"Kinkade"- an interview with Thomas Kinkade, the world's most popular living artist, who has created a marketing empire for his images. (C: Morley Safer - P: Alden Bourne)

"Castro"- because of damage done by a recent hurricane and the September 11 terrorist attacks, the economy of Communist Cuba has come to depend on the currency of its enemy, the U.S. Despite their own anti-Castro sentiments and a U.S. embargo, Cuban-Americans have managed to send millions of dollars a year to relatives in Cuba who in turn spend it stores owned by the Castro government. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Karen Sughrue)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Bathtubs" - Andy thinks bathtubs are a waste of money

48 HOURS
11/02/01

"The Rookies"- 48 HOURS tracks new members of law enforcement focusing on three apprentices in San Antonio, Texas, who are entering the criminal justice system: Ben Flores, a rookie cop beginning his first tour, the overnight shift in the city's most dangerous area; Cory Isaacs, a first-time prosecutor who has never before argued a case but must now deal with prostitutes, burglars and drug addicts; and Mimi Mijares, a middle-aged mother of two and rookie probation officer charged with supervising dangerous criminals. 48 HOURS will continue to follow these rookies through the first year on the job to see what they bring to their careers and how their professions affect them. (C: Dan Rather - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Tom Forman, Patti Aronofsky, Peter Henderson, Mike Maloy)

11/09/01

"Out Of Control" - focuses on one of the most controversial issues in America: what are Attention Deficit Disorders (ADD) and how should they be treated? The report follows Alex Snider and Ryan Taylor, two boys with Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) and includes interviews with Dr. William Pelham, a Buffalo psychologist who founded a special camp for children who have ADHD; Dr. Mary Ann Block of Fort Worth, Tx., who feels that medication can be dangerous for ADHD patients; and with two adult ADHD sufferers: Eileen LaGrotta, a St. Louis, Mo. woman who claims that the drug Adderall helped control her symptoms; and Dawn Hanson of Scottsdale, Ariz. who says that she had a psychotic reaction to the drug that caused her to crash her car, killing her only child. (C: Erin Moriarty, Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Paul Ryan, Mary Noonan, Paul LaRosa)

11/16/01

"Murder In Las Vegas" - on Dec. 18 1994, Ron Rudin, a wealthy real-estate developer mysteriously disappeared from his home in Las Vegas, Nev. A month later, the charred remains of his decapitated body were found in the desert just outside the city. After a lengthy investigation authorities were convinced that Rudin's wife, Margaret was involved, but before she could be arrested, Margaret fled to Mexico. After two years on the run, Margaret Rudin was apprehended in Massachusetts and six years after the murder, the soft-spoken grandmother was sentenced to life in prison. (C: Harold Dow - Sr. P: Diane Slaine-Siegel - P: Jay Young, Ian Paisley)

PREEMPTION

11/30/01

PREEMPTION

60 MINUTES II

11/14/01

"The Vice President" - Vice President Richard Cheney talks about: the current state of the Taliban; the Northern Alliance; U.S. ground troops in Afghanistan; the whereabouts of Osama bin Laden; special military tribunals for foreigners accused of terrorism; possible involvement of Saddam Hussein; Cheney's presence at undisclosed locations for security reasons; the possibility of a new terrorist attack; and Cheney's health. (C: Gloria Borger - P: Michael Rosenbaum)

"Air War At Home" - interviews with two of the three Air National Guard fighter pilots who on September 11 were the last defense standing between United Flight 93 and its presumed target, Washington, D.C. Also includes interviews with Brigadier General Mike Gould, NORAD commander, and General Ed Eberhart, commander in chief of the North American Aerospace Defense Command, who talk about how the military is protecting America's skies in the aftermath of the terrorist attacks. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Shawn Efran)

"Educating The Enemy" - one of the bitter ironies of September 11 is that some of the hijackers relied on skills learned in America. This is such a troubling fact that just yesterday President Bush signed an order to pick up and question more than 5,000 mostly Middle-Eastern men, many of whom entered the country legally on student visas. (Vicki Mabrey - P: Michael Bronner, Christine Spolar)

