10/06/12 48 HOURS: "Friends for Life" - a report about Robyn Davis and Carol "Sissy" Saltzman, best friends for twenty years, who were charged with murder after Robyn's husband, Brian Davis, was found shot to death alongside his car on an isolated road in St. Charles, Louisiana. Brian had married Robyn, his third wife, in 2008, but continued to have an eye for women; Robyn was not happy with his cheating. On June 29, 2009, Brian Davis disappeared. According to Robyn and Sissy, he had left to go boat shopping and never came home. Police soon began to suspect Robyn. Then Sissy, too, came under scrutiny. An examination of their cell phone records convinced police the women were lying. Investigators discovered that Robyn had recently lost her job, had gambling debts, and was on the verge of losing her house. Police believed one or both of the women shot and killed Brian Davis. Three years after the murder, Robyn and Sissy went on trial together. Several jurors expressed in interviews the opinion that investigators hadn't done their jobs and they had trouble with contradictions in Robyn's story. Jurors also learned of a life insurance police that Robyn tried to cash in just two weeks after Brian's death. The jury vote was eleven for guilty and one for acquittal. In Louisiana, only 10 jurors are needed for a murder conviction: Robyn Davis and Sissy Saltzman are both convicted. They are both serving their time in the same correctional facility and see each other in the jail's church. Onscreen text graphic: Robyn Davis and Sissy Saltzman plan to appeal the verdict. If the appeal is denied, Brian's life insurance, worth $645,000, goes to his family. Brian's former mistress, Fannie Dietz, is back together with her husband, Steve. 10/13/12 48 HOURS: "Collision Course" - Brittney Brashers, a 21-year-old Air Force member, died while driving home with her ex-boyfriend, Robbie Walters in November, 2009. On the surface, her death seemed like an accident; however, Robbie had walked away from the car crash unscathed, which posed questions to authorities. The Denver, Colorado Police and Detective Troy Bisgard were convinced they had a homicide on their hands and that Robbie was responsible-- but they had no way to prove it. All along, Robbie maintained he was a passenger in the car and told police he didn't know what happened since he was falling asleep because the two of them had been drinking. Medical Examiner John Carver noticed that Brittney's injuries did not seem to come from the car accident when he saw bruising around her temple and upper right cheek. Instead, Carver thought Brittney was hit on her right side and strangled... but he came up short with evidence to prove this was a homicide. A breakthrough in the case occurred when Robbie's wife Elena took a call from Det. Bisgard. Throughout his relationship with Brittney and after Brittney died, Robbie Walters had been married. After Brittney died, and knowing all about their affair, Elena took Robbie back. Elena told Det. Bisgard that she had recorded Robbie confessing to murdering Elena more than a dozen times. Three days after speaking with Elena, Det. Bisgard flew to California where the couple lived and arrested Robbie, charging him with first-degree murder. While awaiting trial, Robbie enlisted a fellow inmate to help him arrange to have Elena killed, but the inmate turned out to be a witness for the prosecution. Robbie was charged with soliciting Elena's murder. At the trial the jury took two days to deliberate and found Robbie guilty of murder. Jurors acquitted Robbie of conspiring to murder Elena. Robbie was sentenced to life without parole. Onscreen text graphic: Elena Walters now lives in an undisclosed location under a new name. Interviewed: Steve Sanchez, 911 caller; Barry Brashers, Brittney's dad; John Brashers, Brittney's brother; Robbie Walters, Brittney's ex-boyfriend; Detective Troy Bisgard; Ret. Master Sgt. Art Figeroa, Brittney's boss; Tiffany Peeples, Brittney's best friend; Brittany Austin-Goyne, Brittney's teammate; Dr. John Carver, Medical Examiner; Elena Walters, Robbie's wife; Phil Geigle and Helen Morgan, Prosecutors; Jonathyn Priest, State Expert. 48 HOURS (continued)

