Weapon That Failed"- the AGM-142, an Israeli-produced air-to-ground missile, was first used in combat during the war in Kosovo. Despite its high cost and inaccuracy, the weapon is still being produced. Includes interviews with retired General Buster Glosson, former commander of Air Force operations and former Rep. Charlie Wilson, now a lobbyist representing Rafael, the Israeli firm that makes the AGM-142. (C: David Martin - P: Mary Walsh)
"Uncommon Sense"- Donald Trump as a presidential candidate (C: Jimmy Tingle)
Update: "State of Neglect" OAD: 01/04/00
- 01/18/00     "Tobacco's Other Secret"- an interview with Les Thompson, a former salesman for the R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company who is facing a six-year prison term for illegally smuggling cigarettes into Canada. Thompson claims that he is being made a scapegoat and that the R.J. Reynolds was not only aware of, but actually set up the smuggling operation to avoid paying import taxes. He is currently cooperating with criminal investigations in the U.S. and Canada. (C: Scott Pelley - P: David Schneider, Margaret Ebrahim)
"A Different Kind of Family"- a profile of singer Melissa Etheridge, who with her companion, filmmaker Julie Cypher, is raising two children fathered through artificial insemination by rock legend David Crosby. (C: Charlie Rose - P: John Hamlin)
"Itzhak"- a followup to "Itzhak" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 12/21/80), a profile of violinist Itzhak Perlman. The followup consists of an interview with Perlman who has undertaken another career as a conductor and, with his wife Toby, is teaching young people at a summer music camp. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Barbara Dury, Nancy Lea)
"Uncommon Sense"- Jimmy's thoughts about Martin Luther King (C: Jimmy Tingle)
- 01/25/00     "What Really Happened At Waco"- an investigation into what actually happened in Waco, Texas during a 1993 raid on the Branch Davidian compound by government agents. Today, the confrontation is the subject of two congressional investigations, an independent counsel and a multi-million dollar law suit against the government. Recent evidence seems to indicate that the U.S. Government is in part to blame for the ensuing disaster. (C: Dan Rather - P: Christopher Martin)
"The Champion"- an interview with 28-year-old tennis star Pete Sampras. (C: Charlie Rose - P: Phil Shimkin)
"The Children Under The Streets"- a report on the homeless children of Ulaanbatar, Outer Mongolia, many of whom seek refuge in sewer pipes that supply steam to the city. Includes interviews with Christina Noble, an Irish woman who has set up a foundation to help the street children and Douglas Gardner, the UN representative in Mongolia. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Rob Wallace)
"Uncommon Sense"- weather reports: wind chill factor (C: Jimmy Tingle)

01/30/00 "Reluctant Star"- an interview with Oscar-winning actress Jodie Foster about her life, including John Hinckley's obsession with her that led to his assassination attempt on President Ronald Reagan, her career and single motherhood. (C: Charlie Rose - P: Rob Wallace) (OAD: 12/07/99)
"Leading Lady"- a profile of Pat Summitt, head coach of the University of Tennessee women's basketball team. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Andrew Wolff) (OAD: 03/17/99)
"Martha Stewart"- a followup to "Martha Stewart" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 12/03/95), an interview with Martha Stewart who dispenses information on the home and garden through her magazine and syndicated television series. The followup consists of an interview with Ms. Stewart, whose media empire is now worth billions. (C: Morley Safer - P: Gail Eisen) (OAD: 11/23/99)

48 HOURS

01/06/00 "Family Feuds"- profiles a diverse group of family members from across the U.S. who have been involved in feuds with their relations. Includes reports on: the Tinney family whose Newport home, Belcourt Castle, is the focus of a dispute involving Kevin Koellisch, a 37-year-old plumber who was adopted by 80-year-old matriarch Ruth Tinney; a barbecue restaurant in Lockhart, Texas owned by Rick Schmidt whose landlord and sister, Nina, raised his rent 126 percent; comedian and Family Feud host Louie Anderson, the most successful of eleven siblings, who has produced a documentary about his family called "Complicated Laughter"; and the Kirk brothers, loggers in Unity, Maine who were involved in a bitter dispute over a piece of equipment called a skidder. (C: Susan Spencer, Harold Dow, Bernard Goldberg, Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Reid Collins, Jr. - P: Tom Forman, Dianne M. Ronnau, Mary Noonan Robichaux)

