60 MINUTES

- 06/04/00 "The Defector"- Ahmad Behbahani, an Iranian defector, currently being held in a refugee camp in Turkey, insists that Iran, not Libya, plotted the bombing of Pan Am 103 and was responsible for blowing up Khobar Towers, a U.S. military housing complex in Saudi Arabia, as well as other acts of terrorism. Includes interviews with 60 MINUTES associate producer Roya Hakakian who managed to enter the refugee camp and speak to Benbahani and Robert Baer, a terrorism expert formerly with the CIA, who debriefed him using a cell phone. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Richard Bonin)
- "The Court Martial of Major Bates"- Air Force Major Sonnie Bates and hundreds of other servicemen believe the military's anthrax vaccine makes people sick. Bates faces a court martial for refusing a direct order to take the vaccine and could face up to five years in prison. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Richard Greenberg) (OAD: 02/06/00)
- "The Year Of The Woman"- a report on the low status of women in India where female fetuses are routinely aborted and wives are burnt alive if their dowries are not large enough. (C: Morley Safer - P: John Tiffin) (OAD: 01/24/93)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Patient Beware" - warnings on over-the-counter medication (OAD: 11/28/99)
- 06/11/00 "On Trial For Murder"- a report on the controversy surrounding Nathaniel Abraham, a 13-year-old Michigan boy being tried as an adult for the murder, committed as an 11-year-old, of 18-year-old Ronnie Greene. Prosecutors say that Nathaniel is a cold-blooded assassin; if convicted he could be, under Michigan law, sentenced to life without parole. His defenders claim that the shooting was accidental and that he is too young to plan a murder or to understand the charges against him. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky) (OAD: 11/07/99)
- "Knee Deep In Fraud"- Medi-Cal, California's health care system, covers 5 million people, most of them poor and elderly. Problems have arisen because of widespread fraud involving the bogus sale of medical supplies and the filing of claims for services that have never been rendered. State authorities were aware of the abuse but until recently little was done to halt it. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Maurice Murad) (OAD: 10/24/99)
- "The Forgotten Hostage"- report on Israeli Air Force Navigator Ron Arad, who was captured in 1986 by Lebanese guerrillas, and Abdul-Karim Obeid, a Hezbollah Sheik that Israel abducted in 1989 in hopes of arranging a swap (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman) (OAD: 12/06/92)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Old Clothes" - Andy goes through his closet (OAD: 05/16/99)
- 06/18/00 "Doing The Right Thing?"- a report on a court case filed against the Los Angeles Police by the family of Emil Matasareanu, a bank robber. They claim that Matasareanu, wounded during an armed robbery during which 18 people were wounded, was allowed to bleed to death. Police Officers who were at the scene said that medical help was unavailable and that they did their best to save the man's life. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Mary Murphy) (OAD: 10/10/99)
- "Ben Zander"- an interview with Ben Zander, conductor of the Boston Philharmonic Orchestra who is also a motivational speaker. (C: Morley Safer - P: Deirdre Naphin) (OAD: 01/16/00)
- "Colombia's Andres Pastrana"- an interview with President Andres Pastrana of Colombia who has asked the U.S. for $3 billion in aid to help his army stop the flow of illegal drugs, a large portion of which are destined for American consumers. Pastrana's problem is complex because, to achieve his goal, he must first reconcile two warring factions in his country. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Robert Anderson) (OAD: 12/05/99)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "All This Spare Change" - the new 'golden dollar' coin (OAD: 02/13/00)

06/25/00 "Don't Ask, Don't Tell"- the recent murder of Barry Winchell, a gay soldier, is driving home a point that, 'don't ask, don't tell,' the U.S. military's policy regarding homosexual servicemen, is a failure. Includes interviews with Lt. Col. Robert Maginnes who helped write the policy and now admits that it is unfair; and Army Reserve Lt. Steve May, a homosexual who is also a state representative in Arizona. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky) (OAD: 12/12/99)

"Cruising For Fun And Profit"- a report on cruise lines catering to U.S. customers and making billions in tax-free dollars because the ships and their owners are registered in countries that do not impose a corporate income tax. Includes interviews with Congress- men Peter DeFazio and Gene Taylor of the House Transportation Committee which is looking into the situation. (C: Morley Safer - P: Deirdre Naphin) (OAD: 10/24/99)

"Prison, Inc."- UNICOR, a program run by the Federal Bureau of Prisons has set up inmate-operated factories producing a wide variety of products, ranging from towels to bullet proof vests for police, with annual sales approaching $500 million. Critics complain that cheap prison labor is undercutting private industry and that UNICOR is given preferential treatment in the awarding of government contracts (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Richard Bonin) (OAD: 10/20/96)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Labels" - ingredients in food (OAD: 01/24/99)

48 HOURS

06/01/00 "That's My Child"- investigates some unusual cases in which parents are trying to assert their inherent rights including reports on: a groundbreaking custody battle involving Mildred Barrett, a woman who gave birth to a baby through in vitro fertilization using stored frozen embryos, created from her ova and sperm donated by Don McGill, her former husband; Amanda Kollé, a Carnegie, Pennsylvania woman whose baby was given up for adoption without her knowledge or consent; Leanoire Weigner, a Beaver County, Pennsylvania woman who was pressured into signing away her parental rights following unfounded charges of neglect and abuse. (C: Erin Moriarty, Bernard Goldberg - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Mary Noonan Robichaux)