10/20/12 48 HOURS: "The Preacher's Passion" - Felicia Tang was an actress and model in Hollywood, CA. Her boyfriend, Brian Randone, was an inspirational preacher and one-time reality show contestant. Two months after they met in Las Vegas, Tang was living in Randone's Los Angeles home. After a night of passion, Tang was dead. On the morning of September 11, 2009, Randone summoned police because Tang wasn't breathing. He maintained she overdosed on the drug GHB (Gamma hydroxybutyric), which they both took before going to bed. However, police didn't buy the story. Police believed he beat Tang to death because they counted some 320 bruises, lacerations and abrasions on her body. The medical examiner who did the autopsy on Tang believes the bruising on her face and bite mark on her tongue were a result of Tang's struggle to breathe. Randone was charged with her murder and after prosecutors saw her body, they added another charge: torture. On November 14, 2011, two years after Tang's death, the trial began in a Pasadena courtroom. Prosecutors tried to prove Randone caused Tang's death, but the defense painted Tang as a drug addict and said she died of an overdose. The defense called former San Diego Deputy Medical Examiner Dr. Harry Bonnell to the stand. Dr. Bonnell said homicide is impossible in this case because the PEA (pulseless electrical activity) found in Felicia's body proves it. He went on to tell the jury there is no PEA in smothering victims and the causes of PEA are drugs or blood volume loss. Prosecution was denied the opportunity to rebut Dr. Bonnell's testimony. The jury came up with the verdict of not guilty of torture and not guilty of murder. Jurors, who did not want their names to appear on the episode, claimed Dr. Bonnell's testimony was crucial in declaring Randone not guilty. Several medical examiners "48 HOURS" consulted made clear they would have testified that Dr. Bonnell was incorrect, and PEA is possible in smothering. Onscreen text graphic: Brian Randone is suing various Los Angeles County law enforcement agencies for $21 million for false arrest, wrongful imprisonment, and emotional distress. Interviewed: Brian Randone, Felicia Tang's boyfriend; Detective Richard Doney; Detective Brian Schoonmaker; Christina (no last name), Felicia's best friend; Mike Ferrara, DSport Magazine; Patty and Terry Randone, Brian's parents; Mark Overland, Brian's defense attorney; Trinka Porrata, Ret. LAPD narcotics officer; Dr. Harry Bonnell, Fmr. San Diego Deputy Medical Examiner; Juror 6 and Juror 10, appearing anonymously on camera. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Chuck Stevenson, Greg Fisher, Sarah Prior)

10/27/12 48 HOURS: "Lina's Heart" - Lina Kaufman was a married mother of two when one morning her husband found her in the bathroom, slumped over a magazine rack. Adam Kaufman called 911 and unsuccessfully tried to revive her. Lina's death gripped Aventura, Florida because she was 33-years-old when she died in 2007, and the circumstances around her death were strange. For eighteen months, Adam says he badgered the Dade County, Florida medical examiner's office seeking a conclusive explanation for his wife's death. They thought she may have had an allergic reaction to a spray tan, but in April 2009, Adam was charged with killing his wife by "mechanical asphyxiation". The trial began in May 2012 and the prosecution led the jury to believe the couple had an unhappy marriage, and fought the morning of Lina's death. Adam's defense no longer blamed Lina's death on her spray tan because there wasn't enough evidence to support it, and instead they attacked what they believed to be a botched investigation by the police. There was bruising and abrasions found on Lina's arms and legs and the defense said this was from Lina being moved from room to room by firefighters, and not a struggle with Adam. Moreover the defense said Lina died of natural causes and undiagnosed heart failure, more specifically acute and chronic myocarditis. Adam himself, and Lina's mother, Frida Aizman, both testified about Lina's prior fainting spells. Frida Aizman shared her support and love for Adam while on the stand. After eight hours, the jury reached a verdict of not guilty. Onscreen text graphic: Adam Kaufman plans to write a book about his ordeal. Interviewed: Adam Kaufman, Lina's husband; Seth Kaufman, Adam's twin brother; Elaine Kaufman, Adam's mother; Frida Aizman, Lina's mother; Melissa Fedowitz and Jennifer Ben Sadon, Lina's friends; Kathleen Hoague, prosecutor; Michael Castro, first responder; Kimberly Burk, paramedic; Bill Matthewman, defense attorney; Al Milian, defense attorney; Anna Howell, crime scene technician; Joe Mansfield, prosecutor; Doctors that testified about Lena's heart: Dr. John Stollard, Dr. Bruce Hyma, Dr. Satish Chundru, Dr. John Marraccini, Dr. Michael Baden, Dr. Chester Gwin, and Dr. Erik Mont; Dr. Gregory Davis, medical examiner. 48 HOURS