01/13/00 "Killer In The Family"- The broadcast presents accounts of people who suffer the reality that a close relative has committed murder and endure the struggle between family ties and civic responsibility. Includes reports on: Molly McIntyre, a police officer whose son Patrick strangled a woman and then set fire to her apartment to destroy evidence; Ken and Lois Robison, two Texas schoolteachers whose son Larry murdered five people and now is scheduled for execution; and David Kaczynski, who turned in his brother Ted, the Unabomber, who was responsible for a series of bombings that killed three people and injured 23 more. David, a social worker, and his wife Linda, a college professor, are struggling to somehow right his brother's wrongs. (C: Susan Spencer, Bill Lagattuta, Troy Roberts -Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Lisa Freed, Gail Zimmerman)

01/20/00 "Weighing The Risks"- surveys the latest weight loss techniques for dieters who are obese or consider themselves to be obese, including reports on: the Fobi pouch operation, a controversial surgical procedure that drastically reduces the size of the stomach; Ray Audette who has written a book called NeanderThin about a new approach to high-protein diets; Xenical, a drug that doesn't curb a dieter's appetite but blocks the digestion of 30% percent of fat eaten; and a program at Louisiana State University Hospital for obese children and their families. (C: Bill Lagattuta, Peter Van Sant, Susan Spencer, Troy Roberts - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Paul F. Ryan, Dianne M. Ronnau, Mary Noonan Robichaux)

60 MINUTES

- 02/06/00     "Ethnic Profiling"- Adam Ciralsky, a 28-year-old lawyer with the CIA claims he was suspended because he is a religious Jew. The agency claims that his strong ties to Israel made him an attractive target to Israeli intelligence. Ciralsky, who is considering filing a lawsuit against the CIA, says that his only goal is to clear his record. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Richard Bonin)
"Gross National Happiness"- the simple pursuit of happiness through the Buddhist religion is the way of life in the tiny kingdom of Bhutan. To date the country has resisted the incursion of tourism and some Bhutans view television, which has only recently come to the country, as a serious threat to its otherworldly way of living. (C: Morley Safer - P: Steven Reiner)
"The Court Martial of Major Bates"- Air Force Major Sonnie Bates and hundreds of other servicemen believe the military's anthrax vaccine makes people sick. Bates faces a court martial for refusing a direct order to take the vaccine and could face up to five years in prison. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Richard Greenberg)

Andy Rooney Topic: "The Presidential Press Conference"- how presidents have avoided answering questions

02/27/00     "Echelon"- Echelon, a secret global surveillance network run by the National Security Agency and four English-speaking allies -- Canada, Great Britain, Australia and New Zealand -- was set up to eavesdrop on enemies of the state -- foreign countries, terrorist groups and drug cartels. Questions have arisen over the extent and use of the information gathered by Echelon and whether technology for a system for scrambling transmissions called encryption will fall into the wrong hands. (C: Steve Kraft - P: Peter Klein)
"Scam"- a report on John Drewe, a British con man who paid John Myatt, a struggling artist, to copy paintings by famous painters. Drewe then created provenances for the paintings which were sold to supposedly knowledgeable dealers and galleries for large sums of money. (C: Morley Safer - P: John Tiffin)
"King Coal"- a report on a law suit arising from "mountain top removal," a controversial method of coal mining in West Virginia. Residents claim that the blasts involved have ruined their drinking water and that the dust created will cause them serious health problems. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Scott Bronstein)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy Rates the Candidates"- ratings for the presidential candidates

