Friday, January 7, 2011

- You Break it, You Buy it: A "WWYD?" "shopper" accidentally breaks something at a high end interior design showroom chock full of expensive home furnishings. What will happen when she asks the surrounding shoppers to remain quiet and not tell the manager what happened or who was at fault? At what point will tempers flare?
- Dine and Dash: Three loud teenage boys, out for a meal at an established family restaurant, dare each other to exit without paying for their food. When the check arrives, one by one they slyly make their way out of the diner - having just pulled off a "dine and dash." How will fellow diners respond?
- Yelling at the Elderly: What will people do if they saw an elderly man being taunted by a group of teenage boys -- will anyone confront the kids and step in to save the senior? What will happen if, instead of an elderly man, the boys decide to harass an elderly woman? Finally, what if the bullies are teenage girls?

Friday, January 14, 2011

- GOLD DIGGER: A young, attractive woman sits at the bar with her fiancé -- a much older man. When he goes to the restroom, the woman confides in the bartender, telling him she can't wait for her fiancé to die so she can get his money and finally marry someone her own age. What happens if the couple is an older woman and a younger man?

Friday, January 21, 2011

She pulls out a cup/sign and sets up shop to ask for spare change. What would you do? What happens when the panhandler is a man?
- FAKE SLIP AND FALL: It's a multi-billion dollar scam -- a customer in a store slips and falls, then threatens to sue the store for damages. What happens when our perpetrator tries to pull this scam in front of eyewitnesses who know that no such accident occurred in the first place?

Friday, February 4, 2011

- ARIZONA IMMIGRATION LAW: What will bystanders do when they observe people being racially profiled right in front of them? "WWYD" travels to Arizona, which has recently enacted a controversial illegal immigration law that would permit law enforcement to seek identification from people suspected of being illegal aliens, even having committed no crime. Will anyone speak up when they observe an off-duty security guard confront a Latino family at a restaurant and demand identification for no apparent reason other than their appearance? In a twist, John Quinones himself steps into the role of the one being questioned.

Contest winner Amy Saffell says it's a situation she frequently faces. Submitted by: Grand Prize Winner Amy Saffell from Franklin, TN
- INSULTED: A boy is insulted and abused by a group of boys at a diner. Will other patrons step in? Will anyone join in with the "ginger abuse" – when red heads are verbally attacked by others because of the color of their hair? Submitted by: Jonathan Gilsdorf from Rocklin, California (please note: Jonathan did not meet the contest age requirement and was not an official contestant)
- "WWYD" CLASSROOM ASSIGNMENT: John Quiñones and the "WWYD?" cameras visit students from a Buffalo, New York middle school class who submitted scenario ideas for a teacher's assignment (these submissions were not official contest entries as they were sent in by minors).

- GAY MILITARY SERVICEMEN: It has only been two months since the military's "don't ask, don't tell" policy was repealed. While polls show a majority of Americans support the end of the 17-year-old policy, others have openly opposed the decision. The repeal remains a hot topic, so "WWYD?" decided to set up its hidden cameras in a NJ diner to see how some fellow diners felt about openly gay servicemen showing affection in public.
- INTERRACIAL ADOPTION: Two friends having lunch together to meet the newly adopted daughter of one of the women turns into an uncomfortable situation when the other woman disapproves - since the new daughter is black and the mother is white. Will anyone at a restaurant interrupt their lunch and stand up for the new mom?
- ONLINE SCAMS: At an internet cafe, an older woman is having trouble with her computer and asks another patron to help her wire money to a man halfway around the world for what she believes is a fantastic opportunity. It is pretty clear that she is being scammed. Will bystanders come to her aid?