11/03/12 PREEMPTION

11/10/12 48 HOURS: "Secrets of the River" - Mackenzie Cowell was a high school senior and aspiring model who was studying at a beauty school when she made a dinner date with her father, Reid, in February 2010. Mackenzie never made dinner, and Reid received a call from police saying his daughter's car was found abandoned on a ranch, 40 miles from their home in Wenatchee, Washington. Four days later Mackenzie was found dead along the banks of the Columbia River. She had been strangled, stabbed and beaten. Investigators looked at a list of potential suspects, including her boyfriend, who failed part of a lie-detector test, though he had a solid alibi. They talked to her parents, who had gone through a bitter divorce. And police talked to her mother's boyfriend, with whom she had tangled with in the past. Liz Reid, a police informant, came forward claiming to have seen the actual murder on videotape -- shot by the killers. However as the task force began to investigate this, a tip came in about Chris Wilson, a classmate of Mackenzie's from the Academy of Hair Design. After police linked DNA at the crime scene to Wilson, he was charged with her murder. Wilson claimed he was innocent and his mother hired attorney John Henry Browne. Police dismissed Liz Reid's story after she changed it several times and they did not find a video. When the task force searched the apartment that Wilson lived in during the time of the murder, they found a stain which tested positive for Mackenzie's DNA. Prior to the trial, D.A. Gary Reisen made Wilson an offer -- plead guilty to manslaughter and serve only six-and-half years in prison -- but Wilson turned it down and the trial began. Fearing an unfair trial after the jury questionnaires came back believing Wilson was guilty, Chris Wilson accepted a new plea deal -- fourteen years in prison in exchange for agreeing to these words: "...I also did recklessly cause the death of Mackenzie Cowell by strangulation and by stabbing her with a knife". Chris Wilson believes he was framed by law enforcement. On Screen Graphics: Christopher Wilson may be eligible for release from prison in 2023. He will be 42 years old. Former police informant Liz Reid recently received a scholarship to attend the University of Washington. Interviewed: Reid Cowell, Mackenzie's father; Sandy Francis, Reid's fiancee; Joaquin Villasano, Mackenzie's boyfriend; Detective John Kruse, Wenatchee Police Dept.; Robbin Wagg, Douglas County Chief Deputy; Liz Reid, police informant; Wendy Cowell, Mackenzie's mother; Christopher Wilson, Mackenzie's classmate; Jefferson Robbins, investigative reporter, The Wenatchee World, CBS News consultant; Kathleen Zornes, Wilson's mother; Amelia Savage, Wilson's best friend; John Henry Browne, Wilson's attorney; Emma Scanlon, Wilson's attorney; Gary Reisen, prosecutor; Emmanuel "Buddah" Cerros, accused by Liz Reid of Mackenzie's murder. 48 HOURS (continued)

11/17/12 48 HOURS: "Soccer Moms Confidential" (9:00-10:00p) - a report on the investigation of ex-cop turned private eye Chris Butler who staffed his San Francisco Bay area firm with local soccer moms to solve cases. Butler and his firm of private investigator moms became media sensations -- Lifetime Television started a reality show based on the P.I. Moms. Reporter Pete Crooks was invited to write about the real-life "Charlie's Angels", but the story took a strange turn when he learned from a confidential informant that most of the cases were staged, crooked cops were involved, and that Butler was dealing drugs with top California narcotics cop Norm Wielsch. Butler and Wielsch were also running a massage parlor which was allegedly a front for prostitution. On Screen Text Graphics: A trial date has not been set. If convicted, Chris Butler and Norm Wielsch could face up to life in prison on several of the charges. Updated on-screen text graphic for the 11/17/12 rebroadcast: Chris Butler was sentenced to eight years in prison. But he could be released a year early in April 2019. He would be fifty-eight years old. Norm Wielsch is scheduled to go on trial in January 2013. 