60 MINUTES II

02/01/00     "The Spy Game"- a report on how Stanislav Gusev, a Russian spy, managed to monitor a listening device placed in an office in the U.S. State Department. Gusev, who had come to the U.S. as a diplomat assigned to the Russian Embassy, was spotted by FBI agents when he aroused their suspicions by hanging around the State Department. (C: Jim Stewart - P: Andy Wolff)
"Every 26 Seconds"- in the six years since the end of apartheid in South Africa violent crime is rampant. Statistics show a dramatic rise in the number of rapes, with many going unreported. Includes interviews with Charlene Smith, a journalist who published a report of her own rape and Namfundo Walaza, a psychologist who counsels rape victims. (C: Bob Simon - P: Randall Joyce)
New Hampshire Primary- Report on the New Hampshire presidential primary where John McCain has beaten George Bush in the Republican primary and on the Democratic side Vice President Gore has emerged as the winner with a small margin over Bill Bradley. Includes interviews with Gov. Bush and former Senator McCain, (C: Dan Rather, Bob Schieffer)

02/08/00     "The Missiliers" Pts. I & II- despite the fact that the Cold War is over, tension between the U.S. and Russia is greater than ever. Both countries still maintain large arsenals of nuclear weapons which are continually tested and could be launched at a moment's notice. Includes an interview with General Eugene Habiger (ret.), former commander in chief of all U.S. nuclear forces, who attempted unsuccessfully to forge a mutual disarmament agreement with Russia. (C: Dan Rather - P: George Crile, Neeraj Khehlani)
"The Ferry Is Coming"- a report on the controversy in Alabama concerning the return of ferry service between the largely black town of Gee's Bend and the city of Camden. Newspaper owner and former segregationist Hollis Curl claims that it will make the black community less isolated. Critics claim that his motives are purely political. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Joel Bernstein)
"Uncommon Sense"- fund-raising (C: Jimmy Tingle)

- 02/15/00      "Semper Fidelis"- in 1997 two Marines, Major Michael Browne and Lt. Robert Straw, were killed when a Cobra helicopter crashed during a non-combat mission. The fliers' families filed a lawsuit against Bell Helicopter Textron, the aircraft's manufacturer, saying that it was unfit to fly. The Marine corps has refused to take any action against Bell and has brought its investigation to a halt. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Nancy Duffy)
- ".Com Kids"- a look at the under-35 businessmen whose internet companies have made them multi-millionaires. Includes an interview with Jason Calacanis, a magazine editor who is the chronicler of these companies. (C: Bob Simon - Tom Anderson, Neeraj Khemlani)
- "What Price Genius?"- a followup to "What Price Genius?" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 03/15/87) a report on Adragon DeMello, a 10-year-old college sophomore. The followup consists of an interview with Demello who is now 23-years-old. (C: Morley Safer - P: Gail Eisen)
- "Uncommon Sense"- Valentine's Day gifts lead to other events. (C: Jimmy Tingle)
- 02/22/00      "Your Doctor's Bonus"- a report on a misdiagnosis that almost cost the life of Cindy Herdrick, an Illinois woman, and charges that HMOs are paying doctors bonuses for prescribing less costly treatment for patients. The issue of bonuses for inferior care is at the core of a case scheduled to be heard by the Supreme Court tomorrow. Also at issue are the rights of patients to sue HMOs for malpractice or mistakes. (C: Dan Rather - P: Tom Anderson)
- "Murder In Vacaville"- Chad O'Connell admitted to the fatal stabbing of Jerry Alvarez English during a 1997 street fight in Vacaville, California. O'Connell was let off on probation. David Moreno and Justin Pacheco were charged with murder under an obscure law known as the provocative act rule. More than two years later, amid charges that their arrest was racially motivated, the teenagers were tried and found innocent. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael Rosenbaum, Jill Landes)
- "Carlos Santana"- an interview with Carlos Santana whose album, "Supernatural," is up for 11 Grammys. (C: Charlie Rose - P: John Hamlin)
- "Uncommon Sense"- wage reform (C: Jimmy Tingle)
- 02/29/00      "The HMO War"- an interview with Dickie Scruggs, the lawyer best known for his victory over the tobacco industry, who now has taken on the country's largest HMOs claiming they are guilty of fraud and racketeering because they put profits before patients. Scruggs has filed a law suit on behalf of the 32 million people represented by these companies. (C: Dan Rather - P: Mary Mapes)
- "Too Good For Hollywood"- a profile of filmmaker Errol Morris whose documentaries have no sets, no actors, no scripts but focus on real people who tell their own stories. (C: Scott Pelley - P: David Schneider)
- "Amy's Story"- a followup to "Amy's Story" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 01/17/99), a report on the murder of Amy Biehl, a California woman who was murdered by a mob of black militants whose cause she had espoused. The followup consists of an interview Amy's parents who have taken up her crusade and who have forgiven their daughter's killers. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Deborah DeLuca Sheh)
- "Uncommon Sense"- bottled water (C: Jimmy Tingle)

