48 HOURS

12/07/00 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "The Colonel's Wife"- Ret. Col. George Maracek, a 69-year-old former Green Beret who served in Korea and Vietnam, has been charged with the 1991 murder of his Thai wife Viparet. The Czech-born Maracek, a concentration camp survivor who fled Europe after World War II, maintains that he is innocent. Having been brought to trial twice, Maracek won the right to a new trial on appeal. Despite his contention that the state was trying to use his military career against him and that the police used him as a scapegoat to cover a botched investigation, a jury found him guilty and he faces a 30-year prison sentence. (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Yosh Yager)

12/13/00 "Judging Dr. Morgan"- a report on doctors who have been charged with negligence and incompetence. Dr. Robert Morgan, a 54-year-old Indianapolis obstetrician who endorses natural, low intervention child-birth. Morgan, who delivered 6,000 babies over a 25-year career, was the subject of 23 malpractice suits. In 1999, partly due to pressure brought by a patient whose baby died after a botched delivery, Morgan's license was revoked by the Indiana Medical Review Board. Dr. Donald Werner, a Bangor, Maine eye surgeon who fled the state after performing cataract surgery which resulted in irreparable damage to a patient's vision. (C: Susan Spencer, Troy Roberts - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Mary Sue Holland, Laura Levin, Josh Yager) (OAD: 05/04/00) (aired only on the West Coast)

12/14/00 PREEMPTION

12/21/00 "The Fight to Forgive"- stories of individuals who have overcome incredible obstacles to make peace with their past, including: Jon Du Pre, a television journalist who sought out his father, a prominent attorney, who had walked out on his family when Jon was 14 and is now homeless and living on the street of San Diego; Tim Streett, an Indianapolis man who saw his father gunned down for a dollar and who has become a minister whose mission is to work with inner city kids like those who killed his dad; Paul Reed, a Vietnam veteran who, 30 years after the war, was still tormented by the thought that he had killed a North Vietnamese soldier. He discovered that his former enemy was still alive, but blind, and after meeting the man, raised enough money to bring him to America for treatment. (C: Bill Lagattuta, Harold Dow, Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Paul Ryan, Sophia Kim, Taigi Smith, Dianne Ronnau)

The girls were apprehended because they bragged about their escapades at parties and someone turned them in. Lisa Warzeka and Katie Dunn, having decided to plead guilty to armed robbery, were convicted and sentenced to seven years in prison; Krystal Maddox, the alleged ringleader of the group, who decided to fight the charges, received a seven-and-a-half year sentence; Michelle Morneau, who had the smallest role in the crimes has not been prosecuted yet. (E.P.: John P. Blessington) (OAD: 12/24/99)