11/17/12 48 HOURS: "Highway of Tears" (10:00-11:00p) - A report on the more than twenty girls and women, who since 1969, have disappeared or been killed along the stretch of pavement in rural British Columbia, Canada, known as Highway 16. To locals, the road is now known simply as "The Highway of Tears". Maddy Scott may be one of the roadway's many victims. On May 28, 2012, the 21-year-old went to a party with 50 others at Hogsback Lake, not far from the highway, only to never be seen again. Just six months earlier, in the same town, 15-year-old Loren Leslie's body was found on a logging road not far from Highway 16. Leslie was brutally beaten and molested. There are signs all along Highway 16 warning women not to hitchhike because a killer might be on the loose, but the murders have not ceased. Police arrested 20-year-old Cody Legebokoff in Leslie's murder. A patrolman pulled him over, thinking he was poaching game. He had Leslie's ID in his truck. Her body was just down the road. Legebokoff has since been identified as the alleged killer of three others, though police have not revealed how they've connected him to the murders that occurred in 2009 and 2010. Still, because of his age, police know Legebokoff couldn't be responsible for all of the murders along Highway 16. Just two months ago, officials at the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) got a break in some cases because they linked DNA samples from one of the highway's victims, Colleen MacMillen, found murdered in 1974, to Bobby Jack Fowler. Police also believe Fowler, a Texas native who worked as a roofer in Prince George, may have killed as many as twenty people in the United States and Canada. Victims of Highway 16 mentioned in this broadcast: Alberta Williams, Delphine Nikal, Lana Derrick, Monica Ignas, Monica Jack, Ramona Wilson, Tamara Chipman, Gail Weys, Pamela Darlington. On Screen Graphics: Cody Legebokoff, accused of murdering Loren Leslie and three other women, is expected to stand trial in September 2013. Investigators believe Bobby Jack Fowler may have killed as many as 20 people across the United States and Canada. Interviewed: Dawn and Eldon Scott, Parents of Madison (Maddy) Scott; Bob Friel, investigative reporter, Outside magazine, CBS News consultant; Sgt. Ken Floyd and Constable Tom Wamsteeker, Royal Canadian Mounted Police; Amanda Fitzpatrick, Jasmine Klassen and Jordy Bolduc, Maddy's friends; Doug and Donna Leslie, parents of Loren Leslie; Charleine Laing, Loren's friend; Garett Anatole, Cody's friend; Sgt. 48 HOURS (continued)

11/24/12 48 HOURS: "Presumed Guilty" - a report on the nearly thirty year effort of Frank O'Connell and his son Nick, to overturn his conviction for the 1984 murder of Jay French in Pasadena, California. French was the ex-husband of Jeanne, a woman O'Connell had dated for a short time months before. French and his ex-wife, Jeanne, had a bitter custody dispute over their son. Police maintained O'Connell shot French to help Jeanne. O'Connell said he was thirty miles away and had witnesses to prove it. On his attorney's advice, O'Connell waived his right to a jury trial putting his fate in the hands of a judge. He gambled wrong and was sentenced to 25 years-to-life in prison. He filed four separate appeals between 1986 and 1995, and all were denied. Then he reached out to Centurion Ministries, a non-profit organization dedicated to overturning wrongful convictions. Finally in 1998, Centurion Ministries sent Frank a letter accepting his case. Kate Germond, Director of Centurion Ministries, knew the eyewitness to the shooting, neighbor Dan Druecker, was the strongest part of the state's case against Frank. After Kate asked Dan to read the police files from the case, he decided to officially recant his testimony with a declaration in September 2008. This reversal convinced the judge to reopen the case against O'Connell, granting access to the entire file left behind by the detectives in 1985. Centurion discovered notes in the file revealing there was another witness who was not certain about their identification of O'Connell, much like Dan. By withholding these notes, detectives violated a 1963 Supreme Court ruling: authorities must