48 HOURS

- 02/03/00      "Murder In L.A." (48 HOURS MYSTERIES)- focuses on two California couples: the Adairs and the Shapiros. Mindy Shapiro discovered that her husband Michael, an orthopedic surgeon, was having an affair with Jeanie Adair, and in 1996, after 11 years of marriage, the couple opted for divorce. In November of that year Jeanie Adair's husband Robert was bludgeoned to death and each woman accused the other of murder. Jeanie Adair was tried for the crime and found innocent by a jury. To date the murder of Robert Adair has not been solved. (C: Bill Lagatutta - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Alec Sirken, Susan Wiggins Moore, Peter Henderson, Avi Cohen)
- 02/10/00      "The Perfect Child" (48 HOURS INVESTIGATION)- focuses on Americans who adopt children from Russia and the Frank Foundation, an adoption agency, charged with withholding crucial information about the children's physical and psychiatric problems. Includes reports on: an Atlanta couple who adopted two Russian children, one of whom was suffering from severe psychiatric problems; Julie and Joe Ferenc, a New Jersey couple who adopted a boy who, they later discovered, was suffering from microcephaly, a birth defect that stops the brain from growing normally; and Betty and Mike Dagen, a couple who have adopted three hard-to-place children including two abandoned Russian girls with disabilities. (C: Troy Roberts, Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Patti Aronofsky, Lisa Freed)
- 02/14/00      "Matchmaker"- focuses on Americans who are using the Internet in search of romance, including reports on: Christine Ledoux and Della Ivy-Lavan, two women who used online dating services; Dan McGovern and Ed Lee, who went on a matchmaking tour of Russia organized by a company called European Connections; Maple Hughes, a Texas oil man who went to Odessa, Ukraine to find a wife and was murdered, his daughter believes, by the woman he married there. (C: Harold Dow, Troy Roberts, Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Paul LaRosa, Tanya Simon, Josh Yager)
- 02/17/00      "Daddy's Little Girl" (48 HOURS MYSTERIES)- at 16 Mindy Berenyi, an Antwerp, Ohio girl claiming to be a victim of physical and psychological abuse, was tried for the murder of her father and, having agreed to a plea bargain, was sentenced to prison. Two years ago the Ohio courts began recognizing battered child syndrome as permissible grounds for defense in a murder case. Mindy opted for a trial and, having been found guilty of aggravated murder, was sentenced to life in prison. She is currently appealing her conviction. (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Katherine Davis)
- 02/24/00      "Panic"- focuses on panic disorder, which affects at least three million Americans whose symptoms are sometimes severe enough to disrupt their lives. Includes reports on: Theresa Murphy and Chad Dyer two young adults whose lives were transformed when they underwent an intensive therapy called Interceptive Exposure at Boston University's Center for Anxiety and Related Disorders; Micky Niego, who trains emotional support dogs for people with panic disorder; entertainer Donny Osmond, who was treated successfully for social anxiety disorder; and Michael Moushon, a college student who is controlling his panic attacks with medication. (C: Peter Van Sant, Richard Schlesinger, Harold Dow - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Claire Friedland, Sophia M. Kim, Jay Young, Deirdre Cohen)