Charles Grodin - looking for wisdom in these difficult times

Charles Grodin - life in Afghanistan under the Taliban
- 11/28/01 "The Miracle of The Pentagon" - 125 people were killed in the Pentagon on September 11. When the plane hit, it obliterated the first and part of the second floor. The third, fourth and fifth floors remained suspended in air for 35 minutes, allowing hundreds of people to escape. The answer lay in the fact that the plane had hit the only section of the Pentagon renovated to resist a terrorist attack. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Margaret Ebrahim)
"Kindertransport" - a report on Deborah Oppenheimer, executive producer of the nationally televised "Drew Carey Show," who is also the producer of a documentary about a little-known episode of World War II. The film (to premiere on HBO in December) is called "Into the Arms of Strangers" and deals with Kindertransport, trains provided by the British Government to take children from beleaguered Jewish communities to safety in England. (C: Bob Simon - P: Joel Bernstein)
"Holy Grail" - a report on studies showing the potential for curing disease with the use of stem cells from umbilical cords. Includes interviews with Dr. Andrew Yeager, University of Pittsburgh, a pioneer in the field and Dr. David Harris, the laboratory director of the Cord Blood Registry. (C: Carol Marin - P: Don Moseley)
Charles Grodin - what does it mean to be an American?

Guests: Richard Reeves, author of President Nixon: Alone In The White House; Allan Lichtman, author of "The Keys To The White House"; Edmund Morris, author of Theodore Rex

60 MINUTES

- 12/02/01 "That Dirty Little Word 'Profiling'" - report on the controversy focusing on the more intensive official scrutiny of young Arab men following the September 11 terrorist attacks. Includes interviews with: Secretary of Transportation Norman Mineta, a Japanese-American whose family was sent to an internment camp during World War II; Floyd Abrams, a constitutional lawyer; Randy Means, a legal expert; and James Zogby, head of the Arab-American Institute. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Trevor Nelson, L. Franklin Devine)
"Selling The Dream?" - members of the black community are critical of the family of Dr. Martin Luther King for selling the image and words of the civil rights martyr for profit. Supporters of the King family claim that Dr. King did copyright much of his work and that control of that material belongs solely to his family. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein)
"Barbara Cook" - an interview with singer Barbara Cook who at 74 is still performing in concert-halls and teaching her art to students at The Juilliard School of Music. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Jay Kernis)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy's Rooney's Treasures" - things that Andy keeps
- 12/09/01 "Why Did She Do It?" Pts. I & II - Russell "Rusty" Yates, whose wife Andrea admits drowning all five of their children, one after the other in the family bathtub, says that his wife is a good person suffering from postpartum depression with psychosis, a serious mental illness. Yates, who supports his wife, claims that if Andrea had received competent psychiatric care the children would still be alive and their mother would be on her way to recovery. Andrea Yates, who is scheduled to go on trial next month, has pled not guilty by reason of insanity but prosecutors say she is a cold-blooded killer who deserves the death penalty. Also included are interviews with: Cheryl Meyer, a psychologist; Jaqueline Prudin, supervising nurse at Devereux Hospital, a psychiatric facility outside Houston, Tx.; and Chuck Rosenthal, Harris County District Attorney (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky)
"The Candy Man" - focuses on disagreement over the running of The Milton Hershey School, a school established by Milton Hershey, the Pennsylvania candy company founder to provide an education for poor children. A number of the school's alumni claim that despite its vast wealth the school is not adhering to Hershey's basic ideas and that the school's admission policy puts too much stress on grades. After investigating the alumni complaints, the state attorney general's office has recommended major changes. (C: Morley Safer - P: Catherine Olian)
Andy Rooney Topic: "The Sunday Times" - cost of advertising in The New York Times Sunday edition
- 12/16/01 "The Secret Life Of Robert Hanssen" - FBI agent Robert Hanssen seemed to be a quiet, unassuming computer nerd, but Hanssen, convicted of giving away more secrets than any spy in the history of the bureau, betrayed not only his country, but the Roman Catholic Church and his wife. Includes interviews with author Norman Mailer and filmmaker Lawrence Schiller, who spent the last 10 months investigating the Hanssen case for an upcoming CBS television movie and a book called Into The Mirror. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Richard Bonin)
"Hold The Phone" - a report on questionable practices employed by telephone companies since the enactment by Congress in 1996 of a law deregulating the telecommunications industry. 60 MINUTES II