reveal any evidence that could change the outcome of a trial. A judge recognized these actions and the ruling of Frank's conviction was overturned. The 1985 conviction would remain overturned, but the original murder charges against O'Connell were not dropped. Frank was out on bail for 30 days until the next hearing where the District Attorney's Office was unable to present enough evidence against O'Connell; the case was dismissed. Frank can still be arrested and retried if they do come up with new evidence. On Screen Graphics: Frank O'Connell is the 49th person freed by the work of Centurion Ministries. Interviewed: Lt. Dave Dolson and Detective Steve Lankford, LA County Sheriff's Department; Frank O'Connell, defendant; Nick O'Connell, Frank's son; Daniel Druecker, Jay French's neighbor; Gina French, Jay's widow; Rosemarie O'Connell, Frank's mother; Kate Germond, Director of Centurion Ministries; Dr. Robert Shomer, expert on eyewitness testimony; Juan Mejia, Assistant District Attorney; Jolene French, Jay's sister. 48 HOURS

12/01/12 48 HOURS: "The Hunt for Mr. Wright" - a report on George Wright, who was sentenced to prison for the 1962 murder of New Jersey service station owner Walter Patterson, and who after spending 8 years in prison, escaped, and spent 40 years on the run from the authorities. This report follows a five-decade search of the task force comprised of the FBI, U.S. Marshals and New Jersey Department of Corrections officers as they searched the world for him, and Ann Patterson's fight to bring her father's killer to justice. In 1962, George Wright and Walter McGhee pleaded no contest to the murder of Walter Patterson, who was beaten and shot during a robbery at his Wall Township, NJ, Esso station. McGhee got life became the fatal bullet matched his gun; Wright got 15-30 years. Eight years later, George Wright escaped from jail. In 1972, dressed as a priest, Wright smuggled a gun on an airplane as part of an elaborate hijack plot to hijack the airplane with members of a black militant movement. They demanded $1 million, one of the largest ransoms for a hijacking at that time. The hijackers also wanted a flight to Algeria, which they got, and George Wright disappeared again. He successfully dodged authorities and drifted around France, Germany and Portugal, until he found the perfect place to hide, the tiny west African country of Guinea Bissau. And unbelievably, he did good deeds and helped the poor while there, marrying the daughter of an influential Portuguese general and fathering two children. To many, his criminal past was an open secret. He lived there 13 years, eventually getting citizenship under an assumed name, Jose Luis Jorge Dos Santos. After almost 50 years, the task force hit paydirt and in 2011, George Wright was cornered in a Lisbon cafe. But the victory was short-lived: Portuguese authorities dismissed the U.S. demand for extradition, claiming that despite his phony identification, Wright was a Portuguese citizen and they were not obligated to turn him over. Last summer, with no obvious way to bring him to justice, the Patterson family made an appeal on Capitol Hill for help. And now, it seems that George Wright has disappeared again. On-screen text graphic: The Justice Department says it did not pursue further appeals in this case. Interviewed: Ann Patterson and her daughters Jackie and Terry; R. J. Gallagher, retired FBI agent; Dan Klotz, U.S. Marshall; Rick Cope, NJ Department of Corrections; Walter McGhee, accomplice; Mike Finkel, GQ magazine writer, who interviewed George Wright, who is heard on tape from the interview; Capt. 12/08/12 48 HOURS: "Everything to Lose" - a report on the murder of Dana Clair Edwards and the story of Edwards' mother, Deborah Edwards, who believing the alleged killer, Dana's ex-boyfriend, Jon Thomas Ford (also referred to as Thomas Ford) was actually guilty, tormented him with notes and emails marking anniversaries, birthdays and holidays; each note including a reference to her daughter. Dana Clair Edwards was found dead in her home in San Antonio, Texas just after New Year's 2009. She was last seen alive leaving a New Year's Eve party just after midnight. Police believed the killer had also murdered her beloved rescue dog, Grit, and dumped his lifeless body two miles from the crime scene. Police interviewed friends and acquaintances, including