06/05/00 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "Deadly Secret"- a behind-the-scenes look at the Kalamazoo, Michigan's cold case unit's investigation of the September 1994 disappearance of Khristine Smith, a seemingly happy wife and mother. Russ Smith, her husband, claimed that Khristine had abandoned him and their daughter Candace for another man. With no body and little evidence, Det. Dan Westin, head of the cold case unit, was finally able to wear Smith down to the point where he confessed to his crime. A court convicted him of murder and he was sentenced to 35 to 70 years in prison. (C: Harold Dow - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Loen Kelley, Mead Stone) (OAD: 10/28/99)

06/08/00 "Price of Perfection"- examines the consequences of the struggle to be physically perfect. Includes interviews with: 16-year-old Alicia Mitchell, who is suffering from anorexia and bulimia; Dr. Edward Demancus, a plastic surgeon whose patients include an increasing number of teenagers; psychologist Lilli Friedland; Dr. Harry Glassman, a Beverly Hills plastic surgeon who questions the safety of some cosmetic procedures on patients under the age of 18; Tim Costello and David Balfour who suffer from BDD (body dysmorphic disorder); and Rob Ashton, a bodybuilder whose obsession with fitness has actually damaged his body (C: Cynthia Bowers, Troy Roberts, Bill Lagattuta - Sr. P: Jim Murphy - P: Anthony Batson, Peter Henderson, Sophia Kim, Diane Ronnau) (OAD: 05/27/99)

- 06/10/00 "Fatal Attraction"- Thomas Capano was a successful Delaware lawyer who managed to live a double life, appearing to be a devoted family man while having affairs with a number of women. When Anne Marie Fahey, one of these women, mysteriously disappeared in June 1996, police were at first stumped. Finally evidence led to Capano, who apparently killed Anne Marie when she tried to break off their relationship. Capano was subsequently tried for murder and given the death penalty. Broadcast includes an interview with Ann Rule, best-selling author of And Never Let Her Go, a novel about the murder. (C: Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Anthony Batson, Peter Henderson) (OAD: 10/14/99)
- 06/12/00 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "Why Did Josh Kill?"- Last November, eight-year-old Maddie Clifton of Jacksonville, Florida went outside to play and never came back. Seven days later a city-wide search led to the home of Josh Phillips, a 14-year-old neighbor, where Maddie's body was found under the boy's water bed. The teen-ager confessed to the killing and was brought to trial, found guilty of first degree murder and sentenced to life in prison without parole. It was discovered that the boy had a brain lesion and that he was viewing pornographic material before he committed the crime, facts that might have been causative but were not admissible as evidence in court. (C: Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Loen Kelley) (OAD: 10/07/99)
- 06/15/00 "Living Better Longer"- 48 HOURS examines the lengths to which people will go to feel and look younger including reports on: the 59-year-old actor Nick Nolte's controversial and cutting-edge dietary regimen; the impact of social contacts on the aging, and Marie Massa, who runs Introductions III, a matchmaking service that caters to older people; syndicated talk show host Dr. Dean Edell, who talks about the possible danger involved in taking over-the-counter herbal supplements; Dr. Linda Bach, who attended medical school at 45 and now, at 52, is the oldest resident at Jackson Memorial Hospital in Miami, Florida; Dr. Leila Denmark, who is still practicing medicine at 102; Earth Kitt, the 73-year-old entertainer who still continues to tour the country with her cabaret show. (C: Peter Van Sant, Russ Mitchell, Erin Moriarty, Susan Spencer, Harold Dow - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Clare Friedland, Josh Gelman, Cassandra Marshall, Jay Young)
- 06/17/00 (48 HOURS MYSTERY) "The Imposter"- profiles elusive con man David Pecard, who has taken on more than 20 identities throughout his life of crime. Pecard has infiltrated police departments and top military posts, put criminals behind bars and even posed as an emergency room technician. He has also married six times and fathered at least nine children. Finally arrested and imprisoned for felony, fraud, sexual abuse and desertion from the military, Pecard charged that his civil rights were violated by the Maricopa County Arizona Sheriff's Department. The case against Pecard was dropped and, having acquired a correspondence school law degree, he is suing Sheriff Joe Arpaio and the Sheriff's Department for $6 million. (C: Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Abra Potkin) (OAD: 11/11/99)

