60 MINUTES

- 01/07/01 "Wal-Mart" lawyers, judges and litigants allege that Wal-Mart, the world's largest retailer and one of America's frequently sued companies, is guilty of flagrant abuse of the legal system. They accuse Wal-Mart of deliberate obfuscation in responding to lawsuits involving safety in stores and parking lots as well as the illegal sale of counterfeit designer clothing. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Jim Margolis)
"Any Given Sunday"- World Sports Exchange, an online gambling site, run by Jay Cohen and his partners Steve Schillinger and Haden Ware, moved to Antigua in order to circumvent U.S. laws prohibiting betting on sporting events. Two years ago, the federal government filed charges against the three partners under the Wire Communications Act (1961) which prohibits the use of telephone wires for gambling. Jay Cohen, who was sentenced to prison on his return to the U.S., is appealing his conviction claiming the law is outdated. (C: Morley Safer - P: Deirdre Naphin)
"The Tiananmen Papers"- a report on transcripts, kept secret for 11 years and recently smuggled out of Beijing, which give an account of what was going on behind the scenes at the highest levels of the Chinese Government during the 1989 student uprisings in Tiananmen Square. Includes an interview with the man, whose identity was concealed, who smuggled the documents out of China. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Robert Anderson)
Andy Rooney Topic: "America Is Great" - Andy's top 10 list
Update: "Bud Shuster" OAD: 10/15/00
- 01/14/01 "The Earth Liberation Front"- a report on the FBI's efforts to infiltrate ELF (Earth Liberation Front), one of the most active domestic ecoterrorist groups in the U.S. Although the underground group claims responsibility for 30 acts of economic sabotage against those corporations, government entities and researchers it believes are harming the environment, none of its members have been identified or caught. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Graham Messick)
"The Pope's Maestro"- an interview with Gilbert Levine, a Brooklyn-born Jew who became the de facto musical director for Pope John Paul II. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael Gavshon)
"The Strange Case Of Dr. Shipman"- Police in Hyde, England became suspicious when an alarming number of elderly women in the care of Dr. Harold Shipman, a respected local physician, died suddenly. Further investigation showed that Dr. Shipman had killed the women by injecting them with lethal doses of morphine with no apparent motive. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Jeanne Solomon Langley)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Handy Andy" - a book published in 1842
- 01/21/01 "The Osprey"- focuses on the revelation that Lt. Col. Fred Leberman that he asked Marines in his command to falsify maintenance records of the crash-plagued MV-22 Osprey in order to keep the aircraft in production. He and other Marine officers claim that they need the Osprey to replace a fleet of outdated helicopters, while critics cite the aircraft's high cost and poor track record. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Paul Gallagher)
"Nothing More To Worry About?"- the number of deaths among AIDS patients has risen due to several factors; the virus has become resistant to available medication; anti-AIDS drugs have serious side-effects; and people most at risk are not taking precautions. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein)
"Zimbabwe"- once the most promising democracy in Africa, Zimbabwe is now on the verge of economic collapse and political anarchy as the black government-sanctioned militia intimidates and sometimes murders white farmers for their land -- and anyone, black or white, who opposes President Robert Mugabe is violently repressed. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Leslie Cockburn)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Selecting A Cabinet" - Andy's choices
- 01/28/01 PREEMPTION

60 MINUTES II

- 01/02/01 "3-Year Nightmare"- Dean Honomichl, an emotionally ill 14-year-old, was made a ward of the state of South Dakota when his parents could no longer afford to care for him. The boy, placed in a series of detention facilities offering no schooling and inadequate treatment, continued to regress. South Dakota, the subject of a federal lawsuit, has agreed to revamp its juvenile justice system. A court ruling has permitted Dean to be placed in a private treatment facility. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Christine Weicher, Wendy Krantz)
"The Last Place On Earth"- anthropologist Birute Galdikas has as her goal saving infant orangutans in Indonesia. The species, which once ranged from China through the South Pacific, is almost extinct due to the Indonesian Government's failure to halt illegal logging and gold mining in Tanjung Puting National Park, the animals' prime habitat. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Randall Joyce)
"Billy Bob"- an interview with actor/writer/director Billy Bob Thornton (C: Dan Rather - P: Mary Mapes, Dana Roberson)
Charles Grodin- loud music at the 60 MINUTES II Christmas party
- 01/09/01 "Nothing To Lose"- examines factors that enabled seven convicts...murderers, rapists and robbers...to escape from Connally State Prison, a maximum security facility in Texas. Police there have launched a massive manhunt for the men, who since their escape, are responsible for two robberies and the murder of a police officer. If captured, they face the death penalty. (C: Dan Rather - P: Mary Mapes)
"Let the Games Begin"- a report on the tremendous popularity, both in the U.S. and abroad, of reality television. The segment examines the appeal to younger viewers and the lengths to which producers will go to capture an audience. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Harry Moses)
"Rikers Island"- a followup to "Rikers Island" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 12/29/91), a report on what it's like to be a correction officer on New York City's Rikers Island, an overcrowded jail which handles 100,000 prisoners yearly. The followup focuses on the transformation of the facility since Bernard Kerik took over in 1994. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Barbara Dury)
Charles Grodin- deciding which diet to follow
- 01/16/01 "The First Casualty"- an update on "The First Casualty" (OAD: 05/02/00), a report on the mystery surrounding the fate of Lt. Commander Michael Scott Speicher, a Navy pilot shot down over Iraq during the Persian Gulf War and officially declared killed in action in 1991. Swayed by evidence that Speicher might have survived his plane's crash, the U.S. Navy has changed his status to missing in action. (C: Bob Simon - P: Draggan Mihailovich, Christine Spolar)
"Seeing Evil"- Dr. Park Dietz, a forensic psychiatrist advises Fortune 500 companies on how to spot potential psychopaths in the work force. Dietz, whose expertise in determining an individual's sanity makes him one of the most sought-after expert trial witnesses in the country, is lead consultant to the FBI on serial killers. (C: Jim Stewart - P: Andrew Wolff)
"Whale Songs"- some musicians are exploring the question of whether music can be used to communicate with whales, a species known for their intelligence and acoustic acumen. Includes interviews with Fred West, director of Seattle's Cantabile Choir which gave a concert for killer whales; Joe Olsen, who arranged underwater speakers to broadcast the choir's sound; Roger Payne, who has translated whale songs into human music; and Jim Nollman, another musician who plays to whales. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Elena Mannes)
Charles Grodin- President Clinton is not leaving the political scene even though his presidency is coming to an end