- 12/05/01 "The Conquered Capital" - report on changes that have taken place in Kabul, the Afghan capital since its liberation after five years of Taliban rule. Includes interviews with: Amid Zai, former head of security at the U.S. Embassy before the 1979 Soviet invasion of Afghanistan; and Rafi Khetab, a 19-year-old who is learning English so that he will be ready to come to America. (C: Dan Rather - P: Mary Mapes)
"Monster Hunter" - an interview with MIT professor Bob Rines, a patent attorney, physicist and engineer who has spent the last thirty years trying to prove that Scotland's Loch Ness Monster really exists. Includes interviews with: Angela Milner, a paleontologist; Gordon Menzies, an engineer and Rines' guide; and Steve Feltham, an international monster hunter. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Harry Moses)
"The Traitor" - on June 19th, 1953, Julius and Ethel Rosenberg went to the electric chair for stealing the secret of the atom bomb for the Soviet Union. Nearly 50 years later, David Greenglass, Ethel Rosenberg's brother, talks about how his false testimony led to his sister's conviction. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael Rosenbaum, Jill Landes)
Charles Grodin - the safety of air travel

- 12/12/01 "Fighting The Taliban" - profile of James and Joe Ritchie, former option traders from Chicago, who have invested millions of dollars in a mission to save Afghanistan, a country where they spent part of their childhood. Their main objectives are the overthrow of the Taliban and Osama bin Laden. Also includes an interview with former CIA agent and CBS News consultant Milt Bearden. (C: Carol Marin - P: Don Moseley)
- "Final Exam" - the polygraph, or lie detector test, is banned in nearly every court and outlawed for use in private business, but the U.S. Government still relies upon the admittedly questionable results of the tests in screening federal employees. Includes interviews with Dr. Charles Honts, Professor of Psychology at Boise State University in Utah; Ed Curran, former FBI agent; and Dr. Sheila Reed, former researcher at the Department of Defense Polygraph Institute. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Shawn Efran)

- 12/26/01 "The Millennium Plot" - report on how Diana Dean, a U.S. Customs inspector, helped foil a plot to bomb both American and Jordanian sites during the millennium. Includes interviews with Mohammed Hijazi, whose son Raed was involved in the plot; Col. Mahmoud Obeidat, Jordan's chief military prosecutor; Daniel Benjamin, White House adviser; and U.S. Customs Inspector Mark Johnson. (C: Bob Simon - P: Draggan Mihailovich) (OAD: 10/03/01)
- "The Magnum Photos" - a report on photographs of the September 11 terrorist attack on the World Trade Center taken by members of the Magnum agency, thought to be the world's most respected documentary photo agency. The photos have recently been released in a book called New York September 11. Includes interviews with the Magnum photographers, all of whom just happened to be in New York City that day for a meeting. (C: Dan Rather - P: Steve Glauber, Kyra Darnton)
- "An American Dream" - a profile of Keith and Lisa Brown of Alpine, Utah, all five of whose children are talented classical pianists attending the Juilliard School. Includes an interview with Veda Kaplinsky, Chairwoman of the piano department. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Nancy Duffy) (OAD: 10/31/01)
- Charles Grodin - impact of the September 11 attack on New York City taxi drivers (OAD: 10/24/01)