- 06/19/00 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "The Confession"- report on the murder, last year, of 12-year-old Stephanie Crowe of Escondido, California. The girl's 14-year-old brother Michael, and his two friends confessed to the killing. Mary Ellen Attridge, their attorney, claims that the confessions were false, the results of police coercion, focusing her case on Richard Tuite, a mentally ill transient seen in the neighborhood the night of the murder. DNA testing of Tuite's sweatshirt revealed Stephanie's blood, and charges against the boys have been dropped for now but could be refiled at any time. The Crowes have filed a civil lawsuit alleging police interrogators and the prosecutor violated the family's civil rights. (C: Bill Lagattuta - Sr. P: Reid Collins, Jr. - P: Katie Boyle, Katherine Davis, Jay Young) (OAD: 05/06/99)
- 06/22/00 "The Class of 2000"- the 10th and final primetime special of the four-year project focusing on the results of CBS News polls' data on graduating high school students' views on race, violence, sex, technology and their futures; and including revisits with students from four years of reports. (C: Susan Spencer, Richard Schlesinger, Peter Van Sant, Bernard Goldberg - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Gordon Rothman, Taigi Smith, Josh Yager, Diane M. Ronnau, Alec Sirken, Susan Wiggins Moore, Mary Noonan Robichaux)
- 06/24/00 "Multiple Choice"- focuses on the explosion of multiple births throughout the United States and the formidable challenges of reproductive technology that are affecting the population, including reports on: Dr. John Elliott of Good Samaritan Hospital in Phoenix, who uses a highly controversial group of drugs called tocolytics to prolong pregnancy; Pam and Dan Pisner, who talk about the problems and joys involved in raising quintuplets; identical twins who were raised apart but still show amazing similarities; identical twins who were raised together but took radically different paths in life; and 48 HOURS Correspondent Erin Moriarty and her sister Sheila who discover that they are not identical but fraternal twins. (C: Sharyl Attkisson, Harold Dow, Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Reid Collins, Jr., Al Briganti - P: Sophia M. Kim, Marc B. Goldbaum, Tom Forman) (OAD: 07/08/99)
- 06/26/00 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "Ghosts of Mississippi"- a report on the investigation of a string of unsolved homicides in Columbus, Mississippi. 48 HOURS has been following the mystery since the end of 1998 when five elderly residents, all living within a mile of each other, were killed within 18 months. With no apparent motive or forced entry associated with the crimes, police say, a terrified community believes a serial killer is on the loose. To complicate the situation the town's police chief was imprisoned for embezzlement. His successor is still trying, with little success, to solve the killings. (C: Harold Dow - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Chuck Stevenson, Linda Kim)
- 06/29/00 "The Sixth Sense"- explores the world of the paranormal including reports on: George Anderson, a medium who claims that he can contact the dead; Joe McMoneagle, a psychic who run a private consulting business; Dr. Brian Weiss, a psychiatrist who hypnotizes people as part of regression therapy; Annette Martin, a psychic who specializes in finding missing persons; and Leland French, owner of Historic McRaven House which he claims is haunted. (C: Troy Roberts, Harold Dow, Bernard Goldberg, Bill Lagattuta, Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Reid Collins, Jr. - P: Mary Noonan Robichaux, Chuck Stevenson, Diane Ronau, Alec Sirken, Linda Kim) (OAD: 08/05/99 as "The World Beyond")

60 MINUTES II

- 06/06/00 "The Buyer's Bible"- since 1936 Consumer Reports magazine has been telling readers what products to buy and which to avoid. The magazine claims that it simply giving consumers information they need to make a good choice. Two car companies, Isuzu and Suzuki, are suing the publication alleging that its tests are unscientific and subjective. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Miriam Weintraub) (OAD: 11/30/99)
"Bill Gates"- an interview with Microsoft Chairman Bill Gates following a federal judge's decision that his company is a monopoly that uses its power to stifle competition at the expense of consumers. Gates talks about his drive to improve the product, his childhood, his marriage and his desire to share his wealth. (C: Charlie Rose - P: John Hamlin, Phil Shimkin) (OAD: 11/09/99)
"State Of Mind"- Dr. Antonio Damasio, a neuroscientist at the University of Iowa Health Care Center, has made significant discoveries relating to brain damage and the resultant loss of memory. Report includes interviews with several of his patients. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Harry Moses) (OAD: 11/02/99)
"Uncommon Sense"- Jimmy's thoughts on graduation (C: Jimmy Tingle)
- 06/13/00 PREEMPTION
- 06/20/00 "Doris & Dorothy"- Doris Wyne, who suffers from Alzheimer's and her twin sister, Dorothy who does not have the disease, are part of a Duke University study on memory and aging in twins. Researchers at Duke study identical twins because they have identical genes and finding individual differences in their lives might help discover what can trigger the onset of Alzheimer's disease or help to stave it off. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Lisa Cohen) (OAD: 01/11/00)
"Your Doctor's Bonus"- a report on a misdiagnosis that almost cost the life of Cindy Herdrick, an Illinois woman, and charges that HMOs are paying doctors bonuses for prescribing less costly treatment for patients. The issue of bonuses for inferior care is at the core of a case scheduled to be heard by the Supreme Court tomorrow. Also at issue are the rights of patients to sue HMOs for malpractice or mistakes. (C: Dan Rather - P: Tom Anderson) (OAD: 02/22/00)
"Martha Stewart"- a followup to "Martha Stewart" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 12/03/95), an interview with Martha Stewart who dispenses information on the home and garden through her magazine and syndicated television series. The followup consists of an interview with Ms. Stewart, whose media empire is now worth billions. (C: Morley Safer - P: Gail Eisen) (OAD: 11/23/99)
- 06/27/00 "Death By Denial"- while new drug treatments hold promise for AIDS patients in the West, it is another story in Africa - one of shocking ignorance, denial and indifference that is costing tens of millions of lives and that now threatens to wipe out a generation of young Africans. 60 MINUTES II explores how this tragedy was allowed to happen and what the consequences could be for the rest of the world. The report takes viewers to three key countries in Africa - South Africa, Zimbabwe and Uganda - and reveals three very different ways these nations are confronting the most harrowing epidemic since the Black Plague. (C: Ed Bradley - P: David Gelber, Helen Malmgren)