- 01/23/01 "The Power Of Plastic"- major banks pay royalties to colleges and universities to allow them to come on campus and try to sell students on the advantages of having credit cards. Problems have arisen because many young people lack the maturity to handle large amounts of credit. Includes footage of Todd Stalkamp, an associate producer, who posed as a student to show how vendors operate on campus. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Raylena Church Fields)
"No Way Out"- report on continued violence in two neighboring West Bank communities - Beit Jala, which is entirely Palestinian, and Gilo, which is entirely Israeli - located on land claimed by both countries. Includes interviews with Meron Benvenisti, former deputy mayor of Jerusalem and Moshe Arens, former Israeli defense minister. (C: Bob Simon - P: Randall Joyce)
"Dave Matthews Band"- profiles the Dave Matthews Band, the popular multiracial, multigenre group. (C: Charlie Rose - P: Alan Weisman)
Charles Grodin- the Bush family
- 01/30/01 "The Sniper"- reports on the growing use of snipers by U.S. police forces; and Thunder Ranch, a gun school in Mountain Home, Texas where police officers learn to deal with hostage situations. Includes interviews with Clint Smith, sniper course director; Steve Rodriguez, an instructor; and Albuquerque, N.M. Police Chief Gerald Galvin, who turns first to a crisis intervention team. (C: Jim Stewart - P: Andrew Wolff)
"Wall Street Prophets"- a report on stock analysts working for big brokerage houses whose advice is geared to make them, rather than clients, wealthy. Includes an interview with Tom Brown, a former analyst for Donaldson, Lufkin & Jenrette, who turned down the firm's offer of $400,000 in severance pay because it entailed his silence. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Nancy Duffy)
"Ridley Scott"- an interview with film director Ridley Scott whose credits include "Silence of the Lambs" and "Gladiator," and the soon-to-be-released "Hannibal." (C: Charlie Rose - P: Rob Wallace)
Charles Grodin- improving air travel

48 HOURS

- 01/04/01 "David's Journey"- a followup to a segment of "Obsessed" (OAD: 02/25/99) about David, a gifted young man, now 27, who since childhood has suffered so severely from obsessive compulsive disorder that for more than two years he has locked himself in his parents' bathroom. Includes portions of David's video diary which affords viewers a look into the world of an obsessive compulsive. Includes interviews with David's mother Helena who, like her son, suffers from an obsessive fear of contamination and with Dr. Michael Jenike who uses a method called exposure therapy to treat patients with severe cases of OCD. (C: Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Clare Friedland, Peter Henderson, Tanya Simon)
- 01/11/01 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "Getting Away With Murder?"- follows families who have experienced the violent death of a loved one and believe they know the identity of the killer but lack evidence to back the charge. Includes reports on: the disappearance and probable murder of Kristine Kupka, whose family suspects her boyfriend and former college instructor Darshandand "Rudy" Persaud; the death in 1982 of Steven Dow, a high school senior, and his mother Janet who died when their car rolled into a ditch and burst into flames. Police investigators concluded that the crash was an accident but Steven's biological father, Wally Madeiros, claims that the boy's stepfather, Richard Dow, caused the deaths. (C: Erin Moriarty, Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Tom Forman, Deirdre Cohen, Ian Paisley, Doug Longhini)