John Thomas Ford. Though no longer a couple, they each attended the same New Year's Eve party. Prosecutors soon believed that he was their main suspect, but the investigation dragged on and Ford remained a free man. Deborah Edwards became frustrated with the pace of the investigation and started writing to Ford. She sent the notes for months. Finally, a year after the murder, a break occurred in the case and Ford was arrested on murder charges. There were many mistakes made in the investigation, including lost surveillance footage and evidence, but prosecutors believed they could get a conviction despite Ford having hired a famed defense attorney: Dick Deguerin. In fact, one of the prosecutors was a former student of Deguerin. The trial commenced and prosecutors were at first worried, but they used cell phone records to map his movements and dispute his alibi. He was found guilty. On-screen text graphic: Thomas Ford is appealing his conviction. He will be eligible for parole in twenty years. The remains of Dana Clair and Grit were laid to rest one month after the conclusion of the trial. Interviewed: Darrell J. Edwards and Deborah Edwards (parents of Dana Clair Edwards); Tammy Treascher, Darrel J. 12/22/12 48 HOURS: "Mystery on Twin Peaks Drive" - a report on the December 16, 1998 death of Ronda Reynolds, whose husband found her lifeless body with a gunshot wound to the head in her home on Twin Peaks Drive in Toledo, Washington. The death was quickly ruled a suicide. Refusing to accept the findings, Ronda's mother, Barb Thompson, launched her own investigation. She enlisted the help of world-famous true crime writer Ann Rule, who eventually wrote the bestseller "In the Still of the Night", about the case. Their investigation led Washington State authorities to revisit the case by holding a coroner's inquest -- a rare and unusual proceeding -- to determine the cause of death and who might be responsible. The inquest resulted in the death being reclassified as a homicide and it determined that she had died at the hands of either her husband Ronald A. Reynolds and/or Ronald's son, Jonathan A. Reynolds. However, the Lewis County prosecutor announced he would not prosecute either man because most of the evidence had been destroyed after Ronda's death. The case remains an open investigation. On Screen Text graphic: The Reynolds family is contemplating suing Barb Thompson, Ann Rule and the Lewis County Coroner. Changes were proposed to Washington State's law following the Reynold's case. A judge or prosecutor would have to approve any coroner's arrest warrant. 12/29/12 48 HOURS: "The Stranger Beside Me" - On March 18, 2010, Jamie Laiaddee vanished from her home in a suburb of Phoenix, Arizona. Her live-in boyfriend Bryan Stewart told everyone she had moved to Denver, Colorado to take a new job. When detectives started searching for Jamie, they discovered Bryan was a con man, and suspected he was also her killer. Jamie and Bryan met through a University of Michigan Alumni Club, and dated for more than two years. Bryan lied to Jamie about most of his life. His real name was Rick Wayne Valentini; he never attended the University of Michigan; he served two years in military prison; and he had three ex-wives and two daughters. When detectives searched Bryan/Rick's apartment they found Jamie's wallet and a small white envelope containing Jamie's driver's license, some credit cards, and her University of Michigan Alumni card, cut up into pieces. Moreover, Bryan/Rick was using her credit cards for online dating websites. He continued to claim Jamie took $100,000 and moved to Colorado for a new job, but this claim was dismissed after Jamie's new boss showed up in court detailing how he had just hired Jamie - in Arizona. A jailhouse snitch took the stand and said Bryan/Rick told him that the police knew he killed Jamie. Bryan/Rick testified last and claimed he and Jamie communicated via e-mail and telephone after her disappearance, but the prosecution forced him to admit he had not seen or spoken to her. On March 24, 2011, a Grand Jury indicted Bryan/Rick on charges of second-degree murder of his girlfriend, Jamie Laiaddee. He was also charged with fraud for using her credit cards without her permission. On-Screen Graphics: Bryan Stewart is now inmate 268586 and is known to his jailers as Rick Wayne Valentini.