60 MINUTES

- 04/02/00
- "Broken Promises"- a report on charges by American Indians that the U.S. government has mishandled records so badly that they have no way of checking on whether they are receiving adequate payment for resources like oil and timber taken from their lands. Includes interviews with Eloise Cobell, a member of the Blackfeet tribe who has filed a lawsuit against the Department of the Interior and the U.S. Treasury; and Sen. John McCain (R., Ariz.), a member of the Indian Affairs Committee (C: Mike Wallace - P: Paul Gallagher)
- "Queen Rania"- an interview with Queen Rania, wife of King Abdullah of Jordan. (C: Christiane Amanpour - P: Andrew Tkach)
- "Eric Clapton"- an interview with rock legend Eric Clapton who, having conquered his own addiction, has built Crossroads, a drug and alcohol treatment center on the Caribbean island of Antigua. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Amy Cunningham Atkinson)
- Andy Rooney Topic: the 10 Commandments

- 04/09/00 "Cyber War"- U.S. Government officials have expressed concern that foreign cyberterrorists could use the Internet to attack the computers running the country's infrastructure -- the power grids, water systems, banks, etc. that keep the country running. Includes an interview with Jeff Fay, a hacker working for Infrastructure Defense, an adviser to the National Security Agency, who claims that, despite awareness of the problem, U.S. computer networks are more at risk than ever. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Leslie Cockburn)
- "Addicted To Orchids"- a report on people who are addicted to breeding and growing orchids, including interviews with several of growers and with Eric Hansen, author of Orchid Fever. (Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman)
- "The Voice Of The Farmer"- the American Farm Bureau, a non-profit, tax exempt agency founded in the early 1900s, claims that its mission is to help small family farmers. These same family farmers, who have over the years been supporting the agency with their dues, charge that the Farm Bureau is instead supporting the very agribusiness giants that are running them out of business. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Walt Bogdanich)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Wrestling" - Andy wonders why something so fake can be so popular
- 04/16/00 "Eliau's Father"- an interview with Juan Miguel Gonzalez, who talks about his efforts to be reunited his son, Elian, a survivor of an attempt to go by boat from Cuba to Miami in which his mother lost her life. Also includes an interview with writer Ann Louise Bardach, who spent time with the Gonzalez family in Cuba. (C: Dan Rather - P: Tom Anderson)
- "The Power of Positive Speaking"- a report on the current popularity of motivational speakers and the people who spend large sums of money to hear them. Includes interviews with Peter Lowe, Zig Ziglar and George Campbell, who have earned millions telling people how to be successful. (C: Morley Safer - P: Catherine Olian)
- "Laundering Drug Money?"- a report on former U.S. Customs agent Bill Gately and Operation Casablanca, an undercover investigation run by Mexico and the U.S. that proved that some of the biggest banks in Mexico were helping the drug cartels launder drug profits. Gately claims that, despite the existence of evidence implicating Mexico's secretary of defense, his superiors closed down the investigation. (C: Ed Bradley - P: David Gelber)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Eliou Gonzalez" - the boy should be returned to his father.
- 04/23/00 "A Different Kind of Governor"- an interview with Governor Gary Johnson of New Mexico. Johnson is campaigning for the legalization of drugs including marijuana and heroin. He claims that legalization would lead to a decline in drug usage and eventually a drop in crime. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Harry Radcliffe)
- "The Dirty War"- a followup to "A Dirty War" (OAD: 05/06/84), a report on the disappearance, in Argentina during the 70's and 80s, of thousands of "enemies of the state," including pregnant women whose babies were given to childless military couples. The followup is a report on a group called the Grandmothers of the Plaza de Mayo and their continuing efforts to find these children and reunite them with their families. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael Gavshon)
- "The Lemba"- a report on the Lemba, a tribe of black natives scattered across South Africa, Zimbabwe, and Mozambique who claim that their ancestors were Jews from ancient Israel. Scientists and scholars have for years doubted the claims but DNA evidence seems to corroborate what the Lemba tribe has claimed all along: they are descended directly from Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Car Names" - car names that have no meaning

04/30/00 "The Death Penalty"- there were at least 13 compelling reasons for Illinois Governor George Ryan's decision to announce a moratorium on executions in his state: 13 men on death row were found to be wrongly convicted. Includes interviews with: some of the men who were exonerated; Professor David Protess, whose journalism class at Northwestern University investigated one death row inmate's case; and Gov. Ryan. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Scott Bronstein)
The Bishop Estate- the Bishop Estate was established in 1884 to fund the educations of native Hawaiian children. Recently, evidence emerged that the multi-billion trust was being abused by its trustees and last year, following an IRS threat to end the Bishop's Estate's tax exempt status, the current trustees were replaced by an interim board. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine)
"Picking Up The Pieces"- an interview with Washington, D.C. Mayor Anthony Williams who succeeded the troubled administration of Mayor Marion Barry. (C: Morley Safer - P: Steven Reiner)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy Answers His Mail" - critical letters