First Quarter 2011 Issues and Programs Report

Friday, March 4, 2011

- GAY MILITARY SERVICEMENT: It has only been two months since the military's "don't ask, don't tell" policy was repealed, with the final implementation awaiting review by the President, the Secretary of Defense and the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. While polls show a majority of Americans support the end of the 17-year-old policy, others have openly opposed the decision. The repeal remains a hot topic, so "WWYD?" decided to set up its hidden cameras in a NJ diner to see how some fellow diners felt about openly gay servicemen showing affection in public.
- MISBEHAVING KIDS: Will anyone in a diner approach a parent whose two out-of-control kids are wreaking havoc, disturbing some of the customers? What if an overwhelmed waiter asks the children to please quiet down and the hi-jinks continue, or if the "manager" throws them out of the restaurant... will patrons cheer the manager or stand by the family?
- BOTOX MOM-ZILLA: What will patrons do at a beauty salon intervene when a mother tries to convince her reluctant teenage daughter to get botox?

Friday, March 11, 2011

- WORK-OUT FROM HELL: Health clubs and fitness centers around the country are more popular than ever, but they're also a hotbed for some bad behavior and lack of respect for others. "WWYD's" hidden cameras looks at etiquette at the gym - will anyone speak up when a man monopolizes the equipment, or refuses to clean up his weights, or chats on his cell phone while others wait their turn? And what will happen when the "WWYD" "gym member" enters a gym class late, talks and laughs and even take on the instructor during the routine?
- FLIRTING WITH DANGER: A couple sit at a bar having dinner together. The wife is very into the husband, but the husband is paying very little attention to her. When she excuses herself to go to the bathroom, the husband aggressively hits on a single woman seating nearby, asking if she would like to go out sometime. Will bystanders blow the husband's cover when his wife comes back from the bathroom?
- ONLINE BULLYING: The anonymity of the internet allows individuals to bully and tease relentlessly and often with little consequence. So "WWYD" set up a scenario to see if any patrons of a coffee shop will intervene when they overhear "mean girls" harassing a fellow classmate over the internet with degrading comments and unflattering pictures.

Friday, March 18, 2011

- FAVORITISM: Will fellow shoppers say anything when a mother clearly favors one daughter, making rude comments to her other daughter, while shopping at a clothing store?
- TEEN BIKINI FAT: When a mother berates her daughter at the beach for wearing a bikini that makes her look fat, throwing insult after insult, will anyone stand up for the daughter?
- SERVICE DOG DISCRIMINATION: A woman who relies on her service dog is harassed by fellow diners at a restaurant. The disabled person assures the manager that, not only is the dog specially trained and well behaved, but it is legal for her to have him with her at a restaurant. But the maitre d' / manager sides with the other diners. How will other patrons react?
- LAUNDROMAT THEFT: What will happen when someone starts to steal clothes from someone else's dryer at a laundromat? Will anyone confront the potential thief?

First Quarter 2011 Issues and Programs Report

Friday, March 25, 2011

- RACE APPROPRIATE TOYS: A landmark study conducted in the 1940s, and cited to support desegregation in Brown v Board of Education, showed that a majority of black children showed an inherent preference for playing with white dolls over black dolls, identifying with the white dolls and displaying a poignant disconnect from dolls of their own skin color. Fast forward to 2011 – what happens when a white child opts for a black doll and vice versa? What if the caretakers for the children begin admonishing the children for their choice of dolls? Will anyone intervene?
- WAITER SERVING DIRTY FOOD: When a waiter drops food on the floor and serves it to an unsuspecting couple sitting in a booth, will anyone warn the couple or say anything to the waiter? Twist: Will anyone say anything after they hear how rude and obnoxious the couple is to the waiter?
- CHEATING HUSBAND: When a travelling businessman makes his daily Skype call to check in with his wife, he says all the right things – telling her he misses her and that he hates the marathon meetings he's been stuck in. Unfortunately, the other customers at this internet café are seeing a much different picture. What they know and the wife doesn't, is that he has a woman with him just off camera... and the only business they're up to is funny business. Will customers step in to say something to the man?
- TOO THIN MODEL: An already thin teen model type is berated by her agent to eat less. When the young woman tries to order something other than a salad, the agent scolds her. Will anyone intervene?