- 01/18/01 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "Murder In L.A."- focuses on two California couples: the Adairs and the Shapiros. Mindy Shapiro discovered that her husband Michael, an orthopedic surgeon, was having an affair with Jeanie Adair, and in 1996, after 11 years of marriage, the couple opted for divorce. In November of that year Jeanie Adair's husband Robert was bludgeoned to death and each woman accused the other of murder. Jeanie Adair was tried for the crime and found innocent by a jury. To date the murder of Robert Adair has not been solved. (C: Bill Lagatutta - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Alec Sirken, Susan Wiggins Moore, Peter Henderson, Avi Cohen) (OAD: 02/03/00)
- 01/25/01 "Cybercrime"- reports on online offenses in cyberspace, including reports on: an adoption scam involving Sonya Furlow of Tender Hearts Family Service of Philadelphia, Pa., which over a period of three years, defrauded 43 families; Chad Collins, a 14-year-old Houston, Tx. boy who was seduced online by Tara Hulin, a 30-year old North Carolina woman; a 'get rich quick' scheme involving IGP (Institute for Global Prosperity), a Cancun, Mexico-based investment seminar which attracted thousands of people, supposedly with ways to lower taxes and make easy money. (C: Peter Van Sant, Susan Spencer, Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Ian P. Paisley, Anthony Batson, Miguel Sancho, Dou Longhini)

Guests:
Sen. Arlen Specter (R., Pennsylvania) (1)
William Cohen, former Secretary of Defense (2)
Sen. Richard Shelby (R., Alabama) (2)
Karl Rove, Senior White House Adviser (3)

60 MINUTES

- 02/04/01 "The Great Escape"- George Rivas, the career criminal who masterminded the "Texas Seven" prison escape, tells how he and six other inmates eluded a nationwide manhunt for 42 days. The convicts, who terrorized two states, stealing more than $80,000 in cash, seizing an arsenal of weapons, and killing a police officer, were finally apprehended in Colorado. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky, Tanya Simon)
- "Arctic Oil"- focuses on the debate over President Bush's campaign to open Alaska's Arctic National Wildlife Refuge to oil and gas development. Environmentalists insist that the refuge must remain untouched to protect its endangered wildlife, while proponents of the plan claim that it's the only way to meet the nation's energy crisis. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman)
- "School For The Homeless" - a report on the Thomas J. Pappas School in Phoenix, Arizona, the largest school for the homeless children in the U.S. These children are not able to enroll in public schools because they have no fixed address, lack immunization records or, on occasion, a birth certificate. Supporters of special schools for homeless claim they can improve a child's self-esteem as well as providing an education, while critics argue that the schools are a form of segregation. (C: Morley Safer - P: Catherine Olian)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "God Bless America" - the phrase politicians often use to end their speeches
- 02/11/01 "Sleeping Sickness"- deaths in Africa due to trypanosomiasis -- sleeping sickness, a disease spread by the tsetse fly, are reaching epidemic proportions. The cost of DFMO, a drug that has proved to be an effective cure, makes it unavailable to impoverished countries. Includes interviews with: Dr. Mickey Richer, an American pediatrician who founded the International Medical Corps; James Orbinski of Doctors Without Borders; and Harvey Bale, a spokesman for pharmaceutical companies. (C: Christiane Amanpour - P: Andrew Tkach)
- "Joe The Jailer"- Sheriff Joe Arpaio of Maricopa County, Phoenix, Arizona talks about his approach to incarceration stressing punishment and humiliation over rehabilitation, an approach condemned by Amnesty International, the ACLU and the Justice Department. Includes interviews with: David Liebowitz, Arizona Republican columnist and radio talk show host; Donna Hamm, former judge and prison reform advocate; and Steve Benson, part-time police officer and editorial cartoonist for the Arizona Republic. (C: Morley Safer - P: Deirdre Naphin)
- "Bryonn Bain Of Harvard" - Bryonn Bain, a black Harvard Law School graduate student, claims that his arrest by New York City Police officers was the result of racial profiling. Although charges of criminal mischief were dropped, Bain, the author of an essay called "Walking While Black: The Bill of Rights for Black Men" which appeared in The Village Voice, is still seeking to have his record expunged. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Jay Kernis)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Inflated Prices" - prices keep going up

- 02/18/01 "Online U" - while a number of Internet businesses are bottoming out and shutting down, on-line education is flourishing. Proponents claim that it enables students...many of them older and with full-time jobs...to earn degrees when and where they want via the Internet. Critics charge that there is a downside -- lack of classroom interaction and the possibility that the value of a degree will be diminished. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman)
- "The Wrong Man?" - Justin Volpe and Charles Schwarz, N.Y.P.D. officers, were sentenced to prison for their participation in the Abner Louima police brutality case. While fellow officers have no doubt about Volpe's guilt, they, along with jurors who served in the case, feel that Schwarz was erroneously identified. Despite the fact that Thomas Wiese has admitted to being the second officer at the torture scene, Schwarz is still in prison and is trying to get his conviction overturned. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Amy Cunningham Atkinson)
- "Diamonds" - De Beers, the diamond cartel, has managed to control the production and price of the gems while promoting the idea of their rarity. Recently, the stones' image has become somewhat tarnished because many are mined in African countries where their profits are used to fuel bloody civil wars that often kill and maim innocent civilians. Includes an interview with Professor James Twitchell, University of Florida, the author of Twenty Ads That Shook The World, a book on the great advertising campaigns of the past 100 years.