60 MINUTES II

04/05/00 "Married To The Mob"- Cicero, Illinois, a Chicago suburb came under the control of Al Capone and his gangsters in the 1920s. Today Betty Loren-Maltese, widow of mobster Frank Maltese, serves as town president and despite her avowed goal of changing Cicero's mob-town image, there is little to indicate that the organized crime has lost its grip on the town. (C: Carol Marin - P: Don Moseley)
"The Savior"- an interview with Savion Glover, who has updated and brought respectability to tap dancing. (C: Charlie Rose - P: Phil Shimkin)
"The Nasty Girl"- followup to "The Nasty Girl" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 01/09/94), a report about Anna Rossmus, a 33-year-old woman who made enemies when she wrote an essay and later a book telling of atrocities in her hometown of Passau, Germany during World War II. In the followup Ms. Rossmus talks about how little Passau's attitude has changed. (C: Morley Safer - P: Barbara Dury)

04/11/00 "Dead Wrong?"- after spending 20 years on death row, Jerry Lee Hogue, a Texas man, was executed for the arson/murder of a young woman. Despite Hogue's insistence that he was innocent and evidence that another man might have been the real arsonist, DNA testing that might have proven him innocent and halted the execution was never performed. (C: Dan Rather - P: Mary Mapes)
"Fantasy Island"- a report on David Korem, a self-proclaimed prophet and founder of the Dominion of Melchizedek. Korem claims that he founded the Dominion, which is often below water in the South Pacific and has no inhabitants, for religious purposes. It is in fact, the home of hundreds of bank and financial institutions operating scams via the Internet that have attracted a number of unsuspecting investors. (C: Bob Simon - P: Janet Klein)
"Ten Extraordinary Women"- followup to "Ten Extraordinary Women" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 02/01/87), a report on ten courageous women who though stricken with cancer, challenged themselves with the Outward Bound wilderness training course. The followup consists of interviews with the six women who still remain. (C: ED Bradley - P: Barbara Dury)
Update- "Tobacco Slaves" - OAD: 11/23/99

- 04/18/00 "Elian's Father"- second part of an interview with Juan Miguel Gonzalez about his efforts to be reunited with his six-year-old son, Elian, and his concern for the boy's welfare. Includes an interview with writer Anne Louise Bardach. (C: Dan Rather - P: Tom Anderson, Shawn Efran, Andy Solo) (Part II of "Elian's Father" 60 MINUTES 04/16/00)
- "Saving Stephen Heywood"- a report on Jamie Heywood and the ALS (Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis) Therapy Development Foundation which he founded when his younger brother was diagnosed with ALS (also known as Lou Gehrig's Disease). The group, devoted to moving promising ALS research from the lab into human clinical trials, has launched an experimental project which combines ALS research with gene therapy. (C: Charlie Rose - P: Rob Wallace)
- "The Reverend Sharpton"- followup to "Reverend Al Sharpton" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 03/07/93), an interview with Al Sharpton, the charismatic, controversial African-American leader. In the followup Sharpton talks about his transition from local to national politics and the change in his persona since the Tawana Brawley case. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Deborah DeLuca Sheh, Harry A. Radcliffe II)
- "Uncommon Sense"- the Boston Marathon -- amateur athletes behaving like professionals (C: Jimmy Tingle)
- 04/25/00 "Ecstasy"- a report on the skyrocketing use of the designer drug Ecstasy especially among teens and people in their 20s. The drug which was outlawed 15 years ago carries serious risks -- including brain damage and even death -- that users find it easy to overlook because of the intense high it provides. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Miriam Weintraub, Wendy Krantz)
- "Birth Of A Language"- in 1979 the government of Nicaragua set up two schools for deaf children in Managua. Amazingly the children, who were brought from all over the country and had never before been exposed to language, developed their own sign language. Includes an interview with Judy Kegl, an American linguist, who with her husband has started a school to teach the new sign language. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Janet Klein)
- "Nothing Like The Dame"- an interview with female impersonator Barry Humphries, star of the hit Broadway show "Dame Edna." (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael Rosenbaum, Jill Landes)
- "Uncommon Sense"- new cars (C: Jimmy Tingle)
- 48 HOURS
- 04/06/00 PREEMPTION
- 04/12/00 "Breaking Point"- every year, about 1,000 homicides are committed by people who are mentally ill and not in treatment. Often, the onus of preventing attacks on innocent people is placed on the families of those with psychiatric problems who must make painful choices for the safety of their children and the safety of society. Included are reports on: Vicki and Tershel Travis, whose 24-year-old twin sons must rely on anti-psychotic drugs to control their schizophrenia; and Dan Ellis, a 40-year-old award-winning designer with bipolar disorder who has experienced violent outbursts when not on medication. (P: Troy Roberts, Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Lisa Freed, Dianne Ronnau)
- Elian Gonzalez: an update on the Elian Gonzalez custody case, including a report from Florida where Attorney General Janet Reno has been meeting with the boy's Miami relatives. (C: Jim Axelrod)

