In a last minute plea bargain Tarlton agreed to testify that Celeste had her kill Beard because he was abusive and controlling. In exchange, her sentence was reduced from life to 20 years. Celeste was arrested for capital murder and, at a trial during which her twin daughters testified for the prosecution, was found guilty and given a life sentence. - 08/18/04 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Missing Molly"- report on the unsolved abduction and subsequent murder of 16-year-old Molly Bish. Bish disappeared in June 2000 from the local swimming hole where she had just started a summer job as a lifeguard in her hometown of Warren, Mass. In May 2003, Tim McGuigan, a former police officer, helped to discover evidence that led to the discovery of Molly's body. His interest in the case traced back to the 1993 abduction of another local girl, Holly Piirainen, who was 10 years old when she was taken from a country road in Sturbridge, Mass., roughly 10 miles from the pond where Molly disappeared. Holly's body was found several weeks after her abduction, but no arrests were ever made. McGuigan became obsessed with the Piirainen murder case and increasingly began to focus on the similarities between that case and the Bish disappearance. Three-and-half years after Molly Bish's disappearance, police are still investigating the case. Tim McGuigan is trying to restart his career as a police officer, and John and Magi Bish have been speaking to police across the country, hoping to improve the way they handle missing child cases. Four years later, DeAnn Schultz, Donnah's best friend, revealed to police that she and Mark Winger had been having an affair and that he had talked about killing his wife. Polaroid pictures revealing the position of the victims' bodies at the scene of the killings showed that Winger's account of the events lacked credibility. CBS RELIGIOUS SPECIAL

- 09/26/04 "Ethics In Sports" - the program looks at the role of religion in American society where winning, lying and cheating are too common in sports. The controversies over illegal performance-enhancing drugs and excessive violence that come from "winning at all costs" are examined. "Ethics In Sports" shows how ethical conflicts between religion and sports may be resolved. The program features a variety of views expressed by: David Callahan, author of "The Cheating Culture"; Sports agent Jerrold Colton; and William J. Baker, Professor of History at the University of Maine, who is writing a book, "Playing With God: How Religious Folk Learned To Embrace Modern Sport". Also includes the stories of Adam Taliaferro, A New Jersey high school football star who was injured seriously at Penn State and is not expected to walk again and 22-year-old Dimitry Salita, a 22-year-old Ukrainian-American boxer who turned pro after winning the U.S. Amateur Championships and when the International Amateur Competition would not honor his request to not fight on the Jewish Sabbath. (Executive Producer: John P. Blessington - Narrator/Producer: Howard Weinberg)