48 HOURS

- 12/03/01 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "A Family Torn Apart"- the brutally murdered body of Bob Dorotik, a 55-year-old engineer and father of three, was found by a mountain road near his home in the foothills of San Diego, Ca. Despite her denial of any involvement, Jane, Dorotik's wife of 30 years, was arrested for the crime. In response to the prosecution's damaging physical evidence against Jane, her attorneys tried a risky and divisive strategy -- trying to shift suspicion to Claire, the couple's daughter whose relations with her father had been strained. Jane Dorotik was tried for murder, found guilty and sentenced to 25 years to life. She has filed an appeal for a new trial. (C: Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Lisa Freed)
- 12/05/01 "The Fight to Forgive"- stories of individuals who have overcome incredible obstacles to make peace with their past, including: Jon Du Pre, a television journalist who sought out his father, a prominent attorney, who had walked out on his family when Jon was 14 and is now homeless and living on the street of San Diego; Tim Streett, an Indianapolis man who saw his father gunned down for a dollar and who has become a minister whose mission is to work with inner city kids like those who killed his dad; Paul Reed, a Vietnam veteran who, 30 years after the war, was still tormented by the thought that he had killed a North Vietnamese soldier. He discovered that his former enemy was still alive, but blind, and after meeting the man, raised enough money to bring him to America for treatment. (C: Bill Lagattuta, Harold Dow, Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Paul Ryan, Sophia Kim, Taigi Smith, Dianne Ronnau) (OAD: 12/21/00)
- 12/07/01 "Twin Miracles"- 48 HOURS broadcast culminating THE EARLY SHOW's three-part series on conjoined twins, focusing on Emily and Jim Stark, a Colorado couple who are the parents of twin girls who were born conjoined. The broadcast follows the Starks from the birth of their daughters, Alexandra and Sydney, through the risky surgical procedure which successfully separated the babies. Includes interviews with: Dr. Steven Stylianos of Children's Hospital at New York Presbyterian; Dr. Joseph Janik, Dr. Brad McDowell and Dr. Michael Handler, the Denver doctors who cared for the infants. (C: Jane Clayson, KCNC Reporter: Stephanie Rigs - KCNC Producer: Vicki Hildner - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Mary Noonan Robichaux)
- 12/12/01 "Addicted"- part of a continuing cooperative project involving 48 HOURS and MTV News examining how OxyContin, a powerful narcotic, is helping millions of chronic pain sufferers, but is also causing pain and suffering to thousands more. Includes interviews with Troy Swett, a 22-year-old OxyContin abuser who traveled from his home in Bangor, Me. to the Waismann Institute for Opiate Dependence in Santa Ana, Ca. to undergo a radical treatment called rapid detox; Dr. Clifford Bernstein, the Waismann Institute's medical director; Sheriff Joseph Tibbetts, Washington County, Me.; Summer Ulman, whose younger sister Shauna died of an OxyContin overdose; Diane Reynolds, a Portland, Me. woman who became addicted to OxyContin after back surgery; Dr. David Haddox, spokesman for Purdue Pharma, the manufacturer of OxyContin; and Asa Hutchinson, head of the Drug Enforcement Agency. (CBS Correspondents: Harold Dow, Peter Van Sant - MTV Correspondent: Serena Altschul - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Miguel Sancho, Anthony Batson, Mary Sue Holland)
- 12/14/01 "A Company Of Heroes"- profile of New York City Fire Department's Rescue 1, an elite unit of highly trained firefighters who come to the aid of fellow firefighters when they get in trouble. Features footage of some of the unit's most dramatic rescues shot by "The Bravest", a reality series, one month before the September 11 attack on the World Trade Center which took the lives of eleven of its members. Also includes interviews with surviving members of Rescue 1, who talk about the struggle to continue saving lives while coping with their own loss and grief and who still make weekly trips to ground zero searching for remains. (C: Bill Lagattuta, Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Tom Forman, Joe Halderman, Josh Gelman)