- 04/13/00 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "Who Killed These Girls?"- on Dec. 6, 1991, just before midnight, an Austin, Texas police officer reported on a fire at a yogurt shop on the north side of town. Inside, authorities found the burned bodies of four teen-age girls: Eliza Thomas and Jennifer Harbison, both store employees; Sarah Harbison, Jennifer's sister, and Amy Ayers, a friend. All of the girls had been shot. The case remained unsolved until October 1999 when police arrested four men, two of whom confessed to the murder. Last December a grand jury indicted three of the four suspects. If convicted, Robert Springsteen and Michael Scott could receive the death penalty; Maurice Pierce could spend life in prison. (followup to "Who Killed These Girls?" OAD: 03/25/92) (C: Erin Moriarty, Harold Dow - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Peter Henderson, Katherine Davis, Tanya Simon)
- 04/20/00 "Bad Girls"- 48 HOURS examines the case of Lisa Warzeka, Michelle Morneau, Katie Dunn, and Krystal Maddox, four teenagers from an affluent Houston, Texas suburb, charged with robbery after pulling a string of stickups last year. The girls were apprehended because they bragged about their escapades at parties and someone turned them in. Lisa Warzeka and Katie Dunn, having decided to plead guilty to armed robbery, were convicted and sentenced to seven years in prison; Krystal Maddox, the alleged ringleader of the group, who decided to fight the charges, received a seven-and-a-half year sentence; Michelle Morneau, who had the smallest role in the crimes has not been prosecuted yet. (C: Bernard Goldberg - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Ira Sutow, Alec Sirken)
- 04/27/00 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "Accused"- in 1996 the car which Sheila Bryan was driving with her mother as passenger accidentally veered off the road and into a ditch. After the Omega, Georgia woman left her unconscious mother to seek help the car burst into flames. Sheila was charged with her mother's murder -- then tried, convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment. After a year in prison, her conviction was overturned for lack of a motive, but the court did not throw out the expert testimony of the investigators who said the fire was arson. At Sheila's retrial, three and a half years after the incident, the state's experts were countered by Gerald Hurst, a fire expert who claimed there was no reason to label the blaze arson. A jury found her not guilty and she was acquitted of all charges. (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Gail Zimmerman)

CBS RELIGIOUS SPECIAL

- 04/16/00 "Freedom To Pray"- an interfaith religious special about student spirituality in our schools and constitutional law. The program visits West Monroe, Louisiana, where a public school system is involved in a lawsuit dealing with its practice of allowing prayers over the high school public address system each day. Also included are comments by local clergy; Charles Kincade, a lawyer who works with the American Civil Liberties Union; Matt Staver, who works with Liberty Counsel; and Charles Haynes, of the First Amendment Center, Freedom Forum who helped write the White House guidelines on school prayer. (EP: John P. Blessington - P: Ted Holmes)

60 MINUTES

- 05/07/00 "The Colonel's Wife"- an interview with Laurie Hiett, a cocaine addict serving a five-year prison term for smuggling cocaine and heroin into the U.S. from Colombia, where her husband, U.S. Army Colonel James Hiett, was in charge of the U.S. efforts to halt the flow of illegal drugs from Colombia into the U.S. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Robert Anderson)
"The Right That Could Be Wrong"- 25 years ago the Supreme Court gave the mentally ill the right to refuse treatment unless they were an imminent danger to themselves or others. Recently New York State, prompted by the killing of a young woman by a man who was off his anti-psychotic medication, passed Kendra's Law which allows a court to order forced medication. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Jay Kernis)
"The Bicycle Thief"- California's three strikes law puts third-time offenders, even non-violent ones, in jail for 25-years-to-life. Critics say the law is unjust and cost-ineffective because it has filled state prisons with petty criminals. Proponents claim that it is the only effective way to remove repeat offenders from society. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Graham Messick)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Junk" - things people throw out
- 05/14/00 "Who Killed Malcolm X?"- a meeting between Malcolm X's eldest daughter, Attalah Shabazz and Louis Farrakhan. Farrakhan admits that editorials he wrote criticizing Malcolm X may have instigated the assassins who ended her father's life 35 years ago. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Jay Kernis)
"The Seamy Side Of Paradise"- Monsignor Richard Albert, a Catholic missionary from the Bronx, was assigned to the Caribbean island of Jamaica 24 years ago. Monsignor Albert chose to minister to the slums of Kingston and has as his goal the education of young people so that they can find employment and escape the influence of criminal gangs. (C: Christiane Amanpour - P: Andrew Tkach)
"Ready, Willing & Able"- a report on George McDonald and Ready, Willing & Able, a program he founded to help homeless men in New York City. The program, sponsored by the Doe Fund, puts the men, many with criminal records and almost all with histories of drug abuse, to work, provides room and board, and even educates them. (C: Morley Safer - P: Alden Bourne)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Mother's Day" - why it is celebrated
- 05/21/00 "Bishop Spong"- an interview with Episcopal Bishop Jack Spong of the Diocese of Newark, New Jersey, who talks about his unorthodox and often controversial approach to preaching Christianity, including his viewpoints on the crucifixion of Christ and the ordination of homosexual priests. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein)
"Kevin Mitnick, Cyber-Thief"- once the FBI's most wanted computer criminal, Kevin Mitnick stole corporate secrets by hacking his way into the computer systems of the world's biggest corporations. Mitnick claims that he isn't a thief but an electronic joyrider who was guilty of invasion of privacy but who made no personal gain from his transgression. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky) (OAD: 01/23/00)
"Carlos Acosta's Story"- an interview with Cuban ballet dancer Carlos Acosta. (C: Christiane Amanpour - P: Andrew Tkach)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Couches" - Andy looks at the offices of the 60 MINUTES Correspondents and executive producer

