E.W. SCRIPPS OWNERSHIP TRANSFER PUBLIC NOTIFICATION
FULL-SERVICE STATION PUBLIC NOTICE TEXT

On January 24, 2013, Scripps Media, Inc. filed an application for transfer of control of the license of Station WPTV-TV with the Federal Communications Commission. WPTV-TV broadcasts on channel 12 and is received on virtual channel 5.

The transferor is The Edward W. Scripps Trust, whose trustees are John H. Burlingame, Mary McCabe Peirce, and Nackey E. Scagliotti. This trust terminated by its terms in 2012, and, under orders of a probate court, the trustees intend to distribute the trust's shares in the corporate parent of Scripps Media, Inc. to the trust beneficiaries.

The transferee is the Scripps Family Shareholders, a group that includes these beneficiaries and certain other descendants of Edward W. Scripps, all of whom are listed in the application. The attributable parties to the transferee are Peter R. La Dow, Barbara Victoria Scripps Evans, Paul K. Scripps, and Eaton M. Scripps.

A copy of the application and any amendments or related materials are available for public inspection at www.fcc.gov.

WPTV broadcast the above announcement on February 2, February 3, February 5, and February 6, 2013.