- 12/21/01 "All In The Family" - 48 HOURS and Reader's Digest profile a group of ordinary people who are performing extraordinary acts of kindness for children: the Gray-Cabey family who moved from suburban Chicago to the backwoods of Maine, took their four children out of public school in favor of home study and turned them into talented musicians who perform all over the world; Mary-Jo and Michael Jackson of Lancaster, Pa. whose family currently consists of 20 biological and adopted children; Gregory Hoffman of Long Beach, N.Y. who lost his identical twin brother, Stephen, in the collapse of the World Trade Center and now is raising both his family and his brother's; Center, Texas a town whose residents adopt hard-to-place children from some of the worst neighborhoods in Texas in order to give them better lives. (C: Harold Dow, Richard Schlesinger Erin Moriarty, Steve Hartman - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Lisa Freed, Alec Sirken, Peter Doyle, Sophia Kim)
- 12/28/01 "Your Wildest Dreams" - focuses on people who risk their lives competing in one of America's most popular sports, the rodeo, including reports on: Chris Harris, who, although his grandfather and father are prominent lawyers, opted for a career as a cowboy; Monty Henson, a three-time bareback bronc champion whose career came to a halt when he broke his neck in competition ten years ago but has never lost his love for the rodeo; Bob Moore, a stockbroker from Boston with a desire to learn bull-riding who attends a rodeo school in rural north Georgia run by Miles Sankey; and Butch Myers of Athens, Texas, whose sons Rope and Cash compete in steer wrestling events. (C: Steve Hartman - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Chuck Stevenson, Alec Sirken, Tom Forman)
- 12/31/01 "Everybody Has A Story"- Correspondent Steve Hartman, who picks locations and interviewees using a dart, a map and a local phone book, sets out to prove that some of the most interesting stories are waiting to be found in some of the least likely places. Includes interviews with: Guy Leith (Washington, Iowa), who is still alive and well after a number of close calls; Beacham McDougall (Laurinburg, N.C.), a funeral home owner who kept an unclaimed body from 1911 until it's recent burial; Trey Pyles (Fentriss County, Tenn.), a five-year-old who sends balloons to his grandmother in heaven; Suzy Izatt (Pa.), who takes in foster children and ends up adopting them; Eric Colton, (Baker County, Ore.), a veteran who wrote a letter to President George Bush; Amy Mendoza, an illegal alien whose father is a migrant worker; Newt McCallum (Camden, Tenn.), a widower who found romance; and Jimmy Clement (Limon, Col.) who ran away from his adoptive home as a teenager but returned as an adult. (C: Steve Hartman - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Peter Doyle) (OAD: 08/31/01)

CBS RELIGIOUS SPECIALS

- 12/16/01 "Responding To Tragedy: Religion In A Time Of Terror" - an interfaith religious special that examines the role and responsibility of religion in the struggle against worldwide terrorism. As we pursue those who were responsible for the attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon, a distinguished panel discusses what religion brings to the debate and the actions of nations at a time like this. The group, meeting at the headquarters of the American Bible Society in New York, explores the various moral and ethical issues surrounding the attack, the national and international response and the varied views of a just war. (E.P: John P. Blessington - P: Ted Holmes)

CBS RELIGIOUS SPECIALS (continued)

12/24/01 "Christmas Eve Lutheran-Episcopal Service" - a special Christmas Eve service of a combined Lutheran-Episcopal liturgy taped at Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral, In Kansas City, Mo., highlighting the joint ministry that is now possible since "Full Communion" between the Lutheran and the Episcopal churches was declared earlier this year. Bishop Barry Howe of the Diocese of West Missouri; Bishop William Smalley of the Episcopal Diocese of Kansas; and Bishop Gerald Mansholt of the Evangelical Lutheran States Synod participate. The combined choirs of the Cathedral and Faith Lutheran Church of Overland, Kansas, provide music for the service under the direction of John Schaefer, Director of Music for the Cathedral, and Skip Frizzell, Choir Director. Wayne Smith of Faith Lutheran is the organist. (E.P. for CBS: John P. Blessington - DHTV Productions: Mark Honer)