05/28/00 "Charlton Heston"- an interview with actor Charlton Heston, currently the head of the conservative National Rifle Association. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Marti Galovic Palmer) (OAD: 12/20/98)
"50,000 White Farmers"- in the four years since the end of white rule in South Africa, nearly 600 white farmers have been murdered. Many farmers believe that the murders are part of an organized conspiracy to drive them from the land. The South African Government disagrees, claiming that the farmers live in isolated areas and have guns and vehicles that tempt thieves. (C: Ed Bradley - P: David Gelber) (OAD: 12/20/98)
"Miranda"- controversy has arisen over whether the U.S. Supreme Court should re-examine the Miranda Act, a 1966 ruling under which suspects in a criminal case must be informed of their rights. Paul Cassell, law Professor at the University of Utah claims that the Miranda Act has enabled criminals to go free, while proponents say that it keeps poor people from being railroaded. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Richard Greenberg) (OAD: 12/05/99)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Bumpers"- car bumpers are worse than ever (OAD: 11/14/99)

60 MINUTES II

05/02/00 "The First Casualty"- a report on the mystery surrounding the fate of Lt. Commander Michael Scott Speicher, the first American casualty arising from the Persian Gulf War. The Navy pilot, shot down over Iraq, was officially declared killed in action in 1991; several years later his plane's wreckage was discovered, along with evidence that Speicher had ejected and might have survived the crash. (C: Bob Simon - P: Draggan Mihailovich, Christine Spolar)
"The Patriarch"- Sen. Ted Kennedy (D., Massachusetts) and Caroline Kennedy Schlossberg, JFK's daughter talk about the tragedies affecting their family. (C: Gloria Borger - P: Harry Moses, Yvonne Miller)

05/09/00 "Locked Inside A Nightmare"- the Wackenhut Corporation is a private company running 55 prisons in the U.S. and abroad. Wackenhut claims that it can run the prisons more economically than a state while providing better rehabilitation for inmates. There have however been serious allegations involving juvenile offenders who have been subjected to sexual abuse and cruel and unusual punishment at some Wackenhut facilities. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Nancy Duffy)
"Jesse Jackson, Jr."- profile of the son of the black leader, Jesse Jackson who has also chosen a career in politics. (C: Carol Marin - P: Don Mosely)
"Noah"- followup to "Noah" (OAD: 11/12/78), a report on Noah Greenfield, a 12-year-old diagnosed as brain-damaged and autistic, who was being raised at home. The followup consists of an update on Noah, now 33, and his parents' decision to place him in a state institution. (C: Dan Rather - P: Deborah DeLuca Sheh)
"Uncommon Sense"- thoughts on Mother's Day (C: Jimmy Tingle)

- 05/16/00 "The Liar"- an interview with Dana Garner, a witness who confessed that his lies sent three innocent men to prison for murder. Two of the men have been released from prison, and third is awaiting a new trial. Garner himself will serve no prison time because the statute of limitations in all three cases has expired. (C: Dan Rather - P: Steve Glauber, Chris Martin)
"Mind Of The Assassin"- a report on the U.S. Secret Service and its research project aimed at stopping presidential assassins. The report also focuses on the organization's efforts to stop attacks, as exemplified by the Columbine massacre, on schools. (edited version of "Mind Of The Assassin" Pts. I & II OAD: 03/14/00) (C: Scott Pelley - P: Bill Owens)
"Shirley"- a followup to "Shirley" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 04/08/84) a profile of the actress Shirley MacLaine. In the followup Ms. MacLaine talks about her career and her beliefs in pre-existence and extraterrestrial life. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Deborah DeLuca Sheh, Grace Diekhaus)
- 05/23/00 "Vanished"- twenty-one years ago Etan Patz, a six-year-old boy, vanished off a street in New York City and has never been found. Stan Patz, the boy's father, is convinced that the child's abductor is Jose Antonio Ramos, a known pedophile who is currently imprisoned on another charge and could soon be released. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Lisa Cohen)
"Miracle Man"- an interview with Lance Armstrong, a Texas-born cyclist who overcame testicular cancer to win the Tour de France. (C: Bob Simon - P: Draggan Mihailovich)
"Wampum Wonderland"- followup to "Wampum Wonderland" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 09/18/94), a report about a 1987 Supreme Court ruling which allowed Indian tribes to run gambling casinos free of state regulations, taxes and rules. The followup focuses on the controversy over whether the Pequot Indians running the Foxwoods resort in Connecticut have legitimate tribal status. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Rob Wallace)
"Uncommon Sense"- people should be allowed to invest a portion of Social Security taxes in whatever they want (C: Jimmy Tingle)
- 05/30/00 "Deep Impact"- an investigation of accidents involving diving boards in backyard swimming pools which resulted in serious injury including paralysis. Shawn Meneely, a former athlete left a quadriplegic following a diving accident, sued the National Spa and Pool Institute which sets the standards for pool construction claiming that the organization knew that their standards were inadequate in terms of safety. (C: Dan Rather - P: Steve Glauber, Christopher Martin) (OAD: 06/02/99)
"Catalogue Of Killers"- a recent advertising campaign mounted by Benetton, the Italian clothing manufacturer, has become the center of a controversy. The anti-capital punishment campaign features photographs of convicted killers on death row. Olivieri Toscani, creative Director at Benetton feels that his approach is justifiable, while critics claim that he is using murder victims to sell products. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Joel Bernstein)
"Reluctant Star"- an interview with Oscar-winning actress Jodie Foster about her life, including John Hinckley's obsession with her that led to his assassination attempt on President Ronald Reagan, her career and single motherhood. (C: Charlie Rose - P: Rob Wallace) (OAD: 12/07/99)
"Uncommon Sense"- road rage (C: Jimmy Tingle)

48 HOURS

- 05/04/00 "Judging Dr. Morgan"- a report on doctors who have been charged with negligence and incompetence. Dr. Robert Morgan, a 54-year-old Indianapolis obstetrician who endorses natural, low intervention child-birth. Morgan, who delivered 6,000 babies over a 25-year career, was the subject of 23 malpractice suits. In 1999, partly due to pressure brought by a patient whose baby died after a botched delivery, Morgan's license was revoked by the Indiana Medical Review Board. Dr. Donald Werner, a Bangor, Maine eye surgeon who fled the state after performing cataract surgery which resulted in irreparable damage to a patient's vision. (C: Susan Spencer, Troy Roberts - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Mary Sue Holland, Laura Levin, Josh Yager)
- 05/11/00 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "Never Forget"- report on two unsolved mysteries involving 15-year-old girls: the 1963 murder of Patti Rebholtz in Greenhills, Ohio and the 1975 murder of Martha Moxley in Greenwich, Connecticut. No arrest was made at the time of either crime but both cases have been re-investigated: Mike Wehrung, Patti Rebholtz' boyfriend, was indicted for her murder and will be tried later this year. Partly as a result of Murder In Greenwich, a book by former LAPD detective Mark Fuhrman, Michael Skakel, a neighbor, was arrested for the murder of Martha Moxley and will be brought to trial. (C: Troy Roberts, Harold Dow - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Sophia Kim, Paul Ryan, Lisa Freed)
- 05/15/00 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "Impossible Mission"- in 1986 newlyweds Dyke and Karen Rhoads of Paris, Illinois were murdered and their house set on fire. A year after the incident, juries handed down guilty verdicts to suspects Randy Steidl and Herb Whitlock. Feeling that a miscarriage of justice had occurred, Professor David Protesch of the Medill School of Journalism and four of his students began their own investigation of the 13-year-old murder. 48 HOURS follows their investigation as they uncover new evidence, speak to new witnesses and attempt to find the real reason for the murders. (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Anthony Batson, Doug Longhini, John Mondello)
- 05/18/00 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "Citizen Jane"- when Gertrude McCabe was brutally murdered, her niece Jane Alexander was named her principal beneficiary. Jane, a widow in her 70s, began to suspect that her live-in boyfriend, Tom O'Donnell, might have been involved in the crime. When O'Donnell, who was handling all Jane's finances, suddenly disappeared the elderly woman found that he had left her nearly broke. Spurred by Jane's persistence police tracked down O'Donnell who was charged with fraud and subsequently murder. Today, Jane, the founder of Citizens Against Homicide, devotes her time and energy to helping families of murder victims solve their cases. (C: Bill Lagattuta - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Loen Kelley, Joe Halderman, Ian Paisley, Deirdre Cohen)
- 05/22/00 "It's Just Sex"- a report on Americans who are in search of better sex lives, focusing on: a new sexual movement called The Lifestyle which encourages people in committed relationships to try other sexual partners; American women who have sexual dysfunctions, including an interview with talk show host Christine Ferrare; interviews with Playboy publisher Hugh Hefner and Dr. Laura Schlessinger about today's more open attitude toward sex; Tammy Robinson, a mother of three who posted risqué pictures of herself on the Internet; an interview with psychologist Ava Siegler about children who are experiencing sex at earlier ages. (C: Peter Van Sant, Erin Moriarty, Bill Lagattuta, Troy Roberts - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Tom Forman, Patti Aronofsky, Mark Goldbaum)

- 05/25/00 "Gambling With Your Life"- Special Edition on gambling, the number one form of entertainment in the United States, focusing on just how far it has gone and what price it is taking on society. Includes interviews with: Melanie Morgan, a television anchor in San Francisco who overcame her addiction to gambling; Kenny Glick, a day trader; Terri Candito, whose addiction to playing the lottery has left her in debt; and Carlos Rabeano, a cab driver who trades his portfolio of stocks using a cell phone and a laptop computer. (C: Troy Roberts, Harold Dow - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Sophia Kim, Paul LaRosa, Alec Sirken, Chuck Stevenson) (OAD: 10/26/99)
- 05/29/00 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "Mr. Wonderful"- nicknamed "Mr. Wonderful" by one of his victims, Matt Mathews of Southern California was everything but that to the women who lost both their hearts and bank accounts to the prolific con artist. Married at least 11 times, Mathews is believed to have scammed hundreds of people and has served three jail terms for fraud since 1977. In a year-long investigation, 48 HOURS tracks down the women ensnared by Mathews and follows them as Mathews is brought to trial facing his most serious charges to date. (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr., Peter Schweitzer - P: Clare Friedland) (OAD: 09/23/